

DR ROBERT FINLAY-JONES, BAN IN NEW SOUTH WALES

359. Hon Jim Scott to the Minister for Racing and Gaming representing the Minister for Consumer and Employment Protection

Will the psychiatrist, Dr Robert Finlay-Jones, who has been banned from practise in New South Wales, be allowed to continue to practise in Western Australia?

Hon N.D. GRIFFITHS replied:

The issue of whether a medical practitioner can operate in this state is determined by the Medical Board and you may wish to direct your enquiry to the Hon Minister for Health.
