(a) the Commissioner is to ensure that the information recorded in the WA Register of Lobbyists in relation to that person immediately before the commencement day is recorded on the register as soon as practicable; and

(b) the recording of that information is to be taken to be sufficient compliance with section 10(2).

(3) The fact that subsection (1) applies to a person does not limit section 15.

1 (4) This section overrides section 14(2)(b).

2 28. Existing contracts for success fee

3 (1) In this section —

4 relevant date means the day on which section 21 comes into 5 operation.

6 (2) Section 21 applies in respect of any agreement, or any success
7 fee receivable under an agreement, in force before the relevant
8 date.

9 (3) However, section 21 does not apply in respect of —

- 10 (a) any success fee received before the relevant date; or 11 (b) any success fee that is receivable (whether before or 12 after the relevant date) for work carried out before the 13 relevant date; or
14 (c) the entering into, before the relevant date, of an
15 agreement to receive a success fee.

16 (4) Section 21 applies to an agreement to receive a success fee that
