28 the chief executive officer in relation to the notice
29 within the following period (the submission period) —

31 given; or
- 32 (b) any longer period after that day allowed by the 33 chief executive officer.

- 1 (3) After the submission period, the chief executive officer 2 must —
- 3 (a) decide whether or not to take removal action 4 against the prison officer; and
- 5 (b) give the prison officer written notice of the 6 decision (the decision notice).
- 7 (4) The chief executive officer must not decide to take 8 removal action against the prison officer unless the 9 chief executive officer —
- 10 (a) has taken into account any written submissions 11 received from the prison officer during the 12 submission period; and
- 13 (b) still does not have confidence in a prison
14 officer’s suitability to continue as a prison 15 officer.
- 16 (5) If the chief executive officer decides to take removal 17 action against the prison officer, the decision notice 18 must contain the reasons for the decision.

20 executive officer must, within 7 days after giving the 26 inspection any other materials that were 27 considered by the chief executive officer in 28 making the decision.

30 is given or at any time after that.

6 removed (the maintenance period).
- 7 (2) The Minister may, in exceptional circumstances, direct 8 that a maintenance payment must be paid to the prison 9 officer for a specified period after the maintenance 10 period.
- 11 (3) For the purpose of subsection (2), the specified period 12 is a period not exceeding 6 months specified by the 13 Minister but in any event ending on the day any appeal 14 is determined by the WAIRC.
- 15 (4) Any maintenance payment must be determined on the 16 basis of the salary of the prison officer at the time of 17 the removal.
- 18 104. Withdrawal of removal action and revocation of 19 removal
- 20 (1) If removal action does not result in the removal of a 21 prison officer, the chief executive officer may, by 22 notice in writing to the prison officer, withdraw the 23 removal action.
- 24 (2) If a prison officer is removed as a result of removal 25 action, the chief executive officer may, by notice in 26 writing to the prison officer, revoke the removal.
- 27 (3) Subsection (2) applies even if an appeal has been 28 instituted against the removal.
- 29 (4) Despite any other enactment, if the removal is revoked 30 under subsection (2), the removal is to be taken to be of 31 no effect and to have never had any effect.

- 1 (5) If the chief executive officer revokes the removal of a 2 prison officer under subsection (2), the prison officer is 3 not entitled to be paid his or her salary for any period 4 the prison officer received a maintenance payment.

5 105. Resignation of prison officer who has been removed

- 6 (1) Even if a prison officer is removed as a result of 7 removal action, the prison officer may resign at any 8 time before the end of the maintenance period.
- 9 (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if an appeal has been 10 instituted against the removal.
- 11 (3) A resignation under subsection (1) takes effect at the 12 end of the maintenance period.
- 13 (4) Despite any other enactment, if a prison officer resigns 14 under subsection (1), the removal of the prison officer 15 is to be taken to be of no effect and to have never had 16 any effect.

17 Subdivision 3 — Appeal against removal of prison officer

18 106. Appeal right

- 19 (1) If a prison officer is removed as a result of removal
20 action, the prison officer may appeal to the WAIRC 21 against the removal decision on the ground that it was 22 harsh, oppressive or unfair.
- 23 (2) The prison officer may institute the appeal by a notice 24 to the chief executive officer stating —
- 25 (a) the reasons for the removal decision being 26 harsh, oppressive or unfair; and
- 27 (b) the nature of the relief sought.
- 28 (3) The appeal cannot be instituted —
- 29 (a) after the maintenance period; or

s. 7

- 1 (b) if the prison officer has resigned under 2 section 105(1).
- 3 (4) For the purposes of proceedings relating to the appeal, 4 the WAIRC is to be constituted by not less than 5 3 industrial Commissioners, at least one of whom must 6 be —
- 7 (a) the Chief Commissioner; or 8 (b) the Senior Commissioner within the meaning of 9 that term in the Industrial Relations Act 1979.
- 10 (5) The only parties to the appeal are the prison officer and 11 the chief executive officer.
- 12 (6) The prison officer does not have any right of appeal 13 against the removal decision other than under this 14 section.

15 107. Proceedings on appeal

- 16 (1) On the hearing of an appeal, the WAIRC must proceed 17 in the following manner —
- 18 (a) first, it must consider the chief executive 19 officer's reasons for the removal decision;
- 20 (b) second, it must consider the case presented by 21 the appellant as to why the removal decision 22 was harsh, oppressive or unfair;
- 23 (c) third, it must consider the case presented by the 24 chief executive officer in answer to the 25 appellant's case.
- 26 (2) The appellant has at all times the burden of establishing 27 that the removal decision was harsh, oppressive or 28 unfair.
- 29 (3) Subsection (2) has effect despite any law or practice to 30 the contrary.

- 1 (4) Without limiting the matters to which the WAIRC is 2 otherwise required or permitted to have regard in 3 determining the appeal, it must have regard to — 4 (a) the interests of the appellant; and 5 (b) the public interest, which is to be taken to 6 include —
7 (i) the importance of maintaining public 8 confidence in the integrity, honesty, 9 conduct and standard of performance of 10 prison officers; and 11 (ii) the special nature of the relationship 12 between the chief executive officer and 13 prison officers.

14 108. Leave to tender new evidence on appeal

- 15 (1) New evidence cannot be tendered to the WAIRC
16 during a hearing of an appeal unless the WAIRC grants 17 leave under subsection (2) or (3).
18 (2) The WAIRC may grant the chief executive officer 19 leave to tender new evidence if — 20 (a) the appellant consents; or 21 (b) it is satisfied that it is in the interests of justice 22 to do so.
23 (3) The WAIRC may grant the appellant leave to tender 24 new evidence if — 25 (a) the chief executive officer consents; or 26 (b) the WAIRC is satisfied that — 27 (i) the appellant is likely to be able to use 28 the new evidence to show that the chief 29 executive officer has acted upon wrong 30 or mistaken information; or

s. 7

- 1 (ii) the new evidence might materially have 2 affected the chief executive officer's
3 removal decision; or
4 (iii) it is in the interests of justice to do so.
- 5 (4) In the exercise of its discretion under subsection (3), 6 the WAIRC must have regard to —
- 7 (a) whether or not the appellant was aware of the 8 substance of the new evidence before the 9 appellant's removal; and 10 (b) whether or not the substance of the new 11 evidence was contained in a document to which 12 the appellant had reasonable access before the 13 appellant's removal.

14 109. Opportunity to consider new evidence

- 15 (1) If the chief executive officer is given leave to tender 16 new evidence under section 108(2) —
- 17 (a) the WAIRC must give the appellant a 18 reasonable opportunity to consider the new 19 evidence; and 20 (b) the appellant may, without the leave of the 21 WAIRC, tender new evidence under this 22 section in response to the new evidence 23 tendered by the chief executive officer.
- 24 (2) If the appellant is given leave to tender new evidence 25 under section 108(3), the WAIRC must give the chief 26 executive officer a reasonable opportunity to consider 27 the new evidence.

- 1 110A. Revocation of removal after consideration of new 2 evidence
- 3 (1) If, having considered any new evidence, the chief 4 executive officer revokes the removal under 5 section 104(2) —
- 6 (a) the chief executive officer must give the 7 WAIRC notice of the revocation; and
- 8 (b) the hearing of the appeal is discontinued when 9 the WAIRC receives the notice.
- 10 (2) If the chief executive officer does not give notice under 11 subsection (1), the hearing of the appeal must continue 12 but the chief executive officer may —
- 13 (a) reformulate his or her reasons for not having 14 confidence in the appellant’s suitability to 15 continue as a prison officer; and
- 16 (b) without the leave of the WAIRC, tender new 17 evidence under this section in response to the 18 new evidence tendered by the appellant.
- 19 (3) Reasons reformulated under subsection (2)(a) may 20 differ from, or be additional to, the reasons given to the 21 appellant in the decision notice.
- 22 (4) If the chief executive officer reformulates reasons 23 under subsection (2)(a) —
- 24 (a) the chief executive officer must give the 25 WAIRC and the appellant notice in writing of 26 the reasons before the resumption of the 27 hearing of the appeal; and
- 28 (b) the WAIRC must consider the reasons as if 29 they had been reasons given to the appellant in 30 the decision notice.

- 3 (1) The chief executive officer or an appellant may apply 4 to the WAIRC for an adjournment of the hearing of an 5 appeal if the appellant has been —
- 6 (a) charged with an offence relating to any matter, 7 act or omission that was taken into account by

- 1 the chief executive officer in deciding that he or 2 she did not have confidence in the appellant's 3 suitability to continue as a prison officer; and 4 (b) the charge has not been finally determined by a 5 court or otherwise disposed of.
- 6 (2) If an adjournment application is made by the chief 7 executive officer, the WAIRC may adjourn the hearing 8 of the appeal if it considers that it is in the interests of 9 justice to do so.
- 10 (3) If an adjournment application is made by the appellant, 11 the WAIRC must adjourn the hearing of the appeal for 12 the period (not exceeding 12 months) requested by the 13 appellant.
- 14 (4) Before the end of the period of an adjournment under 15 this section, the chief executive officer or the appellant
16 may apply to the WAIRC for a further adjournment 17 and, if it is in the interests of justice to do so, the 18 WAIRC may grant a further adjournment for the period 19 specified by it.
- 20 (5) Subsections (2) and (4) do not affect any other power 21 of the WAIRC to grant an adjournment.

22 110D. Resumption of appeal before end of adjournment

23 If the charge is finally determined by a court or 24 otherwise disposed of before the end of an adjournment 25 under section 110C, the chief executive officer or the 26 appellant may apply to the WAIRC for the hearing of 27 the appeal to be resumed on a date specified by the 28 WAIRC.

29 110E. Decision by WAIRC

- 30 (1) This section applies if the WAIRC decides on an 31 appeal that the decision to take removal action relating 32 to the appellant was harsh, oppressive or unfair.

s. 7

- 1 (2) The WAIRC may —
2 (a) order that the appellant's removal is, and is to 3 be taken to have always been, of no effect; or 4 (b) if it is impracticable to make an order under 5 paragraph (a), order the chief executive officer 6 to pay the appellant an amount of compensation 7 for loss or injury caused by the removal.
- 8 (3) In considering whether or not it is impracticable to 9 make an order under subsection (2)(a), it is relevant to 10 consider —
11 (a) whether, at the time of the appellant's removal, 12 the position occupied by the appellant is vacant; 13 and 14 (b) whether there is another suitable vacant 15 position in the Department.
- 16 (4) If the WAIRC makes an order under subsection (2)(a), 17 the appellant is not entitled to be paid his or her 18 remuneration as a prison officer for any period the 19 appellant received a maintenance payment.
- 20 (5) An order under this section may require that it be 21 complied with within a specified time.

22 110F. Determining amount of compensation

- 23 (1) An amount of compensation ordered under 24 section 110E(2)(b) must be determined in accordance 25 with this section.
- 26 (2) In determining the amount, the WAIRC must have 27 regard to all of the following —
28 (a) the efforts, if any, of the chief executive officer 29 and the appellant to mitigate the loss suffered 30 by the appellant as a result of the removal; 31 (b) any maintenance payment received by the 32 appellant;

- 1 (c) any redress the appellant has obtained under 2 another enactment where the evidence 3 necessary to establish that redress is also the 4 evidence necessary to establish on the appeal 5 that the removal was harsh, oppressive or 6 unfair;
7 (d) any other matter that the WAIRC considers 8 relevant.

9 (3) In determining the amount, the WAIRC may have 10 regard to the average rate of remuneration as a prison 11 officer received by the appellant during any relevant 12 period of service.

13 (4) The amount must not exceed 12 months' remuneration 14 as a prison officer.

15 110G. Restriction on publication

16 (1) If the WAIRC is satisfied that it is in the public 17 interest, it may direct that any evidence given before it, 18 or the contents of any document produced to it, on an 19 appeal —

- 20 (a) must not be published; or 21 (b) must not be published except in a manner, and 22 to persons, specified by the WAIRC.

23 (2) A person must not contravene a direction given under 24 this section.

4 or 5 (b) of which the prison officer has been convicted 6 or acquitted.

7 110I. Failure to comply with procedure

- 8 An act or omission of the chief executive officer is not 9 invalid, and cannot be called in question, if —
- 10 (a) the act or omission comprises a failure to 11 comply with procedure prescribed for the 12 purposes of this Division; and 13 (b) the failure is not substantive.

14 110J. Transfer, standing down and leave of prison officer

- 15 (1) This Division does not derogate from the chief 16 executive officer's power to —
- 17 (a) transfer a prison officer; or 18 (b) stand a prison officer down from performing 19 that prison officer's usual duties, with or 20 without pay, until the prison officer is directed 21 by the chief executive officer to return to those 22 duties; or 23 (c) allocate duties to a prison officer other than the 24 prison officer's usual duties.
- 25 (2) If the chief executive officer stands down a prison
26 officer in relation to whom removal action is being 27 taken, the chief executive officer must review the 28 decision to stand the prison officer down every 60 days 29 and advise the prison officer in writing of the result of 30 the review.

- 1 (3) The chief executive officer must not direct a prison
2 officer in relation to whom removal action is being 3 taken to take leave during the removal action unless the 4 leave accrues during any period that the prison officer 5 is stood down from performing the prison officer's 6 usual duties.

14 practicable after the expiry of 24 months after the 15 commencement day and in the course of that review 16 the Minister must consider and have regard to — 17 (a) the effectiveness of this Division; and 18 (b) the need for the retention of the Division; and 19 (c) any other matters that appear to the Minister to 20 be relevant to the operation and effectiveness of 21 this Division.

3 removal decision; or
4 (iii) it is in the interests of justice to do so.
- 5 (4) In the exercise of its discretion under subsection (3), 6 the WAIRC must have regard to —
