

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS - RESOURCES

442. Mr P.D. OMODEI to the Attorney General:

I ask a supplementary question. The Director of Public Prosecutions said that he is 50 lawyers short. Is the Attorney General saying that he is lying; and, if he is not lying, what does the Attorney General intend to do about his claim?

Mr J.A. McGINTY replied:

This is one occasion on which we cannot accuse The West Australian of being misleading because, as I read today's The West Australian, the DPP did not say anything of the sort.
