that is part of those premises.

(2) The CEO is responsible for —

10 (a) providing for the protection of —

 (i) people who work at court premises;

 (ii) people who are required to attend court premises as a witness or juror or in the course of work; and

 (iii) other people in a courtroom,

15 from physical harm or loss of liberty that is threatened or deliberately imposed by another person;

(b) providing for the maintenance of order in court premises;

(c) the security of buildings and other real property located within or comprising court premises; and 20 (d) the management and safekeeping of personal property held on behalf of visitors to court premises.

Subdivision 2 — Custodial services

8. Management etc. of court custody centres

25 The CEO is responsible for the management, control and security of court custody centres.

9. Responsibilities as to persons in custody at court premises

The CEO is responsible for the security, control, safety, care and welfare of —

- (a) a person in custody who is in a court custody centre; and
- 5 (b) a person in custody who is within any other part of court premises except a person who is in the custody of a law enforcement officer other than the sheriff or a bailiff and who has not been dealt with by a court.

10. Property management at court custody centres

10 The CEO is responsible for the management and safekeeping of personal property held on behalf of —

- (a) persons in custody for whom the CEO is responsible under section 9; or
- (b) visitors to court custody centres.

15 11. Management etc. of lock-ups

The CEO is responsible for the management, control and security of lock-ups.

12. Responsibilities as to persons in lock-ups

- 20 (1) The CEO is responsible for the security, control, safety, care and welfare of a person in custody who is in a lock-up if —
 - (a) an authorized person has taken charge of the person in custody in response to a request under section 70(a) or 75; or
 - 25 (b) a police officer assigned to the lock-up has taken charge of the person in custody.

- (2) The CEO is responsible for the security, control, safety, care and welfare of an intoxicated detainee who is in a lock-up if —
- (a) an authorized person has taken charge of the intoxicated detainee in response to a request under section 79; or
 - (b) a police officer assigned to the lock-up has taken charge of the intoxicated detainee.

13. Property management at lock-ups

The CEO is responsible for the management and safekeeping of personal property held on behalf of —

- (a) persons in custody and intoxicated detainees for whom the CEO is responsible under section 12; or
- (b) visitors to lock-ups.

14. Responsibilities as to persons in custody at certain other custodial places

- (1) The CEO is responsible for the security, control, safety, care and welfare of a person in court custody who is at a hospital or other place that is attended by the person in court custody for medical treatment if a court has ordered that the person be placed in the charge of a person who is authorized to exercise a power set out in clause 3(1)(c) of Schedule 2.
- (2) The CEO is responsible for the security, control, safety, care and welfare of a prisoner or detainee who is at —
- (a) a hospital or other place that is outside a prison or detention centre and attended by the prisoner or detainee for medical treatment;
 - (b) a place to which the prisoner has been removed under section 28 of the Prisons Act 1981;
 - (c) a place attended by the prisoner under section 83 of the Prisons Act 1981; or

Court Security and Custodial Services Bill 1998

Part 2 Administration of court security and custodial services

Division 1 CEO's responsibilities

s. 15

(d) a place attended by the detainee under section 188(4) of the Young Offenders Act 1994, if, under the Prisons Act 1981, the Young Offenders Act 1994, or an order, direction, warrant or other instrument under those Acts or any other law, the person has been placed in the charge of a person who is authorized to exercise a power set out in clause 2(1) of Schedule 2.

(3) The CEO is responsible for the security, control, safety, care and welfare of a person in custody who is at a hospital or other place that is attended by the person in custody for medical treatment if an authorized person has taken charge of the person in custody in response to a request under section 70(b).

15. Moving persons in custody and intoxicated detainees between custodial places

(1) The CEO is responsible for ensuring that the means of moving persons in custody and intoxicated detainees between custodial places are available as an alternative, or in addition, to the means used by police officers, prison officers and other persons who move persons in custody or intoxicated detainees between custodial places.

(2) The CEO is responsible for the security, control, safety, care and welfare of a person in custody who is being moved, or being prepared to be moved, between custodial places —

(a) by an authorized person in response to a request under section 71; or

- 5 (b) under the Prisons Act 1981, the Young Offenders Act 1994, the Criminal Law (Mentally Impaired Defendants) Act 1996 or an order, direction, warrant or other instrument under those Acts or any other law, by a person who is authorized to exercise a power set out in clause 2(2), 3(2), 4 or 5 of Schedule 2, as is relevant to the case.
- 10 (3) The CEO is responsible for the security, control, safety, care and welfare of an intoxicated detainee who is being moved, or being prepared to be moved, between custodial places by an authorized person in response to a request under section 80.

16. Property management for certain persons in custody

15 The CEO is responsible for the management and safekeeping of personal property held on behalf of persons in custody and intoxicated detainees for whom the CEO is responsible under section 14 or 15.

Division 2 — Framework for administering court security and custodial services

17. Contracts with private sector

- 20 (1) For the purposes of providing any court security or custodial services the CEO may, for and on behalf of the State, enter into a contract with a person other than —
- 25 (a) the Commissioner of Police; or
(b) a member of the Public Sector as defined in the Public Sector Management Act 1994.
- (2) Part 3 applies to a contract entered into under this section.

Court Security and Custodial Services Bill 1998

Part 2 Administration of court security and custodial services

Division 2 Framework for administering court security and custodial services

s. 18

18. Arrangements with Commissioner of Police and public sector

(1) The CEO may arrange with the Commissioner of Police, whether by way of delegation under section 19 or otherwise, to provide court security or custodial services.

5 (2) The CEO may arrange with any member of the Public Sector as defined in the Public Sector Management Act 1994, whether by way of delegation under section 19 or otherwise, to provide court security or custodial services other than the management, control and security of a lock-up or court custody centre.

10 19. Delegation

(1) The CEO may, by instrument, delegate any of the CEO's functions under this Act other than a power specified in subsection (2) to any person except —

- 15 (a) a contractor or an employee or agent of a contractor; or
(b) a subcontractor or an employee or agent of a subcontractor.

(2) The following powers of the CEO cannot be delegated under subsection (1) —

- 20 (a) the power to delegate under subsection (1);
(b) the power to enter into a contract under section 17;
(c) a Schedule power that the CEO has under section 20;
(d) the power to give directions under section 21(3) in relation to whether or not a Schedule power can be exercised by a contract worker or a member of a class of 25 contract workers, or as to the manner in which, or conditions on which, a power is to be exercised;
(e) the power to authorize a person to exercise a Schedule power under section 24;

- 5 (f) the power to have access to a place, and to authorize a person to have access to a place under section 41(1);
- (g) the power to declare work to be high-level security work under section 48;
- 10 (h) the power to intervene in a contract under section 58 or to terminate or suspend a contract under section 59;
- (i) the power to appoint or engage an administrator under section 60 or 61;
- (j) the power to sign an evidentiary certificate under section 92.
- (3) A function performed by a delegate under this section is to be taken to be performed by the CEO.
- 15 (4) Where a delegate performs a function under a delegation under this section the delegate is to be taken to have performed the function in accordance with the delegation unless the contrary is shown.
- (5) Nothing in this section is to be read as limiting the ability of the CEO to act through his or her officers and agents in the normal course of business.

20 20. CEO has Schedule powers

The CEO has all the Schedule powers and any exercise by the CEO of a Schedule power in relation to a matter prevails over the exercise of that power by any other person in relation to that matter.

25 21. Powers of contract workers

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), a contract worker who holds a permit may exercise the powers set out in Schedules 1 and 3 for the purposes of providing court security services under a contract.

Part 2 Administration of court security and custodial services

Division 2 Framework for administering court security and custodial services

s. 22

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), a contract worker who holds a permit may exercise the powers set out in Schedules 2 and 3 for the purposes of providing custodial services under a contract.
- (3) The CEO may direct that a contract worker, or a member of a class of contract workers —
- 5 (a) cannot exercise a Schedule power that is specified in the direction; or
- (b) must exercise a Schedule power in a manner, or in accordance with a condition, specified in the direction.
- 10 (4) A direction has effect according to its tenor.

22. Powers of police officers

- (1) A police officer may exercise the powers set out in Schedules 1 and 3 for the purposes of providing court security services under an arrangement between the CEO and the Commissioner of Police.
- 15 (2) A police officer may exercise the powers set out in Schedules 2 and 3 for the purposes of providing custodial services under an arrangement between the CEO and the Commissioner of Police.
- (3) The powers that a police officer may exercise under this section are in addition to, and do not derogate from, the powers that the police officer has under any other law.
- 20

23. Powers of certain court officers

- (1) In this section —
- “court officer” means —
- 25 (a) the sheriff or a deputy of the sheriff;
- (b) the bailiff of the District Court; or
- (c) the Marshal of the Family Court.

- (2) A court officer may exercise the powers set out in Schedules 1 and 3 for the purposes of providing court security services under an arrangement with the CEO.
- (3) A court officer may exercise the powers set out in Schedules 2 and 3 for the purposes of providing custodial services under an arrangement with the CEO.
- (4) The powers that a court officer may exercise under this section are in addition to, and do not derogate from, the powers that the court officer has under any other law.

10 24. CEO may authorize certain other persons to exercise powers

 - (b) represent the chief judicial officer in discussions with the CEO or the CEO's representative on matters referred to in paragraph (a); and
 - 25 (c) represent the chief judicial officer for the purposes of section 35.
- (2) Nothing in this section affects the functions that the sheriff has under this Act or any other law.

Part 3 — Contracts for court security and custodial services

Division 1 — Matters relating to contracts generally

37. Minimum matters to be included in contracts

5 A contract must provide for —

- (a) compliance by the contractor with this Act, any other written law and the CEO's rules;
- (b) objectives and performance standards in relation to the provision of services under the contract;
- 10 (c) fees, costs and charges to be paid to and by the contractor;
- (d) compliance by the contractor with the minimum standards established under section 38 in relation to the provision of services under the contract;
- 15 (e) the submission of reports in relation to the contractor's obligations under the contract;
- (f) notification by the contractor of any change in the control, management or ownership of —
 - (i) the contractor; or
 - 20 (ii) a subcontractor, or a member of a class of subcontractors, specified for the purposes of this paragraph by the CEO in the contract;
- (g) the financial and other consequences of intervening in a contract under section 58, terminating or suspending a contract under section 59 and of requisitioning property under section 64;
- 25 (h) codes of ethics and conduct, as approved by the CEO, to apply to the contractor, any subcontractor and their employees and agents;

- 5
- (i) reporting procedures to notify the CEO of escapes, deaths of persons in custody or intoxicated detainees and other emergencies or serious irregularities;
- (j) investigation procedures and dispute resolution mechanisms for complaints about the provision of services under the contract;
- (k) an indemnity by the contractor in favour of the State of Western Australia;
- 10 (l) the office the holder of which is to be the principal officer of the contractor and the subcontractors under the relevant contract for the purposes of the Anti-Corruption Commission Act 1988, the Freedom of Information Act 1992 and the Parliamentary Commissioner Act 1971, respectively; and
- 15 (m) any other matter prescribed by regulation.

38. Minimum standards

- (1) The CEO must establish minimum standards applicable to the provision of services under a contract and the CEO may, from time to time, amend the minimum standards.
- 20 (2) The Minister is to ensure that the minimum standards, as amended from time to time, are laid before each House of Parliament within 10 sitting days of such House next following the establishment or amendment of the minimum standards.

39. Contract workers in court premises are subject to judicial direction

- 25 (1) A contract worker who provides court security or court custodial services is taken to be an officer of the court.

Court Security and Custodial Services Bill 1998

Part 3 Contracts for court security and custodial services

Division 1 Matters relating to contracts generally

s. 40

- (2) A contract worker who provides court security or court custodial services must obey the directions of —
- (a) the person presiding in a courtroom; and
 - (b) the chief judicial officer of the court concerned.

5 40. Public Sector Management Act 1994 not applicable

- (1) The Public Sector Management Act 1994 does not apply to —
- (a) a contractor or an employee or agent of a contractor; or
 - (b) a subcontractor or an employee or agent of a subcontractor.

- 10 (2) A reference in subsection (1) to an agent of a contractor or subcontractor does not include a reference to a public service officer who is seconded under section 66 of the Public Sector Management Act 1994 to perform functions or services for, or duties in the service of, the contractor or subcontractor during
- 15 the secondment period.

41. Minister, CEO etc. may have access to certain places, persons, vehicles and documents

- 20 (1) The Minister, the CEO and any person authorized by the CEO may, at any time (with any assistants and equipment that the Minister, the CEO or authorized person thinks are necessary), have free and unfettered access to a place, person, vehicle or document referred to in subsection (2) for the purpose of —
- (a) ensuring compliance with this Act, the CEO's rules or a contract; or
 - 25 (b) ensuring that a service that is a subject of a contract is being properly provided.

- (2) A person referred to in subsection (1) may have access to —
- (a) a custodial place at which, or in respect of which, services are provided under a contract;
 - 5 (b) a person in custody or intoxicated detainee in such a place;
 - (c) a contract worker who works in such a place;
 - (d) a vehicle used by a contractor to provide services under a contract;
 - 10 (e) a person in custody or intoxicated detainee in such a vehicle;
 - (f) a contract worker whose work is concerned with such a vehicle;
 - 15 (g) all documents in the possession of the contractor or a subcontractor in relation to any service that is a subject of a contract.
- (3) The CEO may authorize a person for the purposes of subsection (1).
- (4) An authorization must be in writing and may be made subject to such conditions and limitations specified in the authorization as 20 the CEO thinks fit.
- (5) A person must not hinder or resist a person referred to in subsection (1) when the person is exercising or attempting to exercise a power under that subsection.
Penalty: $20 000.
- 25 (6) Nothing in this section limits any entitlement that a person, under a law, has to have access to a place, person, vehicle or document referred to in subsection (2).

42. Administrators and investigators may have access to certain places, persons, vehicles and documents

- 5 (1) An administrator and an investigator appointed under section 43 may, at any time (with any assistants and equipment that the administrator or investigator thinks are necessary), have free and unfettered access to a place, person, vehicle, or document referred to in section 41(2) for the purpose of enabling the administrator or investigator to perform his or her functions.
- 10 (2) A person must not hinder or resist an administrator or investigator when the administrator or investigator is exercising or attempting to exercise a power under subsection (1).
Penalty: $20 000.
- 15 (3) Nothing in this section limits any entitlement that a person, under a law, has to have access to a place, person, vehicle or document referred to in section 41(2).

43. CEO may set up inquiry

- 20 (1) The CEO may, and upon the request of the Minister must, appoint a suitably qualified person (an “investigator”) to inquire into and report upon any matter, incident or occurrence concerning any service that is a subject of a contract.
- (2) For the purposes of carrying out an inquiry, an investigator may require —
- 25 (a) the contractor or an employee or agent of that contractor; or
- (b) a subcontractor or an employee or agent of that subcontractor,
- to give the investigator such information as the investigator requires or to answer any question put to the person in relation to any matter, incident or occurrence that is the subject of the inquiry.

(3) An investigator may specify the form or manner in which the information or answer is to be given.

5 (4) A person is not excused from giving any information or answering any question, when required to do so by an investigator, on the ground that the information or answer might incriminate the person or render the person liable to a penalty, but that information or answer is not admissible in evidence
10 against the person who gives it in any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in any court except in proceedings for an offence under subsection (5).

(5) A person must not, in response to a requirement under subsection (2) —

15 (a) fail or refuse to supply the required information or answer the question; or

(b) give information or an answer that is false or misleading in a material particular.

Penalty: $1 000.

20 44. Annual reports

(1) The CEO is to prepare and deliver to the Minister by 30 September each year a report on each contractor who provided services under a contract in the preceding 12 months.

25 (2) The report is to contain such information as is required to be included in the report by the Minister to enable an informed assessment to be made of —

(a) the operations of each contractor; and

(b) the extent to which there has been compliance with the relevant contract.

Court Security and Custodial Services Bill 1998

Part 3 Contracts for court security and custodial services

Division 2 Vetting and control of contract workers in relation to high-level security work

s. 45

- (3) The Minister is to ensure that the report is laid before each House of Parliament within 10 sitting days of such House next following the Minister's receipt of the report.

45. No contracting out

5 The provisions of this Part apply despite anything to the contrary in a contract.

Division 2 — Vetting and control of contract workers in relation to high-level security work

10 46. Interpretation in this Division of “offence for which the contract worker is convicted”

In this Division a reference to an offence for which the contract worker is convicted includes —

- 15 (a) an offence for which the contract worker is convicted in any part of the world; and
- (b) the payment of the whole or a part of a penalty under a traffic infringement notice that is served on the contract worker under section 102(1) of the Road Traffic Act 1974 or a corresponding law in any other part of the world.

20 47. High-level security work

- (1) A court security service provided by a contract worker is high-level security work.
- (2) A custodial service is high-level security work if —
- 25 (a) it is of a kind that requires the person providing it to exercise a power set out in Schedule 2 or 3; and
- (b) it is provided by a contract worker.

48. CEO may declare other kinds of work to be high-level security work

(1) The CEO may, in writing, declare as high-level security work —

- 5 (a) a custodial service that requires a contract worker to deal directly with persons in custody or intoxicated detainees except a custodial service referred to in section 47(2);
- 10 (b) work that requires a contract worker to have access to information about persons in custody or intoxicated detainees; or
- (c) any other work to be done by a contract worker that in the opinion of the CEO should be declared to be high-level security work.

(2) The CEO may amend a declaration.

15 (3) The CEO is to ensure that notice of a declaration or an amendment of a declaration is published in the Gazette within 14 days after the day the declaration or amendment occurs.

(4) The validity of a declaration or an amendment of a declaration is not affected by failure to publish the notice.

20 49. Contract workers require permits to do high-level security work

A contract worker must not do, or purport to do, any high-level security work unless he or she has a current permit to do the work and does the work in accordance with the permit.

25 Penalty: Imprisonment for 3 years.

Part 3 Contracts for court security and custodial services

Division 2 Vetting and control of contract workers in relation to high-level security work

s. 50

50. Issue of permits to do high-level security work

- (1) On application by a contract worker in a manner approved by the CEO, the CEO may issue the contract worker with a permit to do high-level security work.
- 5 (2) To determine the suitability of a contract worker to do high-level security work the CEO may —
- (a) have regard to the information referred to in section 51(1) and (3) about the contract worker;
- (b) make appropriate enquiries about the contract worker; and
- 10 (c) enquire into the honesty and integrity of the contract worker's known associates.
- (3) A permit may be issued subject to such conditions and limitations specified in the permit as the CEO thinks fit.
- 15 (4) A permit is not transferable.

51. Information about applicants for permits

- (1) The CEO may in writing require a contract worker who applies for a permit or the relevant contractor to provide —
- 20 (a) information about any offence for which the contract worker is convicted;
- (b) information about any disciplinary proceedings conducted against the contract worker in the course of his or her employment;
- (c) information about any other matter that is relevant to the suitability of the contract worker to do high-level security work; and
- 25 (d) a photograph of the contract worker.

- (2) A person must not give information or a photograph that is false or misleading in a material particular in response to a requirement under subsection (1).

Penalty: Imprisonment for 3 years.

- 5 (3) If a contract worker applies for a permit the contract worker is to authorize the Commissioner of Police to provide to the CEO and the relevant contractor —

(a) information about any offence for which the contract worker is convicted; and

- 10 (b) such other information as is required by the CEO to determine the suitability of the contract worker to do high-level security work.

- (4) A person must not give information that is false or misleading in a material particular in an authority under subsection (3).

15 Penalty: Imprisonment for 3 years.

52. Taking of fingerprints and palmprints

- (1) The CEO may in writing require a contract worker who applies for, or holds, a permit to attend at a place and there have his or her fingerprints or palmprints taken by a member of the Police Force or an employee of the Police Service.

- (2) The Commissioner of Police is to cause fingerprints and palmprints taken under this section and any copy of them to be destroyed —

(a) if the permit is not granted; or

- 25 (b) when the permit no longer has effect.

Part 3 Contracts for court security and custodial services

Division 2 Vetting and control of contract workers in relation to high-level security work

s. 53

53. Refusal to issue permits

- (1) The CEO may refuse to issue a contract worker with a permit to do high-level security work if, in the opinion of the CEO —
- 5 (a) the contract worker has not complied with a requirement under section 51(1);
 - (b) the contract worker has not given an authority under section 51(3);
 - (c) the contract worker has not complied with a requirement under section 52(1);
 - 10 (d) the contract worker has not completed training approved by the CEO;
 - (e) the contract worker has failed to satisfy the CEO that the contract worker is a fit and proper person to do high-level security work;
 - 15 (f) the contract worker should not do high-level security work because of his or her criminal record or character or because of any other relevant reason;
 - (g) the contract worker does not meet all the conditions specified in the relevant contract in relation to persons who are to do high-level security work; or
 - 20 (h) it is not in the public interest to do so.
- (2) The rules known as the rules of natural justice (including any duty of procedural fairness) do not apply to or in relation to the issue of, or refusal to issue, a permit.

54. Determining suitability of contract workers to keep holding permits

- (1) To determine the suitability of a contract worker to continue to do high-level security work the CEO may —
- 5 (a) have regard to the information referred to in subsection (2) and (4) about the contract worker;
- (b) make appropriate enquiries about the contract worker; and
- 10 (c) enquire into the honesty and integrity of the contract worker's known associates.
- (2) If a contract worker holds a permit the CEO may, at any time, in writing require the contract worker or the relevant contractor to provide information about —
- 15 (a) any offence for which the contract worker is convicted;
- (b) any disciplinary proceedings conducted against the contract worker in the course of his or her employment; and
- 20 (c) any other matter that is relevant to the suitability of the contract worker to continue to do high-level security work.
- (3) A person must not give information that is false or misleading in a material particular in response to a requirement under subsection (2).
Penalty: Imprisonment for 3 years.
- 25 (4) If a contract worker holds a permit the CEO may, at any time, in writing require the contract worker to authorize the Commissioner of Police to provide to the CEO and the relevant contractor —
- 30 (a) information about any offence for which the contract worker is convicted; and

Part 3 Contracts for court security and custodial services

Division 2 Vetting and control of contract workers in relation to high-level security work

s. 55

(b) such other information as is required by the CEO to determine the suitability of the contract worker to continue to do high-level security work.

5 (5) A person must not give information that is false or misleading in a material particular in an authority under subsection (4).

Penalty: Imprisonment for 3 years.

55. Suspension or revocation of permits

(1) The CEO may, at any time, suspend or revoke a permit held by a contract worker if, in the opinion of the CEO —

10 (a) the permit ought not to have been issued to the contract worker, or ought not to continue in force in respect of the contract worker, having regard to the grounds referred to in section 53(1)(d) to (h); or

(b) the contract worker has failed to comply with —

15 (i) this Act or the CEO's rules;

(ii) a direction given to the contract worker under this Act or the relevant contract or by a court;

20 (iii) an order, direction, warrant or other instrument under any law concerning the charge of a person in custody or intoxicated detainee at a custodial place or the movement of a person in custody or intoxicated detainee between custodial places;

(iv) a code of ethics or conduct provided for under the relevant contract; or 25 (v) a requirement under section 54(2) or (4).

- (2) The CEO may suspend or revoke any permit held by a contract worker if —
- 5 (a) the CEO intervenes in the relevant contract under section 58 or terminates or suspends the relevant contract under section 59; or
- (b) the relevant contract is terminated or suspended under the terms of the contract.
- (3) The rules known as the rules of natural justice (including any duty of procedural fairness) do not apply to or in relation to the
- 10 suspension or revocation of a permit under subsection (2).

56. Gazettal of permit details

- (1) The CEO is to ensure that notice of the issue, suspension, reinstatement or revocation of a permit is published in the Gazette within 14 days after the day the event occurs.
- 15 (2) The validity of the issue, suspension, reinstatement or revocation of a permit is not affected by failure to publish the notice.

57. Directions to contract workers about high-level security work

- 20 (1) The CEO may give directions to a contract worker who holds a permit to do high-level security work.
- (2) A direction may be given with respect to any matter relating to high-level security work, either generally or in a particular case.
- (3) A direction must not be inconsistent with the regulations or the
- 25 relevant contract.

Division 3 — Intervention in, and termination of, contracts

58. Intervention in contracts

- (1) The CEO may intervene in a contract if, in the opinion of the CEO —
- 5 (a) there are grounds for doing so under subsection (2); and
- (b) the intervention is in the public interest or is necessary to ensure the proper provision of a service that is the subject of a contract.
- (2) The grounds for intervening in a contract are that —
- 10 (a) there is an emergency in a service that is a subject of the contract; or
- (b) the contractor has failed to effectively provide a service that is a subject of the contract.

59. Termination or suspension of contracts

- 15 (1) The CEO, with the Minister's approval, may on behalf of the State terminate or suspend a contract (wholly or partially) if, in the opinion of the CEO —
- (a) there are grounds for doing so under subsection (2); and
- 20 (b) the termination or suspension of the contract is in the public interest.
- (2) The grounds for terminating or suspending a contract are that —
- (a) the contractor becomes insolvent within the meaning of the contract;
- 25 (b) the identity of the persons who control, manage or own the contractor or a subcontractor changes during the term of the contract without the consent of the CEO;
- (c) the contractor has committed a material breach of the contract that is not capable of being remedied;

(d) the contractor has failed to rectify a breach of the contract within the time specified in the contract after the issue of a default notice; or

(e) the CEO gives the contractor written notice to the effect that the contract will be terminated or suspended 3 days after the day on which the contractor receives the notice or at such later time as is specified in the notice.

60. Administrator where intervention in contract

(1) If the CEO intervenes in a contract under section 58 the CEO may appoint or engage an administrator —

(a) to give directions as to the manner in which a service that is a subject of the contract is to be provided; or

(b) to provide a service that is a subject of the contract.

15

(2) The directions given by an administrator and the provision by an administrator of a service that is a subject of a contract must be in accordance with the terms of the administrator's appointment or engagement.

20

(3) An administrator cannot be appointed or engaged for a period exceeding one year but can be re-appointed or re-engaged if, after review of the reason for intervention in a contract, the CEO determines that the reason for the intervention still exists.

61. Administrator where termination or suspension of contract

(1) If the CEO terminates or suspends a contract under section 59 the CEO may appoint or engage an administrator —

(a) to provide any service that was a subject of the terminated contract; or

(b) to provide any service that is a subject of the suspended contract.

Court Security and Custodial Services Bill 1998

Part 3 Contracts for court security and custodial services

Division 3 Intervention in, and termination of, contracts

s. 62

(2) The provision by an administrator of a service that was or is a subject of a contract must be in accordance with the terms of the administrator's appointment or engagement.

5 (3) An administrator cannot be appointed or engaged for a period exceeding one year but can be re-appointed or re-engaged if the CEO determines —

(a) in the case of the termination of a contract, that matters arising from the terminated contract have not been properly resolved; or

Penalty: $6 000 or imprisonment for 18 months.

Part 6 — Miscellaneous

86. Courts may order or direct authorized persons to take charge of, and move, persons in custody

5 Where, under any law, a court may order or direct a particular person to take charge of a person in custody at a custodial place or to move a person in custody between custodial places, the court may order or direct a person who is authorized to exercise a power set out in such of clauses 2, 3, 4 or 5 of Schedule 2 as is relevant to the case, as if the authorized person were the 10 particular person.

87. Protection from liability

- 15 (1) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), an action in tort does not lie against a person (except a contractor or subcontractor) for anything that the person has done, in good faith —
- (a) in the performance or purported performance of a function under this Act;
- (b) in the exercise or purported exercise of a Schedule power that the person is authorized to exercise; or
- 20 (c) in doing, or purporting to do, any high-level security work for which the person has a permit.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not relieve a contractor or subcontractor of any liability that it might otherwise have for anything done as described in that subsection by another person.
- 25 (3) Subsection (1) does not relieve the Crown of any liability that it might otherwise have for anything done as described in that subsection by another person.

s. 88

- 5 (4) An action for false imprisonment of a person in custody or an intoxicated detainee does not lie against a contract worker if, in good faith, the contract worker took charge of the person in custody or intoxicated detainee in response to a request under section 70, 71, 75, 79 or 80, as is relevant to the case.
- (5) A contractor and subcontractor are also relieved of any liability that either of them might otherwise have had for a contract worker having done anything as described in subsection (4).
- 10 (6) The protection given by this section applies even though the thing done may have been capable of being done whether or not this Act had been enacted.
- (7) In this section, a reference to doing anything includes a reference to an omission to do anything.

15 88. Possession of firearms, prohibited drugs etc. by authorized persons

A person who comes into possession of property as a result of exercising a power set out in clause 5 or 7 of Schedule 1 or clause 9 or 21 of Schedule 2 does not commit —

- 20 (a) an offence under the Firearms Act 1973 in relation to possession of a firearm, ammunition or a silencer or contrivance of a similar nature; or
- (b) an offence under the Misuse of Drugs Act 1981 in relation to the possession of a prohibited drug, prohibited plant or utensil,

25 if the authorized person possesses the property only so as to deliver it into the custody of a member of the Police Force or an employee of the Police Service.

89. Exchange of information

- 5 (1) The CEO may, in writing, request a government department or an instrumentality or agency of the Crown that holds information about a person for whom the CEO is, or may become, responsible under section 9, 12, 14 or 15 to produce such information as is relevant to the person's security, control, safety, care and welfare.
- 10 (2) The CEO and the Commissioner of Police may, in writing, request one another to produce such information held by the other about a person for whom the CEO is, or may become, responsible under section 9, 12, 14 or 15 to produce such information as is relevant to the person's security, control, safety, care and welfare.
- 15 (3) The production of any information to the CEO or the Commissioner of Police in compliance with a request under subsection (1) or (2) is not to be regarded as a breach of any duty of confidentiality or secrecy imposed by any law.

90. Confidentiality

- 20 (1) Except as provided in this section, a person must not, directly or indirectly, record, disclose or make use of any information obtained by reason of any function that person has, or at any time had, in the administration of this Act or in the course of duty in the provision of court security or custodial services.
Penalty: $6 000 and imprisonment for 2 years.
- 25 (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the recording, disclosure or use of information —
- (a) for the purpose of performing a function under this Act;
 - (b) for the purpose of exercising a Schedule power that the person is authorized to exercise;

s. 91

- (c) for the purpose of doing any high-level security work for which the person has a permit;
- (d) for the purpose of providing court security or custodial services;
- 5 (e) as required or allowed by this Act or under another law; or
- (f) in prescribed circumstances.

91. Assistance by police officers

- 10 (1) Subject to the directions of the Commissioner of Police, a police officer —
 - (a) may upon the request of the CEO, assist another person in the exercise of a Schedule power; or
 - (b) may upon the request of a person authorized to exercise a Schedule power, assist the person in the exercise of the 15 power.
- (2) A police officer acting under subsection (1), in addition to the powers and duties conferred and imposed on the police officer by or under any other law, has the powers and is subject to the responsibilities and has the protection from liability which 20 would be conferred or imposed on the authorized person in similar circumstances.
- (3) Nothing in this Act limits any entitlement —
 - (a) that a court, under a law, has to obtain police assistance; or
 - 25 (b) that a police officer, under a law, has to act on his or her own volition.

(4) A police officer —

(a) may search a person, or any thing in the possession of a person, who is charged, or about to be charged, with having committed an offence under clause 4(7) of Schedule 1; and

(b) may seize any property found in the course of the search that the police officer believes on reasonable grounds was likely to have adversely affected the security, good order or management of the court premises, had the person entered or remained in the court premises, and may use such force as is reasonable to do so.

10

92. Evidentiary provision

In any proceedings a certificate purporting to be signed by the CEO certifying as to a matter relating to —

15

(a) a person's authority to exercise a Schedule power;

(b) any high-level security work or a permit;

(c) a direction of the CEO;

(d) an authorization for the purposes of section 41(1);

(e) a direction of an administrator;

20

(f) a request under section 70, 71, 75, 79 or 80; or

(g) the custodial status of a person, constitutes proof, in the absence of proof to the contrary, of the matter so certified.

93. Regulations

25

(1) The Governor may make regulations prescribing all matters that are required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed or are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for giving effect to this Act.

s. 93

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), regulations may make provision for —
- (a) searches under clause 4(1) of Schedule 1 or clause 8 or 20 of Schedule 2;
 - 5 (b) the management, safekeeping and disposal of property —
 - (i) of persons for whom the CEO is responsible under section 9, 12, 14 or 15; or
 - (ii) held on behalf of visitors to lock-ups, court custody centres or any other part of court premises;
 - 10 (c) the health services to be provided to persons in custody for whom the CEO is responsible under section 9, 12, 14 or 15;
 - (d) the procedure to be followed in the event of the death of a person for whom the CEO is responsible under section 9, 12, 14 or 15;
 - 15 (e) visits to, and communications with, persons in custody for whom the CEO is responsible under section 9, 12, 14 or 15;
 - (f) matters relating to persons appointed to visit, inspect and report on —
 - 20 (i) lock-ups and court custody centres; and
 - (ii) vehicles and other facilities used by a contractor to provide services under a contract;
 - (g) investigation procedures and dispute resolution mechanisms for complaints about the provision of services under a contract or an arrangement under section 18.
 - 25
- (3) Regulations made under this Act may provide that contravention of a regulation or a provision of a regulation constitutes an offence and provide for penalties not exceeding $5 000.
- 30

(2) Section 50AA (2) of the Police Act 1892 applies to photographs, fingerprints, palmprints or other identification particulars of a person in custody that are taken under subclause (1).

8. Power to search persons in custody and their possessions

The power to search a person in custody who is at a custodial place or being moved between custodial places and any thing in the person's possession for any property that the authorized person believes on reasonable grounds is likely to adversely affect the security, good order or management of —

- (a) a custodial place; or
- (b) a vehicle used for moving persons between custodial places.

9. Power to seize property from persons in custody

(1) The power to seize, without warrant, from a person in custody who is at a custodial place or being moved between custodial places any property that the authorized person believes on reasonable grounds is likely to adversely affect the security, good order or management of —

- (a) a custodial place; or
- (b) a vehicle used for moving persons between custodial places.

(2) Property may be seized under subclause (1) from a prisoner or detainee even though it was issued to, or is retained by, the prisoner or detainee with the approval of the superintendent of the relevant prison or detention centre.

15

(3) The power to seize, without warrant, from a prisoner or detainee who is at a custodial place or being moved between custodial places any property —

20

- (a) which apparently was not issued to the prisoner or detainee with the approval of the superintendent of the relevant prison or detention centre; or
- (b) which is retained by the prisoner or detainee without the approval of that superintendent.

(4) An authorized person who seizes property under subclause (1) or (3) has lawful possession of the property subject to section 88 of this Act and to section 6(2) of the Weapons Act 1998.

(5) Property seized under subclause (1) or (3) is to be dealt with in accordance with the CEO's rules.

30

10. Power to take persons in custody from certain custodial places for medical treatment

(1) In this clause —

5 “custodial place” means a custodial place other than a prison or a detention centre;

“medical treatment” means medical treatment that cannot, by reason of impracticality or urgency, be administered within a custodial place.

(2) The power —

10 (a) to take a person in custody from a custodial place to a place for medical treatment and, after the treatment, to return the person in custody to the custodial place; and

(b) to take charge of a person in custody while the person in custody is admitted to a place for medical treatment.

15 (3) The custodial status of a person is not affected by the person being taken, under subclause (2), to a place for medical treatment.

11. Power to issue orders to persons in custody

(1) The power to issue to a person in custody, other than a prisoner or a detainee, who is at a custodial place or being moved between 20 custodial places such orders as are necessary for the security, good order or management of —

(a) a custodial place; or

(b) a vehicle used for moving persons in custody between custodial places.

25 (2) A person in custody referred to in subclause (1) must comply with an order under that subclause.

Penalty: $300.

(3) The power to issue orders to a prisoner in accordance with section 14(2) of Prisons Act 1981.

- (4) The power to issue orders to a detainee as if the authorized person were a person having authority to give orders to a detainee for the purposes of the Young Offenders Act 1994.

12. Power to restrain persons in custody

- 5 (1) The power to restrain a person in custody who is at a custodial place or being moved between custodial places.
- (2) The power to restrain a person in custody is limited to circumstances in which, in the opinion of the authorized person, the restraint is necessary —
- 10 (a) to prevent a person in custody injuring himself or herself or any other person;
- (b) to prevent a person in custody from causing damage to property;
- 15 (c) on medical grounds but only if a doctor or nurse considers the restraint necessary; or
- (d) to prevent the escape of a person in custody —
- (i) where no physical barriers exist to prevent escape; or
- (ii) during the person's movement within a custodial place or between custodial places.
- 20 (3) Despite subclause (2), the power to restrain a person in custody in a courtroom —
- (a) is not to be exercised unless the person presiding in the courtroom has directed that the person in custody be restrained in the courtroom; and
- 25 (b) is to be exercised in accordance with any direction of the person presiding in the courtroom.
- (4) An authorized person must not restrain a person in custody by the use of medication unless the restraint is on medical grounds and has the approval of a doctor.

(5) If a person in custody is restrained by an authorized person under subclause (2)(a), (b) or (c), the use and circumstances of the restraint must be recorded in accordance with the CEO's rules.

(6) If —

- 5
- (a) an adult person in custody is restrained by an authorized person for a continuing period of more than 24 hours; or
 - (b) a young person in custody is restrained by an authorized person for a continuing period of more than 8 hours,

10 the use and the circumstances of the restraint must be reported forthwith to the CEO by the authorized person.

(7) Regulations are to provide for —

- 15
- (a) the kinds of devices or substances other than medication that can or cannot be used to restrain persons in custody;
 - (b) the manner in which a device or substance must, or must not, be used to restrain persons in custody; and
 - (c) the procedures to be followed in respect of the use of restraints on persons in custody.

13. Power to prevent communication etc. with persons in custody

20 The power to prevent another person from communicating or interfering with, or giving or passing anything to, a person in custody if, in the opinion of the authorized person, that action is likely to adversely affect the security, good order or management of —

- (a) a custodial place; or
- (b) a vehicle used for moving persons between custodial places.

14. Power to make charges of prison offences

The power to make a charge of a prison offence as defined in the Prisons Act 1981 that is alleged to have been committed by a prisoner —

- 5 (a) at a custodial place or when being moved between custodial places; and
- (b) when the prisoner was in the charge of the authorized person.

15. Power to make charges of detention offences

10 The power to make a charge of a detention offence referred to in section 170 of the Young Offenders Act 1994 that is alleged to have been committed by a detainee —

- (a) at a custodial place or when being moved between custodial places; and
- (b) when the detainee was in the charge of the authorized person.

15 Division 3 — Powers in relation to intoxicated detainees

16. Powers as to intoxicated detainees

The power to take charge of, and move, an intoxicated detainee in accordance with a request under section 79 or 80.

20 Division 4 — Powers in relation to visitors to lock-ups and court custody centres

17. Interpretation

- (1) A reference in this Division to a lock-up or court custody centre is, if the authorized person is a contract worker, a reference to a lock-up or court custody centre that is managed under the relevant contract.
- 25 (2) A reference in this Division to a person does not include a reference to a person in custody.

18. Power to identify visitors to lock-ups and court custody centres

- (1) The power to ask a person who is about to enter, or who is already within, a lock-up or a court custody centre—
- (a) for the person's name, address and date of birth;
 - 5 (b) for the person's reason for wishing to enter, or being within, the lock-up or court custody centre; and
 - (c) to produce evidence of the person's identity.
- (2) A person must not, in response to a request under subclause (1) —
- (a) fail or refuse to provide the requested information;
 - 10 (b) give information that is false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (c) provide any false evidence of identity.

Penalty: $1 000.

19. Power to deal with disorderly or suspicious visitors to lock-ups and court custody centres

15

- (1) The power to prevent a person from entering a lock-up or a court custody centre if the person —
- (a) is behaving in a disorderly manner at or in the immediate vicinity of the lock-up or court custody centre; or
 - 20 (b) does not satisfy the authorized person that he or she has a proper reason for wishing to enter the lock-up or court custody centre.
- (2) The power to ask a person to leave a lock-up or court custody centre and, if the person refuses to leave that place, to remove the person from that place, if the person —
- 25 (a) is behaving in a disorderly manner at the lock-up or court custody centre; or
 - (b) does not satisfy the authorized person that he or she has a proper reason for being in the lock-up or court custody centre.

20. Power to search visitors and their possessions at lock-ups and court custody centres

The power to ask a person who is about to enter, or who is already within, a lock-up or court custody centre —

- 5 (a) to allow a search to be made of his or her person; and
 (b) to allow a search to be made of any thing in the person's possession,

10 for any property that the authorized person believes on reasonable grounds is likely to adversely affect the security, good order or management of the lock-up or court custody centre.

21. Power to require visitors to lock-ups and court custody centres to deposit property

15 The power to ask a person who is about to enter, or who is already within, a lock-up or court custody centre to deposit with an authorized person for the duration of the person's presence within that place —

- (a) any property that the authorized person believes on reasonable grounds is likely to adversely affect the security, good order or management of that place; or 20 (b) any thing in the person's possession that is reasonably capable of concealing such property.

22. Further powers to refuse entry to, or remove visitors from, lock-ups and court custody centres

The power —

- 25 (a) to prevent a person from entering a lock-up or court custody centre; and
 (b) to ask a person to leave a lock-up or court custody centre and, if the person refuses to leave that place, to remove the person from that place,

if —

- (c) the authorized person is not satisfied on reasonable grounds as to the person's identity;
- 5 (d) the person does not comply with a request under clause 20 to allow a search of his or her person or a thing in the person's possession; or
- (e) the person does not comply with a request under clause 21 to deposit property.

Schedule 3 — Powers in relation to apprehension

[ss. 3, 21, 22, 23, 24 and 47]

1. Power to apprehend and detain certain persons

- 5 (1) The power to apprehend, without warrant, a person who the authorized person believes on reasonable grounds—
- (a) has committed an offence under this Act;
 - (b) has escaped from legal custody from a custodial place or when being moved between custodial places;
 - 10 (c) in the case of a person apprehended under the Mental Health Act and placed in a lock-up, has become absent without leave from the lock-up or when being taken for medical treatment under clause 10 of Schedule 2; or
 - 15 (d) in the case of an intoxicated detainee, has become absent without having being released in accordance with Part VA of the Police Act 1892.
- (2) The power to apprehend a person under subclause (1)(a) is limited to apprehending the person —
- 20 (a) immediately after the commission of the offence or the time when the commission of the offence is discovered by the authorized person; and
 - (b) at the custodial place where the offence was committed.
- (3) The power to apprehend a person under subclause (1)(b), (c) or (d) is limited to apprehending the person immediately after, and in direct response to, the escape or absence.
- 25 (4) Subject to subclause (5), an authorized person who apprehends a person under subclause (1) —
- (a) must immediately inform a member of the Police Force of the commission of the offence or the escape or absence from legal custody and the apprehension; and

Schedule 3 Powers in relation to apprehension

- (b) may, in the case of an apprehended person who is not already in custody, detain that person until a member of the Police Force attends.
- 5 (5) An authorized person who apprehends a prisoner or detainee under subclause (1)(b) must immediately inform the superintendent of the relevant prison or detention centre of the escape from legal custody and the apprehension.
