Legislation of Western Australia, Table 1, pp. 65-6.]

Section 6 amended

4. Section 6 of the principal Act is amended —

- (a) by inserting in the appropriate alphabetical position the following definition —

“auxiliary District Court Judge” means an auxiliary District Court Judge appointed under section 18A (1);

and

- (b) in the definition of “District Court Judge” by deleting “or acting Judge of the Court” and substituting the following —

, acting Judge of the Court or auxiliary District
Court Judge

(b) by inserting after paragraph (a) the following —

(aa) there is a vacancy in the office of a District Court Judge, the Governor may appoint a person qualified to be appointed a District Court Judge to act as a District Court Judge until the filling of that vacancy or until that person completes the trial or hearing of any cause or matter that he or she had entered upon and not completed before the filling of that vacancy, whichever is the later; or

”.

Section 18A inserted

8. Division 2 of Part II of the principal Act is amended by inserting after section 18 the following section —

Auxiliary appointments

18A. (1) When for any reason the conduct of the business of the Court requires, in the opinion of the Governor, the appointment of an auxiliary District Court Judge, the Governor may by commission in Her Majesty's name appoint a person —

- (a) who would, but for the fact that he or she has attained the age referred to in section 3 of the Judges' Retirement Act 1937, be qualified to be appointed a District Court Judge; or
- (b) who is a retired Judge of the Supreme Court or a retired District Court Judge but has not yet attained that age, to be an auxiliary District Court Judge for such period not exceeding 12 months as is specified in that commission.

(2) The appointment of an auxiliary District Court Judge under subsection (1) authorizes him or her to complete the hearing and determination of any proceedings that may be pending before him or her at the expiry of —

- (a) the period of his or her appointment; or
- (b) any period of extension referred to in subsection (3), so that he or she holds an appointment as an auxiliary District Court Judge during any further period while he or she is completing that hearing and determination.

(3) An appointment made under subsection (1) may be extended by the Governor by commission in Her Majesty's name for a further period or periods, but that appointment can only be extended on any one occasion for such period not exceeding 12 months as is specified in the relevant commission.

(4) A person appointed to be an auxiliary District Court Judge under subsection (1) —

- (a) has the same powers and may exercise the same jurisdiction as a District Court Judge; and
- (b) is liable to be removed from office while so appointed in the same manner and upon the same grounds as a District Court Judge is liable to be removed from office.

(5) In subsection (1) (b), the reference to a retired Judge of the Supreme Court or a retired District Court Judge includes a reference to a person who has resigned from his or her office as —

- (a) a Judge of the Supreme Court; or
- (b) a District Court Judge.

PART 3 — AMENDMENTS TO INTERPRETATION
*ACT 1984
