354. Hon JIM SCOTT to the parliamentary secretary representing the Minister for State Development:

Further to question without notice 165 of 18 September 2002 -

- (1) Has the minister now read the cumulative risk report and does he intend to table it; and, if not, why not?
- (2) Has the member for Peel now asked for this report to be tabled and for an inquiry to be held in relation to the report?
- (3) Has the minister discussed the report with, or revealed its content to, the member for Peel?
- (4) Is the minister concerned at the content of the report; and, if so, why is he not making his concerns known to the community that is affected by the risk levels?

Hon KEN TRAVERS replied:

I thank the member for some notice of this question.

- (1) The Minister for State Development advises that he has read the report and is still considering whether to release it.
- (2) The member for Peel raised a grievance with the Minister for State Development on Thursday, 7 November and Hansard records what the member for Peel said.
- (3) The minister has discussed the report with the member for Peel.
- (4) The minister is still seeking to clarify certain issues in the report. Once these matters are clarified, he will be in a position to consider releasing the report.
