

BUTLER TRAIN STATION — ANIMATION COST

718. Hon LJILJANNA RAVLICH to the parliamentary secretary representing the Minister for Transport:

I refer to the animation of the future Butler train station.

- (1) How much did the animation cost?
- (2) When was it ordered?
- (3) Who requested that it be produced and why?

Hon JIM CHOWN replied:

I thank the member for the question.

- (1) The Public Transport Authority paid $7 000, excluding GST, for unrestricted use of the animation. The member may have seen it used recently on Channel Seven news to promote this very important public transport project.
- (2) June 2013.
- (3) Not Applicable
