

I'm unsure of the procedures undertaken to employ bus drivers or the selection criteria used, however I would like to see that all employed bus drivers have had at least 1 years experience of working with children. Driving a bus is not simply a driving job. If bus drivers have had no prior experience of working with children, they are unable to cope with a bus full of children, it's that simple. One of my children has been bullied for 4 years by a bus driver who cannot cope and outwardly appears to dislike children. A review of the criteria behind the employment of bus drivers needs to occur.
