

I would like the committee to consider making organ and tissue donation an opt out system rather than have people apply to be a donor.