

SOUTH COAST HIGHWAY — UPGRADES

636. Mr R.S. Love to the Minister for Transport:

I refer to the RAC's Risky Roads survey, which named South Coast Highway as the fifth riskiest road in regional Western Australia and ask:

(a) Will the Minister please outline upgrade works scheduled for the South Coast Highway?

Ms R. Saffioti replied:

(a) Since 2017, the State Government has invested $54 million upgrading South Coast Highway, including:

Upgrading the Mead Road, Kalgan River and Kojaneerup sections between Albany and Jerramungup, including widening and construction of three passing lanes

Rehabilitating pavement and widening the seal between Munglinup and Esperance.

Undertaking 32km of seal widening between Ravensthorpe and Munglinup.

Rehabilitating pavement rehabilitation and seal widening near Thomas Road, 10 km west of Ravensthorpe.

Project development work is underway for further upgrades of South Coast Highway.
