My children attend Albany Senior High School and i have been rejected for my travel because a bus to perth goes past our local town within 56km. For my children to do this they must get on the bus in either Hyden or Kondinin travel to Perth then stay overnight with no adult supervision then get on a new bus he next day to travel to albany. My closest local government boarding school does not have a bus service at all.