Schedule 6 — Transitional provisions

Division 1 — Preliminary

1. Terms used

In this Schedule — amended Act means this Act as amended by the amending Act;
amending Act means the Industrial Relations Amendment Act 2018;
commencement day means the day on which the amending Act section 66 comes into operation;
former, in relation to a section, means the section as in force immediately before commencement day;
former acting President — see clause 2(1);
matter includes any application, reference, proceeding or appeal.

Division 2 — Provisions for President

2. Acting President: continuation in office

(1) A person who holds the office of acting President immediately before commencement day (the former acting President) may, for a period approved by the Minister, remain in office with the functions and entitlements of the former acting President for the purpose of completing any matter or inquiry not completed by the former acting President before commencement day.

(2) The Minister may extend, or further extend, the period approved under subclause (1) and may do so even if the period has expired.

3. Past President’s pension entitlements

Despite the amendments made by the amending Act section 19(3), former section 20(12) and (13) continues to apply in relation to a person who held office as President or acting President before commencement day or the surviving spouse, de facto partner or child of that person.

4. Judicial notice of signature and appointment of President

All courts and persons acting judicially must take judicial notice of the official signature of every person who has remained in office under clause 2 or has at any time been or acted in the office of President of the Commission under the Act and of the fact that the person has held or acted in the office.

Division 3 — Provisions for pending matters

5. Pending matters

(1) In this clause —

Commission means the Commission constituted by the former acting President, or constituted including the former acting President;

former Act means the Act as in force immediately before commencement day.

(2) A matter is to be dealt with in accordance with the relevant provisions of the amended Act if —

(a) the matter was before the Commission immediately before commencement day; but

(b) the Commission had not begun to hear the matter.

(3) Except as provided in subclauses (4) and (5), if the Commission has begun or completed hearing a matter, but has not finally determined the matter immediately before commencement day, the matter is to continue to be dealt with on or after that day in accordance with the relevant provisions of the former Act.

(4) A matter is to be dealt with in accordance with the relevant provisions of the amended Act if —

(a) the matter was before the Commission immediately before commencement day; and

(b) the Commission has begun or completed hearing a matter, but has not finally determined the matter; and

(c) the former acting President is not in the office of acting President immediately after commencement day, or ceases to remain in office after commencement day.
(5) The Chief Commissioner may, after consulting with the former acting President, direct that —

(a) subclause (3) does not apply to a matter specified in the direction; and

(b) the matter is to be dealt with in accordance with the relevant provisions of the amended Act.

(6) A direction under subclause (5) has effect in accordance with its terms.

6. Order under former s. 49 does not begin hearing of appeal

An appeal under section 49 has not commenced to be heard merely because an application for an order under section 49(11) in respect of the decision appealed against has been made, heard or determined.

7. Notices and applications under former s. 55

(1) If a notice published under former section 55(2) in relation to an application refers to the Full Bench, but on commencement day the Full Bench has not begun to hear the application, the reference is taken to be a reference to the Commission in Court Session.

(2) If the hearing of an application made under former section 55 has not begun immediately before commencement day, the application must be dealt with under section 55 of the amended Act.

8. Summons under former s. 73

(1) In this clause —

former section 73 summons means a summons issued under former section 73.

(2) A former section 73 summons to appear before the Full Bench on a date that is on or after commencement day —

(a) is taken to be a summons issued under section 73 of the amended Act to appear before the Commission in Court Session on that date; and
(b) is to be dealt with under the amended Act as if it were a summons issued under section 73 of the amended Act to appear before the Commission in Court Session.
