67. Mr M. McGowan to the Minister for Environment:

I refer to the Government's plans to break up the Department of Environment and Conservation and I ask:

- (a) will the Climate Change Unit continue to exist;
- (b) if yes to (a):
 - (i) in which of the new agencies will it be located;
 - (ii) what will be its Full Time Equivalent staffing allocation;
 - (iii) what will be its annual operating budget; and
 - (iv) what will be its functions;
- (c) if no to (a):
 - (i) will there be an agency or unit to coordinate the State Government's response or activities, and if not why not;
 - (ii) if yes, what will that agency or unit be called and under which other agency will it be located; and
 - (iii) if no, who will implement the recently released Climate Change Strategy, Adapting to our Changing Climate?

68. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Minister for Energy:

I refer to the Minister's media comments reported in The West Australian dated 11 April 2013 stating that the real question is what kind of market structure and incentives, three, four or five years down the track will there be to encourage providers not only to build and sell power to Synergy, but to take more of the market risk, and I ask:

- (a) what kind of market structure and incentives will there be on 1 July 2015 to encourage private investors not only to build and sell to Synergy, but to take more of the market risk;
- (b) are these market structures and incentives contained in a set of published rules or other documents;
- (c) if yes to (b) are these available to the community, including investors, and if so, from where are they available; and
- (d) if yes to (b) what is the title(s) of these rules or other documents, who is their author and what are they dated?

69. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Minister for Energy:

I refer to the Minister's media comments reported in The West Australian dated 11 April 2013 stating that the real question is what kind of market structure and incentives, three, four or five years down the track will there be to encourage providers not only to build and sell power to Synergy, but to take more of the market risk, and I ask:

- (a) what kind of market structure and incentives will there be on 1 July 2016 to encourage private investors not only to build and sell to Synergy, but to take more of the market risk;

- (b) are these market structures and incentives contained in a set of published rules or other documents;
- (c) if yes to (b) are these available to the community, including investors, and if so, from where are they available; and
- (d) if yes to (b) what is the title(s) of these rules or other documents, who is their author and what are they dated?

70. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Minister for Energy:

I refer to the Minister's media comments reported in The West Australian dated 11 April 2013 stating that the real question is what kind of market structure and incentives, three, four or five years down the track will there be to encourage providers not only to build and sell power to Synergy, but to take more of the market risk, and I ask:

- (a) what kind of market structure and incentives will there be on 1 July 2017 to encourage private investors not only to build and sell to Synergy, but to take more of the market risk;
- (b) are these market structures and incentives contained in a set of published rules or other documents;
- (c) if yes to (b) are these available to the community, including investors, and if so, from where are they available; and
- (d) if yes to (b) what is the title(s) of these rules or other documents, who is their author and what are they dated?

71. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Minister for Energy:

I refer to the Minister's media comments reported in The West Australian dated 11 April 2013 stating that the real question is what kind of market structure and incentives, three, four or five years down the track will there be to encourage providers not only to build and sell power to Synergy, but to take more of the market risk, and I ask:

- (a) what kind of market structure and incentives will there be on 1 July 2018 to encourage private investors not only to build and sell to Synergy, but to take more of the market risk;
- (b) are these market structures and incentives contained in a set of published rules or other documents;
- (c) if yes to (b) are these available to the community, including investors, and if so, from where are they available; and
- (d) if yes to (b) what is the title(s) of these rules or other documents, who is their author and what are they dated?

72. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Minister for Energy:

I refer to the Minister's media release dated 10 April 2013 entitled Major Reform for State's Energy Sector, and I ask:

- (a) has the Minister received any briefings from the Public Utilities Office regarding the potential merger of Verve and Synergy; and
- (b) if yes to (a):
 - (i) when were these briefing(s) held;
 - (ii) who was present during the briefing(s);
 - (iii) were minutes kept by either the Minister or any of his staff; and
 - (iv) were minutes kept by anyone from the Public Utilities Office?

73. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Premier:

I refer to the Premier's media release dated 10 April 2013 headed Changes to Machinery of Government, and I ask:

- (a) can the Premier please provide the specific title, date and author of any reports, documents, studies or other information that has been provided to him that demonstrates that the current structure in the South West Integrated System has created a series of unintended and highly inefficient outcomes which has contributed to higher electricity costs;
- (b) will these reports, documents, studies or other information be tabled; and
- (c) what are these series of unintended and highly inefficient outcomes which has contributed to higher electricity costs?

74. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Minister for Energy:

I refer to the Minister's media comments reported in The West Australian dated 11 April 2013 stating that Western Australia needs a market where the State gets out of generation, and I ask:

- (a) does the Minister have a market structure to allow the State to get out of generating electricity;
- (b) if yes to (a), is this market structure included in a document, and if so, what is the name of this document, who is its author, what is it dated and will it be tabled;
- (c) does a market where the State gets out of generation include the proposed Synergy, as included in the Minister's media release of 10 April 2013 entitled Major Reform for State's Energy Sector, which combines all the assets of the current Verve and Synergy; and
- (d) if no to (c), what is the Minister's plan to transition from merging Verve and Synergy during 2013 and the market he states we need?

75. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Premier:

I refer to your media release dated 10 April 2013 headed Changes to machinery of Government, and I ask:

- (a) can the Premier please provide the specific title, date and author of any reports, documents, studies or other information that has been provided to the Premier that demonstrates that the current structure in the South West Integrated System has resulted in a lack of longer-term planning on electricity market requirements, including energy security; and
- (b) will these reports, documents, studies or other information be tabled?

76. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Minister for Energy:

I refer to the Minister's media release dated 10 April 2013 entitled Major Reform for State's Energy Sector, and I ask:

- (a) what is the total value of the assets of Verve;
- (b) what is the total value of the assets of Synergy;
- (c) is there a detailed cost/benefit analysis of the merger of Verve and Synergy;
- (d) if yes to (c), what is the name of this document, when was this document presented to the Minister, who is the author of this document and will the Minister table this document; and
- (e) if there is no cost/benefit analysis, what is the basis of the claim that the changes to Verve and Synergy would deliver improved efficiencies in electricity delivery?

77. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Premier:

I refer to the Premier's media release dated 10 April 2013 headed Changes to Machinery of Government, and specifically to the Premier's view that there has been a lack of longer-term planning on electricity market requirements, including energy security, and I ask:

- (a) is longer-term planning on electricity market requirements, including energy security, a duty of the Minister for Energy;
- (b) was this a requirement on the former Minister for Energy during the period of the first Government, September 2008 to March 2013;
- (c) is longer-term planning on electricity market requirements, including energy security, an issue that should have been included in the Strategic Energy Initiative that was pursued during the years 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012 by the former Minister for Energy, Hon Peter Collier;
- (d) does the Premier have an explanation for why it was not included in the Strategic Energy Initiative; and
- (e) does the Premier have an explanation for why the issue of longer-term planning on electricity market requirements, including energy security, was not achieved by the former Minister for Energy, Hon Peter Collier?

78. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Premier:

I refer to the Premier's media release dated 10 April 2013 headed Changes to Machinery of Government, and specifically to his view that there were also significant overheads and costs from duplicating Government-owned entities, and I ask:

- (a) has the Premier had any advice on the potential savings from the merging of Verve and Synergy since the Verve Energy Review of August 2009:
 - (i) if yes, what is the title of the document setting out this advice, who is the author, and when did the Premier receive this document; and
 - (ii) if yes, does this new advice agree that the potential savings would be $5 million per annum;
- (b) if the advice does not agree with the Verve Energy Review of August 2009, what figure is placed on the potential savings?

79. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Premier:

I refer to the Premier's media release dated 10 April 2013 headed Changes to Machinery of Government, and specifically to the his view that smaller generation plant had resulted in economies of scale being lost, and I ask:

- (a) what reports, documents, studies or other information did he rely on to make this statement;
- (b) who is the author of these documents, studies or other information, and what is their date; and
- (c) will the Premier table these documents, studies or other information?

80. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Premier:

I refer to the Premier's media release dated 10 April 2013 headed Changes to Machinery of Government, and specifically to the Premier's view that there was a weaker negotiating position on issues such as fuel purchases, and I ask:

- (a) what reports, documents, studies or other information did the Premier rely on to make this statement;
- (b) who is the author of these documents, studies or other information, and what is their date; and
- (c) will the Premier table these documents, studies or other information?

81. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Premier:

I refer to the Premier's media release dated 10 April 2013 headed Changes to Machinery of Government, and specifically to the Premier's view that Verve and Synergy negotiated domestic gas supply contracts with the Gorgon project which resulted in a higher overall gas price compared with the price that could have been achieved from one gas contract negotiation, and I ask:

- (a) what reports, documents, studies or other information did the Premier rely on to make this statement;
- (b) who is the author of these documents, studies or other information, and what is their date; and
- (c) will the Premier table these documents, studies or other information?

82. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Premier:

I refer to the Premier's media release dated 10 April 2013 headed Changes to Machinery of Government, and specifically to the Premier's view that Verve and Synergy negotiated domestic gas supply contracts with the Gorgon project which resulted in a higher overall gas price compared with the price that could have been achieved from one gas contract negotiation, and ask, did Cabinet sign off on the Verve and Synergy gas supply contracts with the Gorgon project?

83. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Premier:

I refer to the Premier's media release dated 10 April 2013 headed Changes to Machinery of Government, and specifically to the Premier's view that there has been a lack of longer-term planning on electricity market requirements, including energy security, and I ask:

- (a) is it the policy of the Western Australian Government that State-owned entities should not be involved in generating electricity as part of the South West Interconnected System;
- (b) is it the policy of the Western Australian Government that, in the long term, State-owned entities should not be involved in generating electricity as part of the South West interconnected System;
- (c) is it the policy of the Western Australian Government that the State needs a market in the South West Integrated System that does not involve State-owned entities generating electricity; and
- (d) is it the policy of the Western Australian Government that there needs to be a mechanism that will allow the exit of State-owned entities from being involved in generating electricity as part of the South West Interconnected System?

84. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Premier:

I refer to the Premier's media release dated 10 April 2013 headed Changes to Machinery of Government, and I ask:

- (a) can the Premier please provide the specific title, date and author of any reports, documents, studies or other information that has been provided to the Premier that demonstrates that the splitting up Western Power into separate State-owned entities contributed to higher electricity costs in the South-West grid; and
- (b) will these reports, documents, studies or other information be tabled?

85. Mr W.J. Johnston to the Minister for Energy:

I refer to the Minister's media release dated 10 April 2013 entitled Major Reform for State's Energy Sector, and I ask:

- (a) what are the total expected costs and savings that will result from the decision to merge Verve and Synergy (please list the detail of savings by category of expenses, by financial year, commencing from the 2013-2014 financial year onwards);

- (b) are these savings set out in any document, report or study (please list the title, author and date of each such document, report or study);
- (c) when did the Minister first receive each document, report or study; and
- (d) will the Minister table each document, report or study?
