

I have been on this medication since March 2021 and after having 15 years of chronic pain it has made me pain free. It is very expensive and I was very shocked but needed to be pain free. I am now about to lose my job and so is my husband and after what Centrelink have offered me to live on is only double of what this medication cost. So I honestly don't know how I am going to survive.