LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

Criminal Law (Mental Impairment) Bill 2022

A Bill for

An Act —

- to make provision in relation to criminal proceedings involving persons with mental impairment; and
- to provide for special criminal proceedings for persons who are unfit to stand trial; and
- to provide for the supervision of persons who, in special criminal proceedings, are found to have committed an offence; and
- to provide for the supervision of persons acquitted on account of mental impairment; and
- to provide for the safe reintegration into the community of persons supervised under this Act; and
- to repeal the Criminal Law (Mentally Impaired Accused) Act 1996 and the Criminal Law (Mentally Impaired Accused) Regulations 1997; and
- for related purposes.

The Parliament of Western Australia enacts as follows:

Preliminary Part 1 Division 1 Introduction s. 1

1		Part 1 — Preliminary
2		Division 1 — Introduction
3	1.	Short title
4		This is the Criminal Law (Mental Impairment) Act 2022.
5	2.	Commencement
6		This Act comes into operation as follows —
7 8		(a) Part 1 — on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent;
9 10		(b) the rest of the Act — on a day fixed by proclamation, and different days may be fixed for different provisions.
11		Division 2 — General overview
12	3.	Overview of Act
13	(1)	This Part provides for preliminary matters, including —
14 15 16		(a) the objects of this Act and the principles and considerations to which persons performing functions under this Act must have regard; and
17 18		(b) the interpretation of terms and expressions used in this Act.
19 20	(2)	Part 2 provides for certain general matters appropriately dealt with at the beginning of this Act, including provisions that —
21 22		(a) address matters that can take place in the initial stages of criminal proceedings; or
23 24 25		(b) have a bearing on many of the provisions that follow including, importantly, aspects of the interaction of this Act with the Mental Health Act 2014 .

Preliminary General overview Part 1 Division 2

1	(3)	Part 3 provides for —
2		(a) raising and deciding the question of whether an accused is fit to stand trial; and
4 5		(b) the court procedures, including special proceedings, for dealing with an unfit accused.
6 7 8 9	(4)	If a person is acquitted on account of mental impairment in an ordinary criminal proceeding or is so acquitted on appeal, and therefore must be dealt with under this Act, Part 4 provides that the court must deal with the accused under Part 5 of this Act.
10		Note for this subsection:
11 12 13		The Criminal Procedure Act 2004 section 149(1) and the Criminal Appeals Act 2004 sections 30(5), 32(7) and 32A(6) set out the requirement to deal with such acquitted accused under this Act.
14 15	(5)	Part 5 provides for the orders that can be made by a court in relation to an accused who —
16		(a) has been acquitted on account of mental impairment; or
17 18		(b) although not fit to stand trial, has been found to have committed an offence.
19 20 21 22		Note for this subsection: The court can release the person unconditionally (in some circumstances), or impose a community supervision order or custody order.
23 24 25	(6)	Part 6 provides for the administration, by the Mental Impairment Review Tribunal, of the orders to which supervised persons are subject.
26 27 28		Note for this subsection: A supervised person is a person subject to a supervision order made under this Act.
29 30 31 32	(7)	Part 7 provides, in effect, for the extension of custody and community supervision orders by the Supreme Court if the court is satisfied that it is necessary on grounds that relate to the protection of the community.

Part 1 Preliminary
Division 2 General overview

1 2 3 4	(8)	Part 8 provides for mental health advocacy services for unfit accused and supervised persons, unless those services can be provided under the Mental Health Act 2014 or the Declared Places (Mental Impairment) Act 2015 .
5 6 7	(9)	Part 9 provides for victim impact statements and victim submissions to be given or made to a relevant court or the Mental Impairment Review Tribunal.
8	(10)	Part 10 provides for the Mental Impairment Review Tribunal, its jurisdiction, membership, procedures and related matters.
10	(11)	Part 11 provides for —
11 12		(a) the transfer of supervised persons to another State or Territory in which a corresponding law is in force; and
13 14		(b) the transfer to the State and disposition of persons subject to an interstate supervision order; and
15 16		(c) the interaction between that Part and other transfer related laws.
17 18 19	(12)	Part 12 provides for appeals to the Court of Appeal against certain decisions of courts other than courts of summary jurisdiction.
20 21 22 23	(13)	Part 13 includes provisions relating to electronic monitoring of supervised persons, the protection and sharing of information, interactions between supervision orders and sentences, and other provisions of general application.
24 25 26	(14)	Part 14 repeals the Criminal Law (Mentally Impaired Accused) Act 1996 and provides for the transition from the repealed Act to this Act.
27	4.	Overview: supervision orders
28	(1)	Supervision orders are —
29 30		(a) custody and community supervision orders made under Part 5:

1 2		(b) custody orders made under Part 6 in the course of the administration of a supervision order under that Part; see
3		section 89(1);
4 5		(c) interim and extended custody and community supervision orders made under Part 7;
6 7 8		(d) community supervision orders made under Part 7 in the course of the review of an extended custody order under that Part; see section 110(4) or 121(3);
9 10 11		(e) interim dispositions made under Part 11 for a person subject to an interstate supervision order who is transferred to the State;
12 13 14		(f) custody and community supervision orders made under Part 11 on review by the Supreme Court of an interim disposition; see section 206(3)(a) and (b).
15 16	(2)	Other than interim dispositions, which are made by the Minister, supervision orders are made by a court.
17 18	(3)	The custody and community supervision orders referred to in subsection (1)(a) can be made following —
19 20		(a) an ordinary criminal proceeding in which the accused is acquitted on account of mental impairment; or
21 22 23		(b) an appeal under the Criminal Appeals Act 2004 in which the offender is acquitted on account of mental impairment; or
24		(c) a special proceeding under Part 3 Division 3.
25 26 27 28	(4)	Although custody and community supervision orders referred to in subsection (1)(b), (d) and (f) are not made under Part 5, Part 5 (to the extent relevant) applies to their making; see sections 89(5), 110(5), 121(4) and 206(5).
29 30 31	(5)	Although interim and extended custody and community supervision orders, and interim dispositions, are not custody or community supervision orders as defined, Part 6 (to the extent

Part 1 Preliminary
Division 2 General overview

s. 5

relevant) applies to the administration of them; see sections 107(4), 108(4), 109(2), 113(2) and 205(4) and (5).

Overview: appeals and internal review

- (1) Relevant decisions, findings and orders of courts in ordinary criminal proceedings and in proceedings under Parts 3 and 5 are appealable under the Criminal Appeals Act 2004.
- (2) The results of those appeals can include that the accused must be dealt with under this Act; see Part 4.
 - (3) Part 6 Division 7 provides for
 - (a) internal review of decisions of the Tribunal in the administration of supervision orders under Part 6; and
 - (b) appeals to the Supreme Court against decisions of courts of summary jurisdiction relating to making, cancelling or confirming custody orders and community supervision orders; and
 - (c) appeals to the Supreme Court against some initial decisions of the Tribunal and most internal review decisions of the Tribunal.
 - (4) Part 12 provides for appeals to the Court of Appeal against certain decisions of courts other than courts of summary jurisdiction.

22 6. Overviews are guide only

The overviews in this Division and the overviews in other Parts of this Act are intended only as a guide to the general scheme and effect of this Act, and do not limit or otherwise affect the other provisions of this Act.

Division 2

Subsection (3) does not apply to a supervised person required to (5) 1 be detained at an authorised hospital under — 2 (a) a custody order; or 3 an interim or extended custody order; or (b) 4 an interim disposition under section 205(1)(a). 5 (c) 6 Note for this subsection: The detention, leave of absence and release of such a person is 7 governed by this Act and not the Mental Health Act 2014 Part 7; see 8 section 82 of that Act. 9 18. Supervised person in community may be made involuntary 10 patient 11 This Act does not prevent a person living in the community 12 under 1 of the following from being made an involuntary 13 patient — 14 a community supervision order; (a) 15 an interim or extended community supervision order; (b) 16 (c) a leave of absence order; 17 (d) an interim disposition under section 205(1)(b). 18 19. Court may make hospital order in respect of accused 19 This section applies if an accused has been refused bail under (1) 20 the Bail Act 1982. 21 A judicial officer (as defined in the Bail Act 1982 section 3(1)) (2) 22 may make an order under this section (a hospital order) in 23 respect of the accused if the judicial officer reasonably suspects 24 that -25 the accused has a mental illness for which the accused is (a) 26 in need of treatment; and 27 (b) because of the mental illness there is — 28

a significant risk to the health or safety of the accused or to the safety of another person; or 29

1		(ii) a significant risk of serious harm to the accused or to another person;
3		and
4 5		(c) the accused does not have the capacity to consent to treatment.
6	(3)	A hospital order is an order that the accused —
7 8		(a) must be taken to and detained at an authorised hospital; and
9		(b) must be examined by a psychiatrist; and
10 11 12		(c) following the examination, must, until brought before the court in accordance with subsection (4), be detained —
13 14 15		(i) if, as a result of the examination, an inpatient treatment order is made in respect of the accused — at a hospital;
16		(ii) in any other case — in custody.
17 18 19	(4)	A hospital order must specify a day, that is not more than 7 days after the day on which the order is made, for the accused to be brought before the court specified in the order.
20 21 22 23	(5)	A hospital order has effect as if the accused had been referred under the Mental Health Act 2014 section 26(2) for an examination by a psychiatrist at an authorised hospital and, subject to subsections (3) and (4), that Act applies accordingly.
24 25 26 27 28 29	(6)	An accused who, while required to be detained at an authorised hospital under a hospital order, is away from the hospital without lawful authority, may be apprehended and returned, either under an order under the Mental Health Act 2014 Part 7 Division 5 or on the basis that they have escaped lawful custody.

Division 3 — Communication with accused and supervised persons

20. Communication and support measures

- (1) For the purposes of this section, communication with a person includes the provision to a person of any advice, explanation, information, notification or reasons.
- (2) Communication with an accused or supervised person under this Act must be in a language, form of communication and terms that the person is likely to understand using any means of communication that is practicable and using an interpreter if necessary and practicable.
 - (3) For the purposes of proceedings before a court or the Tribunal, the court or Tribunal may order that an accused or supervised person be provided with any support measure that is reasonably available.

21. Appointment of communication partner for accused or supervised person

- 18 (1) If, during proceedings before a court or the Tribunal, an accused 19 or supervised person is to give evidence or otherwise 20 communicate with the court or Tribunal, the court or Tribunal 21 may appoint a person (a communication partner) to perform 22 the function described in subsection (2).
 - (2) The function of a communication partner is, when requested by the court or Tribunal, to
 - (a) communicate and explain to the accused or supervised person, any questions put to the accused or supervised person; and
 - (b) communicate and explain to the court or Tribunal, the information given by the accused or supervised person.

1 2 3	(3)	The court or Tribunal can only appoint a person as a communication partner if it considers that the person is suitable and competent.
4 5 6 7	(4)	A communication partner must take an oath or make a declaration, in a form that the court or Tribunal considers appropriate, that they will faithfully perform their function under subsection (2).
8 9 10 11 12	(5)	A communication partner who, while performing or purportedly performing a function under subsection (2), makes a statement to the accused or supervised person or to the court or Tribunal that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular commits a crime.
13		Penalty for this subsection: imprisonment for 5 years.
14 15		Summary conviction penalty for this subsection: imprisonment for 2 years and a fine of $24 000.
16 17 18 19	(6)	The regulations may provide for matters relating to communication partners, including the kinds of qualifications and experience that a court or the Tribunal must have regard to when considering whether to appoint a communication partner.
20	Divisio	on 4 — Submissions by close family members and carers
21	22.	Submission by close family members and carers
22 23	(1)	This section applies in relation to proceedings before a court or the Tribunal under Part 5, 6, 7 or 11.
24 25 26	(2)	A close family member or carer of the accused or supervised person may make a submission to the court or Tribunal in relation to the treatment, care and support of the person.
27	(3)	A submission must be in writing.
28 29	(4)	A submission may include suggestions about the conditions that should apply to the accused or supervised person.

General provisions Part 2 Division 5 Reports under this Act

s. 23

1	(5)	A court may rule as inadmissible the whole or any part of a submission.
3 4	(6)	The Tribunal must establish procedures for the giving of submissions.
5 6 7	(7)	In exercising its jurisdiction, the Tribunal may have regard to a submission received by it and may give the submission such weight as it sees fit.
8		Division 5 — Reports under this Act
9 10	23.	Reports to include information about treatment, training or other measures
11 12 13 14		If, under this Act, a person is required to make an assessment of or report on, the mental state of an accused or a supervised person, the person must include in the report the following information —
15 16		(a) the nature of any treatment, training or other measures provided in relation to the person's condition;
17		(b) the reasons for the treatment, training or other measures;
18		(c) the response to the treatment, training or other measures
19		(d) the prescribed information.

Part 3 — Accused who are unfit to stand trial

2		Division 1 — Preliminary matters
3	24.	Overview of Part
4 5	(1)	Division 2 deals with raising and deciding the question of whether an accused is fit to stand trial.
6 7	(2)	Division 3 provides for the procedure for dealing with an unfit accused, which includes —
8 9 10 11		 (a) in the case of a charge of a simple offence or an indictable offence that was to be dealt with summarily — the court deciding whether to discharge the accused from the charge; and
12 13		(b) a special proceeding in which the court is to decide the charge against the accused, on the evidence available.
14 15 16	(3)	This Part includes requirements, at sections 30 and 36, to notify the Chief Mental Health Advocate of adjournment of proceedings in relation to unfit accused.
17 18 19		Note for this section: An unfit accused includes a person in respect of whom the question of fitness to stand trial has been raised but has yet to be resolved.
20	25.	Application of Part

This Part applies in respect of an accused before a court 21 exercising criminal jurisdiction. 22

Part 3 Accused who are unfit to stand trial

Division 2 Raising and deciding question of fitness of accused

s. 26

Division 2 — Raising and deciding question of fitness 1 of accused 2 26. Accused who is unfit to stand trial 3 An accused is unfit to stand trial on a charge of an offence if the 4 accused, because of mental impairment, is unable to do 1 or 5 more of the following — 6 (a) understand the nature of the charge; 7 give instructions to a legal practitioner representing the (b) 8 accused; 9 understand the requirement to plead to the charge or the 10 (c) effect of a plea; 11 understand the purpose of a trial; (d) 12 understand or exercise the right to challenge jurors; (e) 13 follow the course of the trial; (f) 14 understand the substantial effect of evidence presented (g) 15 by the prosecution in the trial; 16 decide whether to give evidence, or to give evidence if (h) 17 they wish to do so; 18 properly defend the charge. (i) 19 27. Presumptions as to fitness to stand trial 20 (1) An accused is presumed to be fit to stand trial until the contrary 21 is found under this Division. 22 An accused found under this Division to be unfit to stand trial is (2) 23 presumed to remain unfit until the contrary is found under this 24 Division. 25 28. When the question of fitness to stand trial may be raised 26 (1) The question of whether an accused is unfit to stand trial may be 27 raised at any time before or during a trial. 28

s. 29

1 2	(2)	The question may be raised by the defence, the prosecution or the court on its own initiative.
3	(3)	The question may be raised more than once but, if the question
4	(0)	is raised a second or subsequent time, it need not be considered
5		unless the court is satisfied that new facts have been discovered,
6		new circumstances have arisen or the circumstances have
7		changed since the question was last raised.
8	29.	Deciding question of fitness to stand trial
9	(1)	The question of whether an accused is unfit to stand trial is to be
10	, ,	decided on the balance of probabilities by a court constituted by
11		a magistrate or judge sitting alone.
12	(2)	The court deciding the question may inquire into the question
13	()	and inform itself in any way that it considers appropriate.
14	(3)	For the purpose of the inquiry the court may do any of the
15	, ,	following —
16		(a) order that the accused be examined by a psychiatrist,
17		psychologist or other appropriate expert;
18		(b) order that a report about the accused by an expert be
19		submitted to the court;
20		(c) adjourn the proceedings and, if there is a jury, discharge
21		it;
22		(d) make any other order the court considers appropriate.
23	(4)	The court may make a report about the accused available to the
24	, ,	prosecutor and to the accused, on any conditions the court
25		considers appropriate.
26	(5)	In deciding the question, the court may have regard to the extent trial.

Part 3 Accused who are unfit to stand trial

Division 2 Raising and deciding question of fitness of accused

1	30.	Chief Mental Health Advocate to be notified
2 3 4		If proceedings are adjourned under section 29(3)(c), the court must immediately notify, and give the prescribed information to, the Chief Mental Health Advocate.
5 6	31.	Determining question of fitness if charge to be dealt with on indictment
7 8 9	(1)	Subsection (2) applies if the question of whether an accused is unfit to stand trial is raised in 1 of the following circumstances —
10		(a) the accused is before the Magistrates Court and —
11 12		(i) the accused is charged with an indictable offence; and
13 14		(ii) the charge is to be dealt with on indictment by the District Court or the Supreme Court;
15		(b) the accused is before the Children's Court and —
16 17		(i) the accused is charged with an indictable offence; and
18 19 20 21		(ii) the charge is, because of the Children's Court of Western Australia Act 1988 section 19B(1) or 19C(1), to be dealt with on indictment by the District Court or the Supreme Court;
22		(c) the accused is before the Children's Court and —
23 24		(i) the accused is charged with an indictable offence; and
25 26 27		(ii) the charge is, because of the Children's Court of Western Australia Act 1988 section 19D, to be dealt with by the Magistrates Court.
28 29	(2)	If this subsection applies the court must reserve the question for determination by the court that is to deal with the charge.

1	32.	Fit to stand trial with support measures
2		If a court finds that an accused is fit to stand trial while the accused has access to support measures, those support
4		measures, to the extent that they remain necessary for the person
5		to be fit, must be made available to the accused throughout the
6		trial.
7	1	Division 3 — Procedure following finding of unfitness
8		Subdivision 1 — Application of Division
9	33.	Division applies to accused found unfit
10		This Division applies when a court finds an accused to be unfit
11		to stand trial.
12	34.	Application of Young Offenders Act 1994
13		Nothing in this Division prevents an accused who is a young
14		person (as defined in the Young Offenders Act 1994 section 3)
15		from being dealt with under Part 5 of that Act unless a finding
16		has been made under section 41(2) of this Act.
17		Subdivision 2 — General procedure
18	35.	Opportunity for accused to become fit to stand trial
19	(1)	If, after making the finding that the accused is unfit to stand trial
20		(the finding of unfitness), the court is satisfied on the balance
21		of probabilities that the accused will not become fit to stand trial
22		within 6 months, the court must make an order under section 37.
23	(2)	If the court is not satisfied under subsection (1), the court must
24		adjourn the proceedings in order to see whether the accused will
25		become fit to stand trial.

s. 41

Subdivision 3 — Special proceedings 1 41. Nature of special proceedings 2 (1) The purpose of a special proceeding is for the court, constituted 3 by a magistrate or judge sitting alone, to decide the charge 4 against the accused, on the evidence available. 5 (2) In deciding the charge the court may find that the accused — 6 is not guilty (other than as described in paragraph (b)); 7 or 8 is not guilty on account of mental impairment under The (b) 9 Criminal Code section 27; or 10 committed the offence charged or another offence (c) 11 which, on the charge, the accused might be found to 12 have committed. 13 (3) To find that the accused committed an offence, the court must 14 be satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt. 15 (4) The decision of the court must include the reasons for its 16 decision but the validity of a decision is not affected by a failure 17 to comply with this subsection. 18 42. Conduct of special proceedings 19 (1) A special proceeding may be conducted in the manner that the 20 court considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case, 21 including without holding a hearing. 22 (2) 23

- (2) However, the court must, to the extent practicable, endeavour to conduct the proceeding as if it were an ordinary criminal proceeding.
- (3) In determining the manner in which a special proceeding is to be conducted, the court must confer with the parties to the proceeding.

Part 5 — Court-ordered dispositions

Division 1 — Overview of Part

3 45. Overview of Part

- (1) This Part provides for the orders that can be made by a court in relation to
 - (a) an accused who has been acquitted on account of mental impairment, whether in a trial or in a special proceeding under Part 3 Division 3 for unfit accused; and
 - (b) an accused who, in a special proceeding under Part 3 Division 3 for unfit accused, has been found to have committed an offence.
 - (2) Three types of orders can be made
 - (a) a CO;
 - (b) a CSO;
 - (c) an order that the accused be released unconditionally.
- 16 (3) An accused subject to a CO or a CSO is a supervised person.
 - (4) Under this Part, the court, if it does not release the accused unconditionally, determines what type of order the accused will be subject to, the term of the order and, for a CSO, may impose conditions. Under Part 6 the Tribunal then administers the order including, for a CO, determining the place of custody.
 - (5) This Part (to the extent relevant) also applies to the making of COs and CSOs under Parts 6, 7 and 11 as if these orders were made under this Part; see sections 89(5), 110(5), 121(4) and 206(5).
 - (6) A CO ceases to have effect in accordance with section 51, and a CSO in accordance with section 56.

Part 5
Division 2

1	(7)	This Part includes a requirement, under section 48, to notify the Chief Mental Health Advocate of the making of a CO or CSO.
3		Division 2 — Orders that may be made by court
4	46.	Orders that may be made
5 6	(1)	If a court must make an order under this Part in respect of an accused, it must —
7		(a) make a custody order; or
8		(b) make a community supervision order; or
9		(c) order that the person be released unconditionally.
10 11 12	(2)	Subject to subsection (3), a custody order must be made in respect of a person if the offence that the person is found to have committed was a serious offence, unless —
13 14 15 16		(a) the court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that any risk that the person appears to present to the safety of the community can be adequately managed under a community supervision order; or
17 18 19		(b) the person was, at the time of the commission of the offence, a child and the court is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances.
20 21 22	(3)	A custody order must not be made in respect of a person unless the statutory penalty for the offence is or includes imprisonment.
23 24 25 26 27	(4)	An order that the person be released unconditionally cannot be made in respect of a person if the offence that the person is found to have committed was a serious offence unless the person was, at the time of the commission of the offence, a child and the court is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances.

Part 5 Court-ordered dispositions

Division 2 Orders that may be made by court

47. Orders that may be made: considerations

2	(1)	When making an order under this Part, the court must have regard to the following —
4		(a) the protection of the community;
5 6		(b) the nature of the offence and the circumstances of its commission;
7		(c) the person's character, antecedents, age and health;
8		(d) the nature of the person's mental impairment;
9 10		(e) the relationship between the mental impairment and the offending conduct;
11 12 13		(f) the degree of risk that the person appears to present to themself or the safety of the community because of their mental impairment;
14 15 16		(g) the extent to which adequate resources are available for the treatment, care and support of the person in the community;
17 18		(h) if the person is a child — the child-specific considerations;
19 20 21 22		(i) if the person was a child at the time of the commission of the offence — the general principles of juvenile justice set out in the Young Offenders Act 1994 section 7.
23 24	(2)	Subsection (1) does not limit the matters to which the court may have regard.
25 26 27	(3)	The court may require a prosecutor to provide copies of documents relevant to the factors to be considered under subsection (1)(b) and (c).
28 29 30	(4)	The court may order that a report by a psychiatrist, psychologis or other appropriate expert about any of the matters referred to in subsection (1) be submitted to the court.

1	48.	Court to notify Tribunal and Chief Mental Health Advocate of orders
3		If a court makes a custody order or a community supervision order, the court must immediately —
5 6		(a) notify the Tribunal and the Chief Mental Health Advocate that the order has been made; and
7 8		(b) give the Tribunal and the Chief Mental Health Advocate a copy of the order and the prescribed information.
9		Division 3 — Custody orders
10	49.	Custody orders
11		A custody order is an order that, subject to this Act, a person be
12		detained in custody at a place determined from time to time by
13		the Tribunal under Part 6 Division 3 for the protection of the
14		community.
15	50.	Limiting term for custody order
16	(1)	In this section —
17 18		term of detention means a term of detention under the Young Offenders Act 1994;
19		term of imprisonment means term as defined in the Sentencing
20		Act 1995 section 85(1).
21	(2)	If a court makes a custody order, the court must set a limiting
22	. ,	term for the order, being the best estimate of the term of
23		imprisonment or term of detention that the court would, in all
24		the circumstances, have imposed if —
25		(a) the court were sentencing the person for the offence; and
26		(b) any mental impairment of the person were not taken into
27		account.

Court-ordered dispositions Part 5 Division 4 Community supervision orders s. 51

1	(3)	For the purposes of subsection (2), the court must assume that —
3 4		(a) the person had pleaded guilty to the charge at the earliest opportunity; and
5 6		(b) there is no other option but to impose a term of imprisonment or term of detention.
7 8 9 10 11	(4)	The limiting term commences on the day on which the order is made unless the court, after taking into account any time that the person has already spent in custody in relation to the offence, orders that the term be taken to have commenced on an earlier day.
12	51.	When custody order ceases to have effect
13		A custody order has effect until the earliest of the following —
14		(a) its limiting term expires;
15		(b) it is cancelled under section 74;
16 17		(c) if a leave of absence order applies to the person subject to the custody order — an order of the Tribunal under
18 19		section 73(1)(d)(iii) cancelling all of the conditions of the leave of absence order comes into effect.
20		Division 4 — Community supervision orders
21	52.	Community supervision orders
22		A community supervision order is an order that a person, while
23		residing in the community, must comply with the conditions of
24		the order for the protection of the community.
25	53.	Term of community supervision order
26	(1)	The term of a community supervision order must be set by the
27	• •	court and must not be more than 5 years.

1 2	(2)	on which the order is made.
3 4	54.	Conditions of community supervision order: statutory conditions
5 6 7 8	(1)	It is a condition of a community supervision order that the supervised person be under the supervision of a supervising officer designated for the person, which includes complying with the lawful directions of the officer.
9 10	(2)	It is a condition of a community supervision order that the supervised person must —
11 12 13 14 15		(a) on the next working day after the day on which the order is made, report to a community corrections officer or, if the person is a child, an officer of the Department (as defined in the Young Offenders Act 1994 section 3) assigned by the CEO (Young Offenders) for the child; and
17		(b) be under the supervision of the officer; and
18 19		(c) comply with the lawful directions of the officer until a supervising officer is designated for the person.
20 21 22	(3)	The powers of an officer referred to in subsection (2) are, when performing functions under that subsection, those of a supervising officer under this Act.
23 24	55.	Conditions of community supervision order: court imposed conditions
25 26 27	(1)	A court making a community supervision order may impose any conditions on the order that it considers are necessary to protect the community.
28 29 30	(2)	Without limiting subsection (1), if the supervised person is a child the court must have regard to the child-specific considerations.

Part 6 — Administration of supervision orders by Tribunal

2		by Tribunal
3		Division 1 — Preliminary matters
4	57.	Overview of Part
5 6	(1)	Under this Part, the Tribunal administers the orders to which supervised persons are subject.
7	(2)	Supervision orders are —
8		(a) COs and CSOs made under Part 5;
9		(b) COs made under this Part; see section 89(1);
10		(c) CSOs made under Part 7; see section 110(4) and 121(3);
11		(d) interim and extended COs and CSOs made under Part 7;
12		(e) interim dispositions made under Part 11;
13 14		(f) COs and CSOs made under Part 11; see section 206(3)(a) and (b).
15 16 17	(3)	Under Division 3 the Tribunal determines the place of custody of a person subject to a CO, an interim or extended CO or a relevant interim disposition.
18 19	(4)	Under Division 4 the Tribunal must review COs, CSOs and leave of absence orders and, on review, can —
20 21 22		(a) for a person subject to a CO — make or cancel a leave of absence order or vary or cancel all of the conditions of a leave of absence order; and
23 24		(b) for a person subject to a CSO — vary or cancel all of the conditions of the CSO.
25 26	(5)	If the Tribunal cancels all of the conditions of a leave of absence order or CSO —
27 28		(a) in the case of a leave of absence order — the underlying CO ceases; see section 51(c);

1 2		(b) in the case of a CSO — the CSO ceases; see section 56(c).
3		Notes for this subsection:
4 5 6		1. The Tribunal cannot cancel all of the conditions in the initial period of an order (see section 73(3)) but under section 74 an application may instead be made to the original court.
7 8 9		2. The Tribunal cannot cancel all of the conditions of a leave of absence order applying in respect of a person subject to an extended CO; see section 109(3).
10 11	(6)	If the Tribunal cancels a leave of absence order, the supervised person must again be detained under the underlying CO.
12 13 14 15	(7)	In the case of a breach of a CSO, the court that made the CSO can make a CO that replaces a CSO if satisfied of the matters in section 89(3). Part 5 (to the extent relevant) applies to the making of the order; see section 89(5).
16	(8)	Division 7 provides for —
17 18		(a) internal review of decisions of the Tribunal in the administration of supervision orders under this Part; and
19 20 21 22		 (b) appeals to the Supreme Court against decisions of courts of summary jurisdiction relating to making, cancelling or confirming COs or CSOs (including for breach of a CSO); and
23 24 25		(c) appeals to the Supreme Court against some initial decisions of the Tribunal and most internal review decisions of the Tribunal.
26 27 28 29	(9)	Although interim and extended orders and interim dispositions are not COs or CSOs as defined, this Part applies (to the extent relevant) to such orders and dispositions; see sections 107(4), 108(4), 109(2), 113(2) and 205(4) and (5).
30	58.	Representative of supervised person
31 32	(1)	The Tribunal may recognise as the representative of a supervised person —
33		(a) a person chosen by the supervised person; or another person if, in the opinion of the Tribunal — (b) 1 (i) the supervised person is unable to choose a 2 person to be their representative; and 3 (ii) the prospective representative is a person who 4 has a sufficient interest in the person. 5 Examples for this subsection: 6 1. A carer of the person. 7 2. A family member of the person. 8 (2) The Tribunal cannot recognise a person as the representative of 9 a supervised person unless satisfied that the prospective 10 representative is acting without remuneration. 11 (3) Remuneration or similar payment as part of the following is 12 disregarded for the purposes of subsection (2) — 13 appointment as the Public Advocate; 14 (a) appointment under the Guardianship and (b) 15 Administration Act 1990 section 94; 16 appointment as the Chief Mental Health Advocate; (c) 17 engagement as a mental health advocate under the (d) 18 Mental Health Act 2014 section 350. 19 59. Non-compliance with conditions of orders 20 For the purposes of this Part, a reference to a condition of a 21 leave of absence order or a community supervision order not 22 having been complied with is not limited to a failure to comply 23 that arises because of an act or omission of the person to whom 24 the order applies. 25 Division 2 — Declared places 26 60. Minister may make order as to declared places 27 The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, declare 28

3		Division 3 — Custody orders: places of custody
4	61.	Place of custody to be determined
5 6 7	(1)	Within 5 working days after the day on which a custody order made, the Tribunal must determine the place where the supervised person is to be detained.
8	(2)	Subsection (1) has effect subject to section 62.
9 10 11	(3)	Until the Tribunal determines the place where the supervised person is to be detained, the supervised person must be detained —
12 13 14		(a) if, when the custody order is made, the person is detained at a hospital (whether under an inpatient treatment order or otherwise) — at a hospital; or
15		(b) in any other case — in a prison or detention centre.
16	62.	Limitations on place of custody
17 18 19 20	(1)	The Tribunal must not determine that a supervised person is to be detained in a prison or detention centre unless satisfied that there is no available alternative place of custody that would be suitable.
21 22	(2)	The Tribunal must not determine that a supervised person is to be detained in a DSC declared place unless —
23 24 25 26		(a) the Tribunal is satisfied that the person is a person with a disability (as defined in the Disability Services Act 1993 section 3) the predominant reason for which i not mental illness; and
27		(b) the Tribunal is satisfied that the person has reached
21 22 23 24	(2)	The Tribunal must not determine that a supervised personal be detained in a DSC declared place unless — (a) the Tribunal is satisfied that the person is a personal disability (as defined in the Disability Service)

1 2 3		(c) the Tribunal has regard to the degree of risk that the person's detention in the declared place appears to present to the safety of the community; and
4 5		(d) the constitution of the Tribunal includes a member referred to in section 171(1)(f).
6 7 8	(3)	The Tribunal must not determine that a supervised person is to be detained at an authorised hospital unless satisfied that the person has a mental illness that is capable of being treated.
9 10	(4)	The Tribunal should not determine that a supervised person is to be detained at an authorised hospital unless —
11 12		(a) the Tribunal is satisfied that the person has a mental illness requiring treatment; and
13 14		(b) the Tribunal is satisfied that because of the mental illness, there is —
15 16		(i) a significant risk to the health or safety of the person or to the safety of another person; or
17 18		(ii) a significant risk of serious harm to the person or to another person;
19		and
20 21		(c) the Tribunal is satisfied that the treatment can only be provided satisfactorily at an authorised hospital; and
22 23		(d) the constitution of the Tribunal includes a member who is a psychiatrist.
24 25	(5)	A failure to comply with subsection (4) does not affect the lawfulness of the detention of a person.
26	63.	Tribunal to notify of determination of place of custody
27	(1)	The Tribunal must, within 24 hours of determining a place

6	64.	Place of custody may be changed
7 8	(1)	The Tribunal may change its determination as to the place where a supervised person is to be detained.
9 10 11 12	(2)	The Tribunal must, as soon as practicable after a supervised person reaches the age of 18 years, consider whether to change its determination as to the place where the person is to be detained.
13	(3)	Subsection (1) has effect subject to section 62.
14		Division 4 — Tribunal to review orders
15	65.	Terms used
16	(1)	In this Division —
17 18		CEO (Community Services) means the chief executive officer of the Community Services Department;
19		reviewable order means —
20		(a) a custody order;
21		(b) a community supervision order;
22		(c) a leave of absence order.
	(2)	A reference in this Division to a child in the care of the CEO
23 24 25 26	(2)	(Community Services) is a reference to a child who, under the Children and Community Services Act 2004 section 30(a) or (b) is in the CEO's care.

Part 6 Administration of supervision orders by Tribunal

Division 4 Tribunal to review orders

1	66.	Initial and periodic review
2	(1)	The Tribunal must carry out a review of a reviewable order —
3 4 5		 (a) in the case of a leave of absence order applying to a supervised person who is a child — not later than 3 months after the order is made; and
6 7 8		 (b) in the case of a leave of absence order applying to a supervised person who is not a child — not later than 12 months after the order is made; and
9 10		(c) in any other case — as soon as practicable, but no later than 4 weeks after the order is made.
11	(2)	The Tribunal must carry out a review of the order —
12 13 14		(a) if the supervised person is a child — not later than3 months after the previous review of the order under this Part; or
15 16 17		(b) if the supervised person is not a child — not later than 12 months after the previous review of the order under this Part.
18 19	(3)	A reference in subsection (2) to a previous review includes a reference to —
20 21		(a) review by the Tribunal under Division 7 of a reviewable decision relating to the order; and
22 23		(b) an appeal to the Supreme Court under Division 7 against a decision relating to the order.
24 25	67.	Application for review by supervised person, representative or legal practitioner
26 27 28	(1)	A supervised person, their representative or their legal practitioner may, in writing, make an application to the Tribunal for review of a reviewable order to which the person is subject.
29 30	(2)	An application may be made at any time other than within 28 days after the Tribunal makes a decision the making of

1 2		which involved a consideration of substantially the same issue as would be raised by the proposed application.
3	(3)	The Tribunal must carry out the review within a reasonable period of time after receiving an application.
5 6	(4)	However, the Tribunal may reject an application if the Tribunal is satisfied that the application is vexatious or frivolous.
7	68.	Review by Tribunal on its own initiative
8 9 10		The Tribunal may, at any time, carry out a review of a reviewable order if the Tribunal considers that there are circumstances that justify it doing so.
11	69.	Review at request of Minister
12 13 14	(1)	The Minister may, at any time, request the Tribunal to carry out a review of a reviewable order and report to the Minister on the outcome of that review.
15 16	(2)	The Tribunal must carry out the review within a reasonable period of time after receiving the request.
17	(3)	A request must be in writing.
18	70.	Time of review may be extended in certain cases
19	(1)	In this section —
20 21 22		relevant decision , in relation to a review, means a decision the making of which involves a consideration of substantially the same issues as would be raised by the review.
23 24 25 26 27	(2)	If, within 28 days before the time by which the Tribunal is required under section 66 to carry out a review, the Tribunal has made a relevant decision, the Tribunal may extend the time by which the review is required to not later than 28 days after the decision was made.

Part 6 Administration of supervision orders by Tribunal Division 7 Review of and appeals against certain decisions

s. 90

Division 7 — Review of and appeals against certain decisions

2		Subdivision 1 — Internal review by Tribunal
3	90.	Term used: reviewable decision
4		In this Subdivision —
5		reviewable decision means a decision of the Tribunal under
6		section 73.
7	91.	Internal review of Tribunal decision
8	(1)	If a reviewable decision is made about a supervised person, the
9		person, their representative or their legal practitioner may,
0		within 28 days after the day on which the decision is made,
1		request the Tribunal to review the decision.
2	(2)	A request for review must —
3		(a) be in writing; and
4		(b) state the grounds for the request; and
5		(c) include any submissions that the applicant wants to
6		make to the Tribunal about the decision.
7	(3)	Application may be made to the Tribunal for an extension of the
8		period referred to in subsection (1) (whether before or after its
9		expiry), and the Tribunal may grant the extension if there is
20		sufficient reason to do so.
21	(4)	Once a request for review is made, the Tribunal must —
22		(a) consider any submissions included with the request; and
23		(b) review the decision within 28 days after the day on
24		which the request is made; and
25		(c) do 1 of the following —
26		(i) confirm the decision;
27		(ii) vary the decision;
28		(iii) cancel the decision and make another decision;

1 2 3		(iv) cancel the decision and refer the matter to the Tribunal that made the decision for further consideration.
4 5 6	(5)	The Tribunal must, when exercising its jurisdiction under this Subdivision, be constituted by the President or a Deputy President who is an experienced lawyer.
7 8	(6)	On review, the Tribunal must give the applicant written notice of the decision, with reasons for the decision.
9	92.	Nature of review proceedings
10 11 12 13 14	(1)	The review of a reviewable decision is to be by way of a hearing de novo, and it is not confined to matters that were before the Tribunal when making the reviewable decision but may involve the consideration of new material whether or not it existed at the time the reviewable decision was made.
15 16	(2)	The purpose of the review is to produce the correct and preferable decision at the time of the review.
17 18 19	(3)	The reasons for the reviewable decision, or any grounds for review set out in the application, do not limit the Tribunal in conducting the review of the reviewable decision.
20		Subdivision 2 — Appeals to Supreme Court
21	93.	Appeals against certain decisions
22 23	(1)	A supervised person may, with the leave of the court, appeal to the Supreme Court against the following —
24 25 26		(a) a decision of a court of summary jurisdiction to confirm a custody order or community supervision order under section 74;
27 28		(b) a decision of a court of summary jurisdiction under section 89 —

1 2 3	(6)	The Supreme Court may extend the time limit in subsection (4) in a particular case, and the extension may be given even though the time limit has passed.
4	(7)	A party commencing an appeal must notify the Tribunal.
5	94.	Arrest of person subject to custody order
6 7	(1)	Subsection (2) applies if the Minister commences an appeal under section 93 against —
8		(a) a decision of a court to cancel a custody order; or
9 10		(b) a decision of the Tribunal under section 73(1)(b) to make a leave of absence order; or
11 12		(c) a decision of the Tribunal under section 91 to make, or confirm the making of, a leave of absence order.
13 14 15 16	(2)	The Supreme Court may issue a warrant for the arrest of the person who was subject to the custody order, or to whom the leave of absence order applies, if satisfied that it is necessary to do so because of the risk that the person appears to present to the safety of the community.
18 19 20	(3)	A person arrested under a warrant under subsection (2) must, as soon as practicable, be returned to their place of custody under the custody order.
21	95.	Grounds of appeal
22		The grounds of an appeal are —
23		(a) that the court or Tribunal —
24 25		(i) made an error of law or of fact, or of both law and fact; or
26 27		(ii) acted without jurisdiction or in excess of its jurisdiction;
28		or
29 30		(b) that there is another sufficient reason for hearing an appeal against the decision.

96. Dealing with appeal

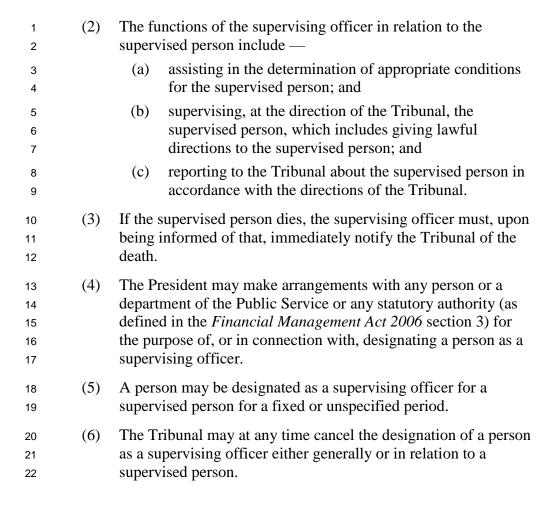

- 2 (1) An appeal is by way of rehearing.
- When dealing with an appeal, the Supreme Court may make any order it considers appropriate.
 - (3) The Supreme Court, in deciding an appeal, may do 1 of the following
 - (a) confirm the decision;
 - (b) vary the decision;
 - (c) set aside the decision and make any decision that the court or Tribunal could have made in the proceedings;
 - (d) set aside the decision and send the matter back to the court or Tribunal for reconsideration, either with or without the hearing of further evidence, in accordance with any directions or recommendations that it considers appropriate.
 - (4) If the Supreme Court sends the matter back to the court or Tribunal, it may give directions as to the constitution of the court or Tribunal.

97. Effect of appeal on decision appealed against

- (1) An appeal against a decision does not affect the operation of the decision or prevent the taking of action to implement the decision unless the Supreme Court orders otherwise.
- 23 (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Supreme Court may, by 24 order, stay the operation of a decision pending the determination 25 of an application for leave to appeal against the decision and of 26 any appeal.

1 2	Subdiv	vision 3 — Effect of decisions made on, or as a consequence of, review or appeal
3	98.	Effect of decisions made on, or as a consequence of, review or appeal
5 6 7 8	(1)	The fact that a decision is made on reconsideration as required under section 91(4)(c)(iv) or 96(3)(d) does not prevent the decision from being open to review or appeal under this Division.
9 10	(2)	The rest of this section applies to and in relation to a decision (the original decision) described in section 90 or 93(1) or (2).
11 12 13 14	(3)	The original decision as confirmed or varied by the Tribunal or the Supreme Court under this Division, or a decision of the Tribunal or the Supreme Court substituted under this Division for the original decision —
15 16		(a) is to be regarded as, and has effect as, a decision of the original decision maker; and
17 18 19 20		(b) unless the Tribunal or Supreme Court (as is relevant) orders otherwise — is to be regarded as having effect, or having had effect, from the time when the original decision would have, or would have had, effect.
21 22 23	(4)	Despite subsection (3)(a), the decision as confirmed, varied or substituted is not again open to review or appeal under this Division.
24		Division 8 — Supervising officers
25	99.	Supervising officers
26 27 28 29	(1)	When designating, for the purposes of section 78(3) or 85, a person as a supervising officer for a supervised person, the Tribunal must be satisfied that the person to be designated is suitably qualified and experienced.

Part 7 Division 1

1 2		Part 7 — Extended custody and community supervision orders
3		Division 1 — Preliminary matters
4	100.	Overview of Part
5 6	(1)	This Part provides for extended COs or CSOs to replace existing COs, CSOs or extended orders.
7 8 9	(2)	The Tribunal must, before a CO, CSO or extended order expires, consider and report to the Minister on the need for an extended order to replace the existing order; see Division 2.
10 11 12 13	(3)	The Supreme Court may, on application by the Minister, make an extended CO or CSO if satisfied that it is necessary on grounds that relate to the protection of the community; see Divisions 5 and 6.
14 15 16	(4)	The Supreme Court may make an interim CO or CSO pending the resolution of an application for an extended CO or CSO; see Division 4.
17 18 19	(5)	An extended CO must be periodically reviewed by the Supreme Court, which must either confirm the order or cancel it; see Division 7.
20 21 22	(6)	If, on an initial application or on review, the Supreme Court is not satisfied that an extended CO is necessary, it may make a CSO instead; see sections 110 and 121.
23 24 25 26		Note for this subsection: Such a CSO is not an extended CSO, and Part 5 (to the extent relevant) applies to the making of the CSO; see sections 110(5) and 121(4).
27 28 29	(7)	Although interim and extended orders are not COs or CSOs as defined, Part 6 applies (to the extent relevant) to such orders; see sections 107(4) 108(4) 109(2) and 113(2)

Tribunal to consider and report on need for extended Division 2 orders s. 101 (8) Part 12 provides for appeals to the Court of Appeal against the 1 making of extended orders and the term of extended COs. 2 (9) A person subject to an interim or extended CO or CSO is a 3 supervised person. 4 101. Nature of court proceedings under Part 5 Proceedings in the Supreme Court under this Part are civil 6 7 proceedings. 102. References to orders include extended orders 8 In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears — 9 a reference to a custody order includes a reference to an 10 extended custody order; and 11 a reference to a community supervision order includes a (b) 12 reference to an extended community supervision order. 13 Division 2 — Tribunal to consider and report on need for 14 extended orders 15 103. Tribunal to consider and report on need for extended 16 custody orders 17 (1) If a supervised person is subject to a custody order with a 18 limiting term of 12 months or more, the Tribunal must, no later 19 than 6 months before the expiry of the order, consider the need 20 for an extended custody order in respect of the person. 21 (2) If a supervised person is subject to a custody order with a 22 limiting term of less than 12 months, the Tribunal must, before 23 the supervised person has been subject to the order for half of 24 the limiting term, consider the need for an extended custody 25 order in respect of the person. 26 (3) The Tribunal must, as soon as practicable, report to the Minister 27 on the need for an extended custody order in respect of the 28 supervised person. 29

s. 104

I	(4)	If the Tribunal is satisfied that it is necessary that an extended
2		custody order be made in respect of the supervised person so as
3		to ensure the adequate protection of the community against an
1		unacceptable risk that the person will commit a serious offence,
5		the Tribunal must recommend in its report that the Minister
6		apply for an extended custody order in respect of the person.

104. Tribunal to consider and report on need for extended community supervision orders

- (1) The Tribunal must, no later than 3 months before the expiry of a community supervision order, consider the need for an extended community supervision order in respect of the supervised person.
 - (2) The Tribunal must, as soon as practicable, report to the Minister on the need for an extended community supervision order in respect of the supervised person.
- (3) If the Tribunal is satisfied that after the expiry of the current community supervision order the supervised person should, to ensure the adequate protection of the community, remain under supervision due to the person's rehabilitation, retraining or resocialisation requirements, the Tribunal must recommend in its report that the Minister apply for an extended community supervision order in respect of the person.

Division 3 — Applications for extended orders

105. Minister may apply for extended order

- (1) The Minister may, after having regard to a report under section 103, apply to the Supreme Court for an extended custody order in respect of the supervised person.
- (2) The Minister may, after having regard to a report under section 104, apply to the Supreme Court for an extended community supervision order in respect of the supervised person.

Part 7

Division 4 s. 106

If the Minister makes an application under this section, the (3) 1 Minister must notify the Tribunal. 2 106. Report to be prepared for application 3 (1) If an application is made for an extended order in respect of a 4 supervised person, the court -5 must order that the person be examined by a 6 psychiatrist, psychologist or other appropriate expert 7 and that a report be prepared and submitted to the court; 8 and 9 (b) may make any related orders it considers appropriate. 10 (2) The Minister must arrange for the examination and report. 11 (3) A report under subsection (2) must set out — 12 in relation to an application for an extended custody 13 order — the expert's assessment of the likelihood that 14 the supervised person will commit a serious offence if 15 not subject to an extended custody order; and 16 the expert's assessment of the supervised person's (b) 17 rehabilitation, retraining or resocialisation requirements; 18 and 19 the reasons for the expert's assessment. (c) 20 (4) Subsection (2) does not prevent — 21 (a) the supervised person from arranging for an examination 22 and report; or 23 the court from considering the report. (b) 24 Division 4 — Interim orders pending determination of 25 applications 26 107. Interim custody orders 27

- (2) If the court is satisfied that, to ensure the adequate protection of the community, it is desirable that the supervised person continue to be subject to a custody order while the application for an extended custody order is yet to be determined, it may make an interim custody order in respect of the person, which has effect until the application for the extended order is determined.
- (3) If, immediately before the current custody order is replaced by an interim custody order, a leave of absence order applies to the supervised person, the leave of absence order continues in effect, according to its terms, to the extent not inconsistent with the interim order.
 - (4) Part 6, to the extent relevant, applies to and in relation to an interim custody order as if it were a custody order, and to any leave of absence order continued under subsection (3).
 - (5) Despite subsection (4), the Tribunal
 - (a) need not comply with a review requirement under Part 6 Division 4, including when exercising a power under section 73; and
 - (b) cannot make a leave of absence order in respect of the interim custody order other than for a short term purpose (for example, receiving medical or dental treatment or cultural or compassionate purposes); and
 - (c) cannot cancel all conditions of a leave of absence order continued under subsection (3) in relation to the interim custody order.

- (2) If the court is satisfied that, to ensure the adequate protection of the community, it is desirable that the supervised person continue to be subject to a community supervision order while the application for an extended community supervision order is yet to be determined, it may make an interim community supervision order in respect of the person, which has effect until the application for the extended order is determined.
- (3) The conditions of the interim community supervision order are those of the community supervision order that it replaces, to the extent not inconsistent with the interim order.
 - (4) Part 6, to the extent relevant, applies to and in relation to an interim community supervision order as if it were a community supervision order.
 - (5) Despite subsection (4), the Tribunal
 - (a) need not comply with a review requirement under Part 6 Division 4, including when exercising a power under section 73; and
 - (b) cannot vary the conditions of the order referred to in section 54; and
 - (c) cannot cancel all conditions of the order.

Division 5 — Making extended custody orders

109. Extended custody orders

(1) An extended custody order is an order that, subject to this Act, a supervised person be detained in custody at a place determined from time to time by the Tribunal under Part 6 Division 3 for the protection of the community.

1	(2)	extended custody order as if it were a custody order.
3	(3)	Despite subsection (2), the Tribunal cannot cancel all conditions

- (3) Before making an extended custody order, the court must be satisfied, by acceptable and cogent evidence and to a high degree of probability, that, to ensure the adequate protection of the community against an unacceptable risk that the supervised person will commit a serious offence, it is necessary to make an extended custody order in respect of the supervised person.
- (4) If the court is not satisfied as to the matter in subsection (3), but is satisfied as to the matter in section 114(2), it may make a community supervision order in respect of the supervised person.
 - (5) Part 5, to the extent relevant, applies to the making of a community supervision order under subsection (4) as if the order were being made under Part 5.
 - (6) For the purposes of subsection (3), a reference to the commission of a serious offence includes a reference to
 - (a) the doing of an act or the making of an omission in any State or Territory that, if done within this State, would constitute a serious offence; and
 - (b) the doing of an act or the making of an omission outside Australia that, if done within this State, would constitute a serious offence.

Part 7 Division 5

s. 111

For the purposes of this section, it makes no difference whether (7) 1 a person doing an act or making an omission referred to in 2 subsection (6) — 3 would be likely to be charged with an offence; or 4 (a) would, if charged with an offence, be found fit to stand (b) 5 trial; or 6 (c) would, if tried for an offence, be convicted. 7 111. Leave of absence orders and conditions carried over 8 (1) If, immediately before a custody order or an interim custody 9 order is replaced by an extended custody order, a leave of 10 absence order is in effect in relation to the custody order or 11 interim custody order, the leave of absence order continues in 12 effect, according to its terms, in relation to the extended order, 13 to the extent not inconsistent with the extended order. 14 (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the leave of absence order being 15 cancelled or its conditions being varied. 16 112. When extended custody order has effect 17 An extended custody order in respect of a supervised person (1) 18 takes effect on the later of the following — 19 the expiration of the current custody order; (a) 20 the day on which the extended order is made. 21 An extended custody order has effect until the earlier of the (2) 22 following -23 its limiting term expires; (a) 24 it is cancelled by an order of the Supreme Court (under

- An extended community supervision order is an order that a supervised person, while residing in the community, must comply with the conditions of the order for the protection of the community.
- Part 6, to the extent relevant, applies to and in relation to an extended community supervision order as if it were a community supervision order.

10 114. Supreme Court may make extended community supervision order

- (1) The Supreme Court may, on application under section 105(2), make an extended community supervision order in respect of the supervised person that is to have effect for the term set by the court.
- (2) Before making an extended community supervision order, the court must be satisfied that, to ensure the adequate protection of the community, the supervised person should remain under supervision due to the person's rehabilitation, retraining or resocialisation requirements.

21 115. Conditions carried over

- 22 (1) The conditions of the extended community supervision order 23 are those of the community supervision order or interim 24 community supervision order that it replaces, to the extent not 25 inconsistent with the extended order.
- 26 (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the Tribunal varying, or cancelling all of, the conditions of the order.

118.	Application by supervised person for review
(1)	A supervised person who is subject to an extended custody order may, with the leave of the court, apply to the Supreme Court for review of the order.
(2)	Before granting leave the court must be satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances.
(3)	 (a) with or without written or oral submissions from the parties to the application; and (b) before or at the hearing of, or when determining, the application for review. If a supervised person makes an application for review under
(4)	subsection (1), the court must immediately give a copy of the application to the Minister and the Tribunal.
119.	Dealing with application for review
(1)	As soon as practicable after an application is made for review of an extended custody order, the court must give directions for the hearing of the application.
(2)	The application must be heard, and the review must be carried out, as soon as practicable, in accordance with any directions given by the court.
(3)	However, the court may adjourn the hearing of the application, and the carrying out of the review, if there is sufficient reason to do so.
120.	Report to be prepared for review
(1)	If an application is made for review of an extended custody order, the court —
	(a) must order that the person be examined by a psychiatrist, psychologist or other appropriate expert

2		and
3		(b) may make any related order it considers appropriate.
4	(2)	The Minister must arrange for the examination and report.
5	(3)	A report under subsection (2) must set out —
6		(a) the expert's assessment of the likelihood that the
7		supervised person will commit a serious offence if not
8		subject to the extended custody order; and
9		(b) the expert's assessment of the supervised person's
10		rehabilitation, retraining or resocialisation requirements;
11		and
12		(c) the reasons for the expert's assessment.
13	(4)	Subsection (2) does not prevent —
14		(a) the supervised person from arranging for an examination
15		and report; or
16		(b) the court from considering the report.
17	121.	Court's powers on review of extended custody order
18	(1)	If, on review of a supervised person's extended custody order,
19		the court is satisfied that there remains an unacceptable risk that
20		the person would commit a serious offence if not subject to the
21		extended order, it must confirm the order.
22	(2)	However, if the court is not so satisfied, it must cancel the order
23	(3)	If the court cancels an extended custody order in respect of a
24		supervised person under subsection (2), it may, if satisfied as to
25		the matter in section 114(2), make a community supervision
26		order in respect of the person.
27	(4)	Part 5, to the extent relevant, applies to the making of a
28		community supervision order under subsection (3) as if the
29		order were being made under Part 5.

Part 8 — Mental health advocacy services for unfit accused and supervised persons

3		Division 1 — Preliminary matters
4	126.	Overview of Part
5 6 7 8	(1)	This Part provides for mental health advocacy services for unfit accused and supervised persons, unless those services can be provided under the Mental Health Act 2014 Part 20 or the Declared Places (Mental Impairment) Act 2015 Part 10.
9		Note for this subsection: See the definitions of —
10 11 12 13		 (a) CLMI identified person in section 127 of this Act; and (b) identified person in the Mental Health Act 2014 section 348; and
14 15		(c) resident in the Declared Places (Mental Impairment) Act 2015 section 3.
16 17 18	(2)	Division 2 provides for access to mental health advocacy and for the right of an unfit accused or supervised person to be visited or contacted by a mental health advocate.
19 20	(3)	Division 3 provides for the functions and powers of the Chief Mental Health Advocate and of mental health advocates.
21 22 23 24 25	(4)	The functions and powers under this Part are similar to, but not the same as, those under the Mental Health Act 2014 or the Declared Places (Mental Impairment) Act 2015 since mental health advocacy under this Part is provided, amongst others, to persons who are detained in a prison or detention centre.
26	127.	Terms used
27		In this Part —
28 29		CLMI identified person means an unfit accused or a supervised person, other than a person who is —

143. Term used

3 In this Division —

victim impact statement, in relation to a victim of an offence, means a statement containing particulars of any bodily harm or psychological or psychiatric harm suffered by the victim as a result of the offence.

8 144. Victim impact statements may be given to court

- (1) A victim of an offence in respect of which a court must make an order under Part 5 may give a victim impact statement to the court to assist the court in determining what order to make.
- (2) If an application for an order under section 89 is made in relation to a supervised person, a victim of an offence committed by the supervised person may give a victim impact statement to the court.
- 16 (3) If because of age, disability or any other reason a victim is 17 incapable of giving a victim impact statement, another person
 18 may give it on the victim's behalf if the court is satisfied that it 19 is appropriate for the other person to do so.
 - (4) A court may rule as inadmissible the whole or any part of a victim impact statement.

145. Content of victim impact statements

- 23 (1) A victim impact statement must not address the way in which or 24 the extent to which the person found to have committed the 25 offence is to be dealt with under this Act.
- 26 (2) A victim impact statement may be accompanied by a report by any person who has treated the victim in connection with the offence.

1	146.	Availability of victim impact statements
2	(1)	A court may make a written victim impact statement available to another person on the conditions it considers appropriate.
4 5 6	(2)	If a court makes a victim impact statement available under subsection (1), it must notify the victim of this as soon as practicable.
7 8 9	(3)	A court must, after making an order under Part 5 or section 89, make available to the Tribunal a copy of any victim impact statement given to the court under section 144.

Part 11 Transfer into and out of the State

Division 3 Transfer of persons to Western Australia

1	205.	Interim dispositions for persons transferred to Western Australia
3	(1)	The interim disposition that the Minister may determine for a person, for the purposes of section 204(1)(b)(ii), is that —
5 6		(a) the person be detained at a place of custody as if the person were subject to a custody order; or
7 8 9		(b) the person be released on conditions determined by the Minister as if the person were subject to a community supervision order.
10 11 12	(2)	Before determining an interim disposition for the person, the Minister must seek the Tribunal's advice about the most appropriate interim disposition for the person.
13 14 15 16 17	(3)	The Minister must not determine an interim disposition under subsection (1)(a) for the person unless, immediately prior to their transfer to the State, the interstate supervision order requires the person to be detained in custody, regardless of whether they are permitted to be on leave (however described) at the time.
19 20	(4)	If the interim disposition is that the person be detained then, on the transfer of the person to the State — (a) the person must be so detained; and
21 22 23		(a) the person must be so detained, and(b) Part 6, to the extent relevant, applies to and in relation to the interim disposition as if it were a custody order.
24 25	(5)	If the interim disposition is that the person be released subject to conditions then, on the transfer of the person to the State —
26 27		(a) the person must be released subject to those conditions; and
28 29 30		(b) Part 6, to the extent relevant, applies to and in relation to the interim disposition as if it were a community supervision order.

1 2	(6)	Despite the application of Part 6 to and in relation to an interim disposition —
3 4 5 6		 (a) the Tribunal need not comply with a review requirement under Part 6 Division 4 in relation to the interim disposition, including when exercising a power under section 73; and
7 8 9		(b) the Tribunal cannot cancel all conditions of the interim disposition or a leave of absence order in respect of the interim disposition.
10	206.	Review of persons transferred to Western Australia
11 12 13	(1)	Within 6 months after a person is transferred to the State under this Division, the Minister must apply to the Supreme Court for review of the interim disposition in respect of the person.
14 15	(2)	The purpose of the review is to determine the appropriate disposition for the person.
16 17	(3)	The court must make 1 of the following orders in respect of the person —
18		(a) a custody order;
19		(b) a community supervision order;
20		(c) an order that the person be released unconditionally.
21 22 23 24 25 26 27	(4)	The court cannot make an order under subsection (3) that is more restrictive on the person's freedom than the interstate supervision order to which the person was subject, unless satisfied, by acceptable and cogent evidence and to a high degree of probability, that it is necessary to do so to ensure the adequate protection of the community against an unacceptable risk that the supervised person will commit a serious offence.
28 29 30	(5)	Part 5, to the extent relevant, applies to the making of a custody order or community supervision order under this section as if the order were being made under Part 5.

For the purposes of subsection (4), a reference to the (6)1 commission of a serious offence includes a reference to — 2 the doing of an act or the making of an omission in any 3 State or Territory that, if done within this State, would 4 constitute a serious offence: and 5 the doing of an act or the making of an omission outside (b) 6 Australia that, if done within this State, would constitute 7 a serious offence. 8 (7) For the purposes of this section, it makes no difference whether 9 a person doing an act or making an omission referred to in 10 subsection (6) — 11 would be likely to be charged with an offence; or (a) 12 would, if charged with an offence, be found fit to stand (b) 13 trial; or 14 (c) would, if tried for an offence, be convicted. 15 207. Limiting term for custody order 16 (1) This section applies if the Supreme Court makes a custody order 17 under section 206(3). 18 When the court sets a limiting term for the custody order under (2) 19 section 50, it is to do so as if — 20 (a) the offence that led to the interstate supervision order 21 being made in respect of the person had been committed 22 in the State; and 23 the maximum penalty for that offence were the (b) 24 maximum penalty attaching to that offence at the date of 25 the person's transfer to the State. 26 If the offence referred to in subsection (2) no longer exists at the (3) 27 date of the person's transfer to the State, the court must — 28 determine whether there is an existing offence, as at that (a) 29 date, with which the person could have been charged

Grounds of appeal 23 The grounds of an appeal are that the deciding court — 24 made an error of law or of fact, or of both law and fact; (a) 25 acted without jurisdiction or in excess of its jurisdiction.

(b)

26

1	216.	Dealing with appeal
2	(1)	An appeal is by way of rehearing.
3	(2)	The Court of Appeal —
4	()	(a) has all the powers and duties of the deciding court; and
5 6		(b) may draw inferences of fact, not inconsistent with the findings of the deciding court; and
7 8 9		(c) may, on special grounds, receive further evidence as to questions of fact, either orally in court, by affidavit, or in another way.
10 11	(3)	When dealing with an appeal, the Court of Appeal may make any order the court considers appropriate.
12 13	(4)	The Court of Appeal, in deciding an appeal, may do 1 of the following —
14		(a) confirm the decision;
15		(b) vary the decision;
16 17		(c) set aside the decision and make any decision that the deciding court could have made in the proceeding;
18 19 20 21 22		(d) set aside the decision and send the matter back to the deciding court for reconsideration, either with or without the hearing of further evidence, in accordance with any directions or recommendations that the court considers appropriate.
23 24 25	(5)	If the Court of Appeal sends the matter back to the deciding court, it may give directions as to the constitution of the deciding court.
26	217.	Appeal does not stay decision
27 28 29	(1)	An appeal against a decision does not affect the operation of the decision or prevent the taking of action to implement the decision unless the Court of Appeal orders otherwise.

Division 2 Appeals to Court of Appeal

s.	21	8
----	----	---

1 2	(2)	Without limiting subsection (1), the Court of Appeal may do either or both of the following —
3 4 5		(a) by order, stay the operation of a decision pending the determination of an application for leave to appeal against the decision and of any appeal;
6 7 8 9		(b) if the final determination of the appeal might result in an order that a supervised person be detained in custody — order that the person be detained in custody until the determination of the appeal.
10	218.	Effect of decisions made on, or as a consequence of, appeal
11 12 13	(1)	The fact that a decision is made on reconsideration as required under section 216(4)(d), does not prevent the decision from being open to appeal under this Part.
14 15	(2)	The rest of this section applies to, or in relation to, a decision (the original decision) described in section 214(1) or (2).
16 17 18	(3)	The original decision as confirmed or varied by the Court of Appeal under this Part, or a decision of the Court of Appeal substituted under this Part for the original decision —
19 20		(a) is to be regarded as, and has effect as, a decision of the deciding court; and
21 22 23 24		(b) unless the Court of Appeal orders otherwise, is to be regarded as having effect, or having had effect, from the time when the original decision would have, or would have had, effect.
25 26	(4)	Despite subsection (3)(a), the decision as confirmed, varied or substituted is not again open to appeal under this Part.

- 5 (2) The warrant has effect as if it were a warrant issued by the Tribunal under section 82(1)(a) or 184(2) (as is relevant).

7 Subdivision 5 — Setting limiting term for existing custody orders

260. Application of this Subdivision

This Subdivision applies to and in relation to an existing custody order.

261. Application to set limiting term

- (1) As soon as practicable after commencement day, the Director of Public Prosecutions must apply to the court that made the existing custody order for the court to set a limiting term for the order.
- 16 (2) The court must hear and determine the application as soon as practicable.
- 18 (3) The Director of Public Prosecutions need not comply with 19 subsection (1) while the person subject to the existing custody 20 order is not a resident of the State.
- 21 (4) This section does not apply if section 262 applies to the existing custody order.

23 262. Limiting term in cases of murder and manslaughter

(1) If the person subject to the existing custody order is subject to it because they were acquitted, on account of unsoundness of mind, of murder or manslaughter, the limiting term for the order is the duration of the life of the person, and that term has effect as if set by a court under section 50.

1 2 3	(2)	The person or the Director of Public Prosecutions may apply to the court that made the existing custody order for the court to set a limiting term for the order.
4	263.	Procedural matters
5 6 7	(1)	If an application is made under section 261 or 262, the court must give the person subject to the existing custody order, the Director of Public Prosecutions, the CEO and the Tribunal —
8		(a) a copy of the application; and
9 10		(b) written notice of the date, time and place of the hearing of the application.
11 12 13 14	(2)	If the person subject to the existing custody order or the Director of Public Prosecutions is given notice under subsection (1)(b) but does not attend the hearing, the court may, as it considers appropriate —
15		(a) proceed with the hearing; or
16		(b) adjourn the hearing.
17 18 19 20 21 22	(3)	As soon as practicable after receiving notice under subsection (1), the CEO must give written notice of the application to each victim of the offence in respect of which the existing custody order was made (the offence) who has notified the CEO that they wish to receive notice of such applications or review proceedings in relation to the person subject to the existing custody order.
24 25	(4)	A victim may nominate a person to receive notice on their behalf.
26 27	(5)	Notice to a victim who is a child must be given to a parent of the child and any guardian of the child.
28 29 30	(6)	A victim of the offence may do 1 or both of the following — (a) give a victim impact statement to the court of the kind described in Part 9 Division 2;

Part 14 Repeals and transitional provisions

Division 2 Transitional provisions for Criminal Law (Mental Impairment) Act 2022

s. 264

- 1 (b) make a submission to the court of the kind described in Part 9 Division 4.
 - (7) Part 9, with the necessary modifications, applies, for the purposes of proceedings under this Division, to a statement or submission under subsection (6).
 - (8) A close family member or carer of the person subject to the existing custody order may make a submission to the court in relation to the treatment, care and support of the person, and section 22(3) to (5) apply in relation to the submission as if it were made under that section.
 - (9) The validity of a decision of a court is not affected by a failure to notify a victim in accordance with this section.

264. Court to set limiting term

- (1) If an application is made under section 261, the court must set a limiting term for the existing custody order under section 50.
- (2) If an application is made under section 262, the court may set a limiting term for the existing custody order under section 50 that is not the duration of the life of the person if satisfied that
 - (a) a life term would be clearly unjust given the circumstances of the offence and the person; and
 - (b) the person is unlikely to be a threat to the safety of the community when released from custody.
- (3) The limiting term is taken to have commenced on the day on which the existing custody order was made unless the court, after taking into account any time that the person had spent in custody in relation to the offence before the order was made, orders that the term be taken to have commenced on an earlier day.

1 2	265.	Where person subject to existing custody order has been, or soon will have been, in custody longer than limiting term
3 4 5	(1)	This section applies to and in relation to an existing custody order for which a limiting term is set under section 264 if the limiting term —
6 7		(a) expires on or before the day on which the limiting term is set; or
8 9		(b) will expire within 6 months after the day on which the limiting term is set.
10 11 12 13 14 15	(2)	If the limiting term of the existing custody order expires on a day that is earlier than the day on which the limiting term is set, the existing custody order continues, on and after the day on which the limiting term expires (whether that day is before, or is or is after commencement day), until an order is made under subsection (4)(a) or (6).
16 17 18 19 20 21	(3)	If the limiting term of the existing custody order expires on the day on which the limiting term is set, or after that day but before an order is made under subsection (4)(a) or (6), the existing custody order continues, on and after the day on which the limiting term expires, until an order is made under subsection (4)(a) or (6).
22 23 24 25 26 27	(4)	If the proceedings under section 264 are in a court other than the Supreme Court, the court must — (a) make an order discharging the person from the existing custody order; or (b) make an order referring the matter to the Supreme Court to be dealt with under subsection (6).
28 29 30 31 32	(5)	The court must adjourn proceedings under subsection (4) until the Minister informs the court that — (a) the Minister intends to apply to the Supreme Court for an extended custody order under Part 7 Division 5; or (b) such an application will not be made.

Division 2 Transitional provisions for Criminal Law (Mental Impairment) Act 2022 s. 266 If the proceedings under section 264 are in the Supreme Court, (6) 1 or the matter is referred to it under subsection (4), the Supreme 2 Court must — 3 make an order discharging the person from the existing 4 (a) custody order; or 5 make an order under Part 7 Division 5. (b) 6 (7) The court must adjourn proceedings under subsection (6) until 7 the Minister — 8 applies to the court for an extended custody order under (a) 9 Part 7 Division 5: or 10 (b) informs the court that such an application will not be 11 made. 12 (8) The Minister may, for the purposes of subsection (7), require 13 the Tribunal to report, under section 103, on the need for an 14 extended custody order in respect of the person subject to the 15 existing custody order. 16 (9) An order under subsection (4)(a) or (6) has effect — 17 (a) unless paragraph (b) applies — on the day on which the 18 order is made; or 19 if the limiting term for the existing custody order expires (b) 20 after the day on which the order is made — when the 21 limiting term for the existing custody order expires. 22 (10)Part 12 has effect as if the list of decisions in section 214(2) 23 included a decision under subsection (4)(a) or (6)(a) to 24 discharge a person from an existing custody order. 25
