Subject: END OF LIFE CHOICES

I offer the following opinion in the hope that it might provide some support to the pro-euthanasia lobby, and in so doing help bring this matter to a satisfactory conclusion -

"In years to come, historians will look back on these times with astonishment, disbelief and disgust at the inhumanity of our society, where those suffering from debilitating pain, incurable diseases and/or daily humiliation are denied the choice to end their unbearable lives, for reasons that are tenuous at best and downright cruel at worst."

Sincerely,
Will Hepburn
