

LEGAL PROFESSION UNIFORM LAW APPLICATION BILL 2020 EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

Overview

The Legal Profession Uniform Law scheme is a scheme for the regulation of the legal profession in Australia and is the subject of an Intergovernmental Agreement between Victoria, New South Wales and Western Australia. Other Australian jurisdictions may join the scheme.

The purpose of the Bill is fourfold. First, to apply the Legal Profession Uniform Law as a law of Western Australia and to provide for the tabling and disallowance of amendments made to that Law. Second, to enact provisions to regulate legal practice which have local application in Western Australia. Third, to repeal the Legal Profession Act 2008 and the Law Society Public Purposes Trust Act 1984. Fourth, to make savings, transitional and consequential amendments.

Part 1-Preliminary

Clause 1. Short title

This clause provides that the short title of the Bill is the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2020.

Clause 2. Commencement

This clause provides for the commencement of the Act. Part 1 commences on the day on which the Act receives the Royal Assent. The rest of the Act, subject to some minor variations depending on whether the Strata Titles Amendment Act 2018 comes into operation before this Act, commences on a day fixed by proclamation.

Clause 3. Terms used

This clause contains the definitions of terms used in the Act and provides that terms used in the Act and also in the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA) have the same meanings in the Act as they have in the Law.

Clause 4. Act binds Crown

This clause provides for the Act to bind the Crown.

Clause 5. Application of Interpretation Act 1984 to Act and Uniform Law

This clause provides that the Interpretation Act 1984 applies to the Act but not to the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA). The Interpretation of Legislation Act 1984 (Vic) applies to the interpretation of the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA).

Part 2 - Legal Profession Uniform Law

Division 1 - Application of Legal Profession Uniform Law in the State

Clause 6. Application of Uniform Law as law of the State

This clause applies the Legal Profession Uniform Law set out in Schedule 1 of the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014 (Vic) as in force on 17 March 2020 (but as modified by Part 7 Division 3 Subdivision 1 and the local regulations made under section 126(1)(b)) and as amended by Part 2 of the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Amendment Act 2019 (Vic) and all amending Acts that have effect under section 9 and that have come into operation as a law of the State under section 10. That Law is referred to as the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA) and so applies as if it were an Act of the State.

The Explanatory Memorandum for the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014 (Vic) explains each provision of Schedule 1.

The Bill applies Schedule 1 of the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014 (Vic) as in force on a specified date rather than as amended from time to time. However, a mechanism has been inserted into the Bill which will allow amendments to Schedule 1 of the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014 (Vic) made after the specified date to be applied in Western Australia.

Clause 7. Commencement of Uniform Law as law of the State

This clause provides that, for the purposes of section 2 of the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA), the Law as in force on 17 March 2020 comes into operation on the day on which section 7 comes into operation.

Further, this clause provides when, for the purposes of paragraph (a)(i) of the definition of "Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA)", a provision of Part 2 of the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Amendment Act 2019 (Vic) comes into operation in the State. If the provision has come into operation in Victoria before commencement day, a provision of Part 2 comes into operation on commencement day. Otherwise, Part 2 comes into operation on the day on which the provision comes into operation in Victoria under section 2(2) of that Act.

Clause 8. Tabling amending Acts

This clause provides for an amending Act (that is, a Victorian Act, other than the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Amendment Act 2019 (Vic), that amends Schedule 1 of the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014 (Vic) or the Uniform Regulations) to be laid before each House of Parliament within 18 sitting days of the House after the day on which the amending Act receives the Royal Assent.

Clause 9. Disallowance of amending Acts

This clause sets out the process by which an amending Act has effect. An amending Act has effect if it is laid before each House of Parliament and either of two things occurs. First, no notice of a disallowance resolution is given in either House within the notice period. Second, if at least 1 notice of a disallowance resolution is given within the notice period and, for each such notice one of the following applies: the notice is withdrawn or discharged within the disallowance period; the disallowance resolution is lost in the House or not agreed to within the disallowance period; or the disallowance resolution is a partial disallowance resolution and is agreed to within the disallowance period.

If a partial disallowance resolution is agreed to within the disallowance period, then the part of the amending Act to which the resolution relates does not have effect.

Clause 10. Commencement of amending Acts

This clause provides that if, under section 9(2), an amending Act has effect, the Governor must declare that fact by proclamation. However, if part of an amending Act does not have effect under section 9(3), then the Governor must declare in the proclamation the extent to which the amending Act does not have effect.

If the amending provision is in operation in Victoria prior to the proclamation, then the amending provision comes into operation on a day fixed by proclamation. Otherwise, the amending provision comes into operation when the amending provision comes into operation in Victoria in accordance with the amending Act. In each case, the coming into operation of the provision is subject to section 9(3).

Clause 11. Tabling of amending Act taken to be publication for Standing Orders

This clause provides that if a Standing Order of a House of Parliament provides that on the publication of an instrument under a written law the instrument is referred to a parliamentary committee for consideration, then the laying of an amending Act under section 8 is taken to be the publication for the purposes of the Standing Order. However, this clause does not apply if the Standing Order of the House provides specifically for how an amending Act may be considered by such a committee.

Clause 12. Interaction between Uniform Law and this Act

This clause provides that, in the event of an inconsistency between the Act and the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA), the former prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

Clause 13. No double jeopardy

This clause provides that a person is not liable to be punished for an offence against the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA) if the person has been punished for an act or omission that constitutes the offence under the law of another participating jurisdiction.

Division 2 - Application of Uniform Regulations and Uniform Rules

Parts 9.1 and 9.2 of the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA) contain provisions relating to Uniform Regulations and Uniform Rules.

Clause 14. Application of Uniform Regulations and Uniform Rules as laws of the State for Uniform Law and Act

This clause applies the Uniform Regulations and the Uniform Rules as in force from time to time as subsidiary legislation of the State as if they were made under the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA). However, Uniform Regulations and Uniform Rules made after this section comes into operation do not apply as subsidiary legislation of the State in specified circumstances.

Clause 15. Publication of Uniform Regulations and Uniform Rules

This clause provides that Uniform Regulations and Uniform Rules made after this section comes into operation must be published in the Gazette no later than 18 days after they were made. However, this clause does not apply to a provision of an amending Act that amends the Uniform Regulations or Uniform Rules.

Clause 16. Tabling and disallowance of Uniform Regulations and Uniform Rules

This clause provides that Uniform Regulations or Uniform Rules ("published legislation") published in the Gazette under section 15(1) must be laid before each House of Parliament within 6 sitting days of the House after publication. If the published legislation is not laid before each House of Parliament or notice of resolution to disallow is given and agreed to in whole or in part by the House, then the published legislation, or a part of it, ceases to have effect as subsidiary legislation of the State. Further, if the published legislation amended or repealed the Uniform Regulations or the Uniform Rules, then those Regulations or Rules are revived.

Clause 17. Interpretation Act 1984 s. 41 and 42 do not apply to Uniform Regulations and Uniform Rules

This clause provides that sections 41 and 42 of the Interpretation Act 1984 do not apply to the Uniform Regulations and the Uniform Rules.

A late fee must be paid in respect of an application made after the renewal day.

This clause also provides that the Law Society must grant the application if the PII entity applied before the renewal day and complied with section 156(2) or if the PII entity applied after the renewal day and complied with section 156(3). This clause provides that if a restructuring event occurs in a financial year (e.g. 2 law practices combine to form a single law practice), then the new law practice may apply to the Law Society for arrangement insurance for the remainder of the financial year. An application must be in the local approved form and be accompanied by the documents or other information required by the local approved form and any payments or levies required by the section.

The Law Society may reduce or waive the annual contribution in the circumstances if, before the restructuring event, each PII entity involved in the event had a certificate of insurance issued under section 156(5) or 157(3) for the financial year in which the event occurred.

The Law Society must grant an application for arrangement insurance if the new law practice complied with section 158(2). If the Law Society grants the application, then they must issue a certificate of insurance to the new law practice.

Clause 159. Bar-approved insurance policy

This clause provides that the Western Australian Bar Association may, by resolution of the Council of the Western Australian Bar Association, approve a policy of professional indemnity insurance for barristers. The Law Society must assess a PII entity's annual contribution for the purposes of section 156, 157 or 158, in accordance with a method of assessment determined under section 162. The annual contribution must be assessed on a pro rata basis if a PII entity applies to be covered by the PII arrangement for part only of a financial year.

Clause 162. Method of assessing annual contribution for PII arrangement

This clause provides that the Law Society must determine a method of assessment of annual contributions of PII entities. The method of assessment so determined may take into account any matters the Law Society considers relevant including, for example, the gross past or estimated future fee income of a PII entity; the professional indemnity insurance claims history of a PII entity; and the area of practice of a PII entity. The annual contribution of a PII entity is the amount assessed by the Law Society in respect of that PII entity in accordance with the determined method of assessment.

Clause 163. Review of annual contribution assessment

This clause provides that a PII entity that is not satisfied with the assessment of its annual contribution under section 161(1) may apply to the Law Society for a review of the assessment. The Law Society may confirm the assessment or revoke the assessment and make a new one. The obligation to pay an annual contribution is not affected by the application for review.

Clause 164. Appeal against review of annual contribution assessment

This clause provides that if, after a review by the Law Society of the assessment of its annual contribution, the PII entity is still not satisfied, then the PII entity may appeal against the assessment to a person nominated by the Attorney General. The nominated person may, on an appeal, confirm the assessment or revoke the assessment and make a new one. However, the obligation to pay an annual contribution is not affected by the appeal. There is no further right of review or appeal, subject to any judicial review for jurisdictional error.

Clause 165. Refund after review of, or appeal against, annual contribution assessment

This clause provides that if the annual contribution of a PII entity is reduced on review or appeal, then the amount of the reduction is to be refunded to the PII entity together with interest at a rate equal to the rate prescribed under section 8(1)(a) of the Civil Judgments Enforcement Act 2004. The Law Mutual Fund consists of the following: money forming part of the Fund immediately before the repeal of section 330(1) of the Legal Profession Act 2008; money paid into the Fund; costs recovered in consequence of the successful defence of an action; and any interest or other income earned on money forming part of the Fund.

Clause 179. Application of money in Law Mutual Fund

This clause provides for the application of funds in the Law Mutual Fund by the Law Society. The Law Society may only apply the money in that Fund to: pay the premiums for an insurance policy for a PII arrangement; pay claims under the PII arrangement including an amount of a claim referred to in section 154(2); pay expenses incurred in managing the Fund or the PII arrangement and, despite section 178(1), invest the money not immediately required for the purposes of the Fund as per the Deed of Acknowledgement of Trust made by the Law Society. The Law Society may manage and apply any surplus funds in the Law Mutual Fund from each financial year as it considers appropriate.

For the purposes of the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA), the Board may be satisfied that an applicant for the grant or renewal of an Australian practising certificate has professional indemnity insurance if the applicant provides the Board with evidence that the applicant has been issued with a certificate of insurance under sections 156(5), 157(3) or 158(5) or a certificate issued under local regulations made under section 160.

Part 8 - Fidelity cover

Division 1 - Guarantee Fund

Clause 191. Term used: claim

This clause defines the term "claim" for the purposes of Division 1 of Part 8.

Clause 192. Solicitors' Guarantee Fund

An ADI means an authorised deposit-taking institution within the meaning of the Banking Act 1959 (Cth).

Clause 193. Payments out of Guarantee Fund

This clause specifies the payments that the Legal Contribution Trust may pay out of the Guarantee Fund including, for example, the payment of claims, the expenses incurred in investigating or defending claims, insurance premiums and administration costs.

Clause 194. Application of Guarantee Fund for claims

This clause provides that the Guarantee Fund must be applied by the Legal Contribution Trust for the purposes of compensating claimants in respect of claims allowed under Part 4.5 of the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA) in respect of defaults to which that Part applies. An amount payable from the Guarantee Fund in respect of a claim is payable to the claimant, or another person at the claimant's direction.

Part 4.5 of the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA) applies to a default of a law practice only to the extent that it occurs in connection with the provision of legal services by the law practice but does not apply to defaults or a class or defaults specified in the Uniform Rules.

A default in relation to trust money or trust property received by a law practice in the course of legal practice by the law practice means a failure of the law practice to pay or deliver the trust money or trust property, where the failure arises from an act or omission of an associate that involves fraud or other dishonesty.

A default in relation to trust property received by a law practice in the course of legal practice by the law practice means a fraudulent dealing with the trust property, where the fraudulent dealing arises from or is constituted by an act or omission of an associate that involves fraud or other dishonesty.

Clause 195. Investment of Guarantee Fund

This clause provides that any portion of the Guarantee Fund that is not immediately required for the purposes of Part 8 may be invested by the Legal Contribution Trust by depositing it with an ADI in this State, as a loan to the Treasurer or in any way in which trust funds may be invested under the Trustees Act 1962. The investment must be approved by the Attorney General.

Clause 196. Notice of levy to supplement Guarantee Fund imposed under Uniform Law s. 226

Clause 198. Trust account arrangements to pay no more than 51% of interest to Legal Contribution Trust

Under section 149(1)(b) of the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA), an ADI is only authorised to maintain trust accounts if, inter alia, it has entered into an arrangement with a nominated trust authority that provides for one or more of specified matters including the payment of interest on the whole or any part of deposits in trust accounts to the nominated trust authority on account of the nominated fund.

This clause prohibits the Legal Contribution Trust from entering into an arrangement with an ADI under section 149(1)(b) of the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA) for the payment of more than 51% of the interest on deposits in a trust account to the Trust. This is because the remaining interest is required to be paid by the ADI to the Law Society under section 238.

Clause 199. Application of interest

This clause provides for the way in which the Legal Contribution Trust is to apply the interest received under an arrangement with an ADI. The Legal Contribution Trust must pay all money received into the Trust Interest Account. The money in the Trust Interest Account is to be applied, first, in payment of costs and expenses in administering the Trust and then, second, as payment into the Guarantee Fund until the Guarantee Fund is in credit to the agreed amount (at least $100,000 or another amount prescribed by the local regulations and agreed by the Attorney General and Law Society). If the level of funds in the Guarantee Fund has reached the agreed amount, then the money from the Trust Interest Account is to be used as funds for the Legal Aid Commission, the Law Society, community legal services and other similar organisations.

Clause 200. Audit of expenditure

This clause provides that a person to whom money is paid under section 199(4)(a) or (b) must maintain accounts of the money received and of its expenditure and cause the accounts to be audited by a registered company auditor. Further, they must give a copy of the audit report to the Attorney General, the Legal Contribution Trust and the Board. The Attorney General must table the audit report before each House of Parliament.

Second, by a Deputy President, a legally qualified senior member and a member who is not an Australian legal practitioner but has knowledge and understanding of the interests of persons dealing with Australian legal practitioners. In a hearing for the purposes of section 208 or a directions hearing or procedural hearing, the Tribunal is to be constituted by, or include, the President or a Deputy President.

Clause 203. Procedure of State Administrative Tribunal

This clause provides that the State Administrative Tribunal must conduct proceedings initiated under the Act or the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA) in accordance with the State Administrative Tribunal Act 2004 but subject to the Act and the Law.

For example, review proceedings commenced in the Tribunal pursuant to sections 100, 101, 314 and 358(1) of the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA) will fall within the Tribunal's review jurisdiction. Clause 206. State Administrative Tribunal to conduct hearing for disciplinary proceeding

This clause provides that the State Administrative Tribunal must conduct a hearing into each allegation made in an application initiating a disciplinary proceeding.

Clause 207. Variation of application initiating disciplinary proceeding

This clause provides that the State Administrative Tribunal may vary an application initiating a disciplinary proceeding if satisfied that it is reasonable to do so, having regard to all the circumstances, including whether varying the application would affect the fairness of the proceedings. The application may be varied by the Tribunal on application by the Board.

In considering whether to add an allegation to the application, the Tribunal must not decline to vary the application solely on the basis that:

- (a) the Board seeks to add an additional allegation that was not the subject of a complaint or an investigation; or
- (b) the alleged conduct concerned occurred more than 3 years ago.

Clause 208. Interlocutory and interim orders in relation to disciplinary proceedings

This clause gives the State Administrative Tribunal power to make any interlocutory or interim orders that it considers appropriate before making its final decision for a disciplinary proceeding.

Clause 209. State Administrative Tribunal not bound by rules of evidence

Sections 301(3) and 453(6) of the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA) provide that it is intended that jurisdictional legislation may determine whether the designated tribunal is bound by the rules of evidence in conducting a hearing in relation to an allegation of professional misconduct or proceedings for a pecuniary penalty order, but the designated tribunal is otherwise not bound by those rules in relation to matters arising under Chapter 5.

This clause provides, for the purposes of sections 301(3) and 453(6) of the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA), that the State Administrative Tribunal is not bound by the rules of evidence.

Clause 210. Notification of particular State Administrative Tribunal orders

This clause provides that the Board is to notify persons and bodies having functions under a corresponding law of another participating jurisdiction (a "relevant jurisdiction") of the making and contents of certain orders of the State Administrative Tribunal under section 208 (interim or interlocutory orders) or Part 5.4 Division 3 of the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA) (orders made in respect of disciplinary matters). The orders in question are those that need to be, or are capable of being, given effect in the relevant jurisdiction and relate to the Australian legal practitioner's practice of law in that jurisdiction.

Clause 211. Provisions about fines imposed under Uniform Law s. 302

The State Administrative Tribunal has the power to make an order requiring a person to pay a fine under section 302(1)(l) of the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA). This clause provides that if the Tribunal makes such an order, then the person must pay the amount to the Board within the period specified by the Tribunal.

Second, enforce an order that requires compliance by an Australian legal practitioner where it relates to the practitioner's practice of law in Western Australia.

Clause 213. State Administrative Tribunal to give order recommending removal of lawyer from roll or register to Principal Registrar

This clause applies if the State Administrative Tribunal makes an order under section 302(1)(f) of the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA) (that is, an order recommending that the name of a lawyer be removed from a roll kept by a Supreme Court, a register of lawyers kept under the Act or the Australian Legal Profession Register). If such an order is made then the Tribunal must give the Principal Registrar a copy of the order, a record of the evidence taken at the hearing and a copy of the Tribunal's reasons for the final decision to make the order.

Clause 214. Official notification to Board and Legal Services and Complaints Committee of removal from roll under Uniform Law s. 23

This clause provides that if a person's name and other particulars are removed from the Supreme Court roll under section 23 of the Legal Profession Uniform Law (WA), then the Principal Registrar must give written notice of the removal to the Board and the Legal Services and Complaints Committee. The register must also state the conditions (if any) imposed on an Australian practising certificate in relation to engaging in legal practice and other prescribed particulars. Some conditions may be omitted from the register at the discretion of the Board. Clause 222. Publicising disciplinary action taken because of injury, infirmity or illness
