

No offence intended.

We have the chance to turn the pages over
We can write what we want to write
We gotta make ends meet before we get much older
We're all someone's daughter
We're all someone's son
How long can we look at each other down the barrel of a gun
You're the voice try and understand it
Make a noise & make it clear
Oh whoa
We're not going to sit in silence
We're not going to live with fear
Oh whoa
This time, we know we all can stand together
With the power to be powerful
Believing we can make it better.

A sovereign remedy for all ills.

Do not eat Grain, Dairy or GMO foods, ever!
Eat raw hemp seed.

Eat fruit & plants that produce seed.

I give you every herb bearing seed. Which is upon the face of all the earth, & every tree in which is fruit yielding seed, to you it shall be for meat.

(replace meat with fruit, hemp seeds)

Meat,

Food.

The essential part. (of an argument.) CRUX. (where nodes, flower seed originate)

Solid or substantial component.

An archaic word for meal.

Boil you water.

Boiled water.

5 loaves (five leaves) & 2 fishes. Salmon (see all mind) & holy mackerel. (make real.)

Every other living creature I give every green plant.

"Some debate whether it's the same tree."

There were 3 important plants. The Grass plant, The Male Hemp Plant & the Female Hemp plant.

There was confusion in the garden of weed in, because of all our synonyms (sins on im)

Eve was supposed to eat one plant, the female hemp plant & its seed.

Or the hermaphrodite plant & its seed.

The tree of life, "With" the tree of Knowledge. (together, in one)

THCa (plant) ALA (seed)

But Eve was deceived and confused. She ate 2 different Plants. The male hemp plant & the seed of the grass plant.

Grain made her in pain & unable to remember.

Evil = Eve ill.

Grain said to the woman,

I will make your pains in childbirth very severe; with painful labour you will give birth to children.

Your desire will be for your husband & he will rule over you.

To Adam,

Cursed is the ground because of you; through painful toil you will eat food from it all the days of your life. It will produce thorns & thistles for you, & you will eat plants & dig the field. By the sweat of your brow you shall eat food.

Because you ate this, (grain) cursed you are above all other livestock & all other animals.

Confusion between two different plants known as grass. Grain grass & cannabis grass.

Confusion between two different oils known as hemp oil.

Hemp oil from plant & hemp oil from seed.

Cooked & raw also two different things known by the same name.

Grain kills our ability to "see" synonyms.

But of the tree of *Knowledge, THCa also known as *Grass (AKA Grain) you shall not eat, for on the day that you eat of it you will surely (slowly) die. Cursed is the ground because of you, in pain you shall eat of it (grain) all the days of your life.

Tree of Knowledge = THCa AKA, Grass/Hemp "you will certainly not die" he says.

For God knows that when you eat of it (THCa) your eyes will be opened & you will be like God, knowing good & evil.

Satan,

Seitan: Vegan meat substitute, washed wheat dough; Gluten.

Satan is gluten.

Serpent: Supplant = To eradicate, to supply a substitute for, to supplant the vernacular = Language.

Serpent person: CT A wily or treacherous person.

The Latin root is sepentem, "creeping thing," from sepentem, "to creep"

Bible meaning: It can represent death, destruction, evil, (Eve ill) a penetrating legless essence & or poison.

In Christian tradition, Satan (Seitan = Gluten) (in the guise of the serpent) instigated the fall by tricking Eve into breaking God's command. Do not eat grain. Eat hemp seed & plant.

Thus the serpent can represent temptation, the devil, & deceit.

Dogs & cats eat grass to make them puke.

Grain = pain.

Gluten: Glutton (makes you eat more)

William Davis, author of Wheat Belly - argues that wheat (& not just the gluten protein in wheat), actually augments your appetite causing you to eat more.

With gluten intolerance, your body has trouble absorbing the protein gluten that's found in wheat, barley, & rye. As you continue to eat these foods you may have a wide array of digestive problems (delayed food sensitivity, AKA fibromyalgia Crohn's ect.) - Weight Gain being one of them. Gluten intolerance can cause gas, cramping, bloating, diarrhoea, & constipation.

Man should not live by bread (leave it) alone.

Man alone should not live by bread.

Grains contain a substance called phytic acid which can bind to minerals such as iron, calcium and zinc in the intestines, preventing their absorption.

Low levels of Zinc, iron B vitamins, magnesium, vitamins n D & Omega 3 fatty acids (3,6 & 9, hemp) are associated with worsening mood & decreased energy. Too much refined carbohydrates cause blood sugar to rise & fall rapidly.

Refined grains are high in carbs that get digested & absorbed very quickly, leading to rapid spikes in blood sugar & subsequently hunger & cravings. They are linked to obesity & many metabolic diseases.

Sprouted grains, which is the category Ezekiel Bread falls under, are usually considered to be a healthier option but still can be a problem. Sprouted whole wheat contains the highest amount of Lectin and also contains benzoxazinoids, which are known to be toxic.

Do grains cause dementia? white breads, pasta processed meats and cheeses, all these have been linked to Alzheimer's disease. Some experts have even found that whole grain breads are as bad as white breads because they spike blood sugar, which causes inflammation.

Excerpt from "This is your Brain on Gluten."

"All neurodegenerative diseases are really predicted on inflammation.Who knew?"

He is not joking when he says that carbohydrates, even the whole grain carbs that many of us think of as the good ones, are the cause of almost every modern neurologic malady. That includes dementia, decreased libido, depression, chronic headaches, anxiety, epilepsy, & ADHD.

Too many carbs in our diet, says one expert, are spurting dementia & a national Alzheimer's crisis.

Gluten & Irritability,

According to ADDitude, gluten is another of the food triggers that can lead to bad behaviour in kids..Gluten is mostly found in wheat, which means most types of bread,cereal, & crackers contain this common ingredient.Hyperactivity & food with gluten seem to go hand in hand in children with some sensitivity to this food.Gluten can cause irritability & aggressive behaviours.

Triggers for bad behaviour,

Sugar (cane sugar)

Processed foods

Gluten

MSG

Chocolate & mushrooms.

Shakes & Smoothies.(milk)

Some suppose that gluten & casein (Dairy) can worsen autism symptoms by causing inflammation in the gut that spreads to the brain.

What happens if you don't eat Grain

A grain free diet may reduce inflammation, aid weight loss & improve digestion & blood sugar levels. It also may promote mental health & alleviate pain in people with fibromyalgia (delayed food sensitivity) or endometriosis.

Seeds are a great source of fibre. They also contain healthy monounsaturated fats, polyunsaturated fats & many important vitamins, minerals & antioxidants. Seeds can help reduce blood pressure, cholesterol & blood pressure.

The seed of God. (good, X hemp.)

Some studies show that ALA (seed) may have health benefits including inflammation, aiding weight loss & lowering the risk of heart disease.

ALA may help symptoms of peripheral neuropathy, nerve damage that can be caused by diabetes. In Europe, ALA has been used for years to provide relief from pain, burning, tingling & numbness caused by diabetic neuropathy.

For gout victims, this means relief from their flare ups as well as overall improvements in Inflammation & pain. Clinical trials & scientific publications in recent years have proven what people have known for centuries: that cannabis is a remarkably potent anti-inflammatory.

In one study, CBD didn't improve blood sugar & lipid levels in people with type 2 diabetes but a variety of THC did (THCa?) lower insulin resistance & boost gut hormone levels.

Studies have shown that hemp

(seed) oil can help calm an upset stomach & manage nausea.

Helps keep food down & avoids getting dehydrated & malnourished.

Ongoing investigations have demonstrated that cannabinoids have good anti-inflammatory properties. This implies that hemp oil will have an immediate & direct effect on any inflammation based health problems, for example, joint pain due to arthritis, rheumatoid joint inflammation, osteoarthritis & some more.

Dairy & behaviour issues,

Food for the brain reports that dairy is the most common food allergy among children, & for those who have ADHD, hyperactivity & food with dairy products seem to be associated with each other. This means that some children act out more than usual after consuming milk, cheese, yoghurt or other food with lots of dairy. Kids With a dairy sensitivity often become congested, bloated, & tired, but those are just the physical symptoms. They might become irritable, depressed, anxious & unable to concentrate.

Research has found casein can promote inflammation in mice. This has led some experts to question whether or not going on a casein free diet may be beneficial for people with disorders worsened by inflammation, such as autism, fibromyalgia, & arthritis. Studies are ongoing, & some people have found that cutting out casein improves the symptoms of some problems.

GMO foods contain more Lectin.

Certain types of lectins can prevent your body from absorbing other substances that have nutritional value. This can eventually lead to serious problems such as malnutrition. Some sources of lectins are considered seriously poisonous. Castor Beans, for example, contain a potent lectin position called ricin. Ricin is a deadly poison.

They've become the dietary du jour:

Lectins -A type of protein found in many foods but especially prominent in grains & beans - are being blamed for a variety of health problems from digestive distress & skin irritations to brain fog, chronic fatigue & inflammation.

Toxicity: Genetically engineered goods are inherently unstable.

Allergic reactions.

Antibiotic Resistance.

Immuno - suppression.

Cancer.

Loss of nutrition.

The lectin sensitivity test scores are used to assess sensitivity to 16 high lectin foods & 7: high aquaporin foods. Some risk factors associated with lectin sensitivity include. History of joint pain or rheumatoid arthritis. Experiencing fatigue or tiredness.

Symptoms can include: Skin rashes, joint pain, & general inflammation , Ingesting lectins can cause flatulence as legumes & grains in their raw form can even result in nausea, diarrhoea & vomiting, indeed, researchers speculate that many apparent causes of bacterial food poisoning may actually be lectin poisoning.

Hemp seeds are naturally in the unique no lectin group, so you can trust that your hemp protein powder & other hemp products will be lectin -free. When lectins are found in seeds most of this will be in the hull of the seeds.

Humans share more than 50 % of their genetic information with plants & animals in general. They share about 80 %with cows & 61% with bugs such as fruit flies. You'll even find human DNA in a Banana - about 60%.

Scientists were able to modify the plant's protein manufacturing system so that it now makes a protein that wasn't previously present. This carefully selected protein is one that is toxic to certain insects, basically they eat it & their stomach ruptures.

If it's killing them, it's killing us too.

Bt ((Bacillus thuringiensis) is a Bactrim found in soils throughout the world & it naturally produces crystal-like proteins (CRY proteins) that selectively kill a few specific insect species. Bt corn, Aka: transgenic corn is corn that has been modified to produce the insecticidal proteins Cry that occur naturally in Bt.

Anointing oil,

There is no healing power in the oil. The power comes from God (X, Hemp, ALA,THCa)

What you eat won't change the sequence of your DNA, but your diet has a profound effect on how you "express" the possibilities encoded in your DNA. The food you eat can turn on or off certain genetic markers which play a major - & even life or death - role in your health outcomes.

Environmental factors such as food, drugs, or exposure to toxins can cause epigenetic changes by altering the way molecules bind to DNA or changing the structure of proteins that DNA wraps around.

HEMP SEED - PROTEIN - OIL

Hemp seeds are the seeds of the hemp plant, Cannabis sativa.

They are from the same species as cannabis but a different variety.

Hemp seeds are exceptionally nutritious and rich in healthy fats, protein and various minerals.

*Amino acids are organic compounds that combine to form proteins. Amino acids and proteins are the building blocks of life. When proteins are digested or broken down, amino acids are left. The human body uses amino acids to make proteins to help the body:

Break down food - Grow - Repair body tissue - Perform many other body functions

Amino acids can also be used as a source of energy by the body.

Amino acids are classified into three groups:

1. Essential amino acids
2. Nonessential amino acids
3. Conditional amino acids

ESSENTIAL AMINO ACIDS

Essential amino acids cannot be made by the body. As a result, they must come from food.

The 9 essential amino acids are: histidine, isoleucine, leucine, lysine, methionine, phenylalanine, threonine, tryptophan, and valine.

NONESSENTIAL AMINO ACIDS

Nonessential means that our bodies produce an amino acid, even if we do not get it from the food we eat. Nonessential amino acids include: alanine, arginine, asparagine, aspartic acid, cysteine, glutamic acid, glutamine, glycine, proline, serine, and tyrosine.

CONDITIONAL AMINO ACIDS

Conditional amino acids are usually not essential, except in times of illness and stress.

Conditional amino acids include: arginine, cysteine, glutamine, tyrosine, glycine, ornithine, proline, and serine."

summary:

essential amino acids: histidine, isoleucine, leucine, lysine, methionine, phenylalanine, threonine, tryptophan, and valine.

Conditional Amino Acids essential in times of illness and stress: arginine, cysteine, glutamine, tyrosine, glycine, serine, proline, and ornithine

Amino acid profile of hemp

The ideal way to ensure that your body has enough amino acids available to make the globulins is to eat diet having high concentration of globulin proteins. As hemp seed protein is 60% globulin edistin, and also includes amount of albumin, its protein is easily available in a form akin to that present in blood plasma.

Consumption of hemp protein provides the body with all the essential amino acids needed to maintain robust health, and gives the requisite variety and amounts of amino acids the body should have in order to make human serum albumin and serum globulins such as the immunity boosting gamma globulins.

Consuming hemp protein supplement could greatly help, if not heal, patients suffering from immune deficiency diseases. This is supported by the fact that hemp seed was used to treat nutritional decay brought on by tuberculosis, a potentially fatal nutrition blocking disease You causes the body to waste away.

Hempseed protein is a remarkably rich source of the two essential fatty acids (EFAs) alpha-linolenic acid (18:3 omega-3) and linoleic acid (18:2 omega-6).

The relative amount of omega-6 to omega-3 (n6/n3) in hempseed is usually between 2:1 and 3:1, which is considered to be most favorable for human health. Furthermore, biological by products or metabolites of the two essential fatty acids, stearidonic acid (18:4 omega-3; 'SDA') and gamma-linolenic acid (18:3 omega-6;'GLA') are also present in hemp protein.

The two chief proteins in hemp are edestin and albumin. These high-quality storage proteins and contain nutritionally significant amounts of all essential amino acids and are easily digested. Hemp protein also has remarkably high levels of the amino acid arginine. Hemp has been used to cure several disorders for thousands of years in ancient oriental medicine (9, 10).

Hemp is not the only plant based protein source having all the essential amino acids in its embryonic seed. Protein derived from flax seeds also has all the essential amino acids as do many other seeds in the plant kingdom. What is exceptional about hemp seed protein is that 65% of it is composed of globulin edistin. That makes it unique and highest in the plant kingdom.

When assessing amino acid profile of the protein fragment, hemp appears to consist of (mg/g):

Aspartate 1.35 +/- 0.23%: non essential Amino Acids

- Aspartate (the conjugate base of aspartic acid) stimulates NMDA receptors

Glutamine 1.73 +/- 0.32%  Conditional Amino Acid essential in times of illness or stress.

- Glutamine is the most abundant naturally occurring, nonessential amino acid in the human body, and one of the few amino acids that can directly cross the blood–brain barrier.[7] Humans obtain glutamine through catabolism of proteins in foods they eat.[17] In states where tissue is being built or repaired, like growth of babies, or healing from wounds or severe illness, glutamine becomes conditionally essential.[17]

Serine 6.03 +/- 1.24%  Conditional Amino Acid essential in times of illness or stress.

- The classification of L-serine as a non-essential amino acid has come to be considered as conditional, since vertebrates such as humans cannot always synthesize optimal quantities over entire lifespans.[24] L-serine is in a FDA-approved human clinical trial as a possible treatment for Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis, ALS (ClinicalTrials.gov identifier: NCT01835782)

Glycine 1.59 +/- 0.32%  Conditional Amino Acid essential in times of illness or stress.

- The principal function of glycine is as a precursor to proteins. Most proteins incorporate only small quantities of glycine, a notable exception being collagen, which contains about 35% glycine due to its periodically repeated role in the formation of collagen's helix structure in conjunction with hydroxyproline.

Valine 1.91 +/- 0.30% *essential Amino Acid

Dietary valine is essential for hematopoietic stem cell (HSC) self-renewal, as demonstrated by experiments in mice.[18] Dietary valine restriction selectively depletes long-term repopulating HSC in mouse bone marrow

Abstract

Self-renewal is the process by which stem cells divide to make more stem cells, perpetuating the stem cell pool throughout life. Self-renewal is division with maintenance of the undifferentiated state. This requires cell cycle control and often maintenance of multipotency or pluripotency, depending on the stem cell. Self-renewal programs involve networks that balance proto-oncogenes (promoting self-renewal), gate-keeping tumor suppressors (limiting self-renewal), and care-taking tumor suppressors (maintaining genomic integrity). These cell-intrinsic mechanisms are regulated by cell-extrinsic signals from the niche, the microenvironment that maintains stem cells and regulates their function in tissues. In response to changing tissue demands, stem cells undergo changes in cell cycle status and developmental potential over time, requiring different self-renewal programs at different stages of life. Reduced stem cell function and tissue regenerative capacity during aging are caused by changes in self-renewal programs that augment tumor suppression. Cancer arises from mutations that inappropriately activate self-renewal programs.

Proline 1.66 +/- 0.35% proline

Alanine 1.61 +/- 0.32%  non essential Amino Acid

In mammals, alanine plays a key role in glucose–alanine cycle between tissues and liver. In muscle and other tissues that degrade amino acids for fuel, amino groups are collected in the form of glutamate by transamination. Glutamate can then transfer its amino group to pyruvate, a product of muscle glycolysis, through the action of alanine aminotransferase, forming alanine and α -ketoglutarate. The alanine enters the bloodstream, and is transported to the liver. The alanine aminotransferase reaction takes place in reverse in the liver, where the regenerated pyruvate is used in gluconeogenesis, forming glucose which returns to the muscles through the circulation system.

Leucine 2.35 +/- 0.45% *essential Amino Acid

Threonine 2.66 +/- 0.67% *essential Amino Acid

Cysteine 0.70 +/- 0.15%  Conditional Amino Acid essential in times of illness or stress.

- cysteine is a building block of the powerful antioxidant glutathione

Phenylalanine 1.62 +/- 0.30% *essential Amino Acid

- Phenylalanine is an amino acid, a "building block" of protein.

Omega-3 fatty acids are good for your heart in several ways. They help:

Reduce triglycerides, a type of fat in your blood

Reduce the risk of developing an irregular heartbeat (arrhythmia)

Slow the buildup of plaque, a substance comprising fat, cholesterol, and calcium, which can harden and clog your arteries

Slightly lower your blood pressure

Omega-6 fatty acids may help:

Control your blood sugar

Reduce your risk for diabetes

Lower your blood pressure

Vitamins in Hemp Seed Oil?

We know hemp seed oil is a wonder oil. Its known for its anti-inflammatory properties, amino acids, essential fatty acids and antioxidants. But what about vitamins? Does this wonder oil's magic extend to providing vitamins to help maintain our health and well-being? And if hemp seed oil does contain vitamins, what are they? Well, read on, we have the answers to all your questions below.

Hemp Seed Oil Source: medicalnewstoday.com

Yes, there are vitamins in hemp seed oil

The good news is that the magic of hemp seed oil continues. Hemp seed oil is jam packed full of vitamins that are essential to our good health and keeping our bodies in tip top condition.

What vitamins are found in hemp seed oil?

Well, it turns out hemp seed oil has quite a range of vitamins in its arsenal. Firstly, it is a great source of B vitamins. These are:

Thiamine

Hemp seed oil contains thiamine, or vitamin B1, which supports metabolism in the cells of our bodies. This converts carbohydrates and amino acids into energy. Thiamine also plays a critical role in heart, muscle and nervous system health.

Riboflavin

Our wonder oil also contains riboflavin, known as vitamin B2. Like thiamine, riboflavin also plays a critical role in creating energy in our bodies. But this vitamin goes further in supporting healthy function in our body's growth, vision, reproductive system, production of red blood cells and skin health.

Niacin

Niacin is also contained in hemp seed oil. Known as vitamin B3, niacin helps manage cholesterol levels and avoid or reduce cardiovascular problems.

Pyridoxine

Pyridoxine is more commonly known as vitamin B6, and you guessed it, is found in hemp seed oil. Like its earlier B counterparts, pyridoxine helps in turning food into energy in our bodies.

Folate

We all know folate, also known as vitamin B9 or folic acid, is essential to development and growth of little people during pregnancy. But in adults it also helps develop healthy blood cells, synthesize DNA and RNA, maintain normal cell division in our bodies, develop psychological functions and maintain normal metabolism in the immune system and reduce fatigue. Folate also helps to reduce the risk of heart disease and protect against cancer development.

Other vitamins

But the vitamins contained in hemp seed oil do not stop with the B family, the oil also contains vitamins E and carotene.

Vitamin E is well known for its antioxidants. It's also well known for its anti-aging properties and included in many skincare products. However less known are its benefits in helping to prevent heart disease, support our immune systems to function properly, reduce inflammation in our bodies, support eye health and reduce the risk of cancer. It's definitely something we all want to include in our diets.

In addition to the bouncing B vitamins, and ever-needed E vitamin, hemp seed oil also contains carotene, which our bodies convert into vitamin A. Vitamin A supports healthy skin and mucus membranes throughout our bodies. It's also a key ingredient to a healthy immune system and great for eye and vision health.
