Part 3 — Dealing with compensation applications

18. Procedure, general matters

- 5 (1) An assessor must determine compensation applications expeditiously and informally having regard to the requirements of justice and this Act.
- (2) In deciding a compensation application an assessor is not bound by rules or practice as to evidence or procedure but may inform himself or herself in any manner he or she thinks fit.

19. Assessor's general powers

- 10 (1) For the purposes of deciding a compensation application, an assessor may do any or all of the following, either on the application of an interested person or on the assessor's own initiative —
- 15 (a) give written notice of the application to an interested person;
- (b) seek and receive any information or evidence that the assessor thinks necessary;
- (c) make any inquiries and investigate any matters that the assessor thinks necessary;
- 20 (d) request the applicant to provide the assessor with information in relation to the application;
- (e) defer deciding the application in order to obtain more information or until information requested under paragraph (b), (c) or (d) is provided.
- 25 (2) For the purposes of deciding a compensation application, an assessor may give a person a written notice that requires the person to do any or all of the following —
- 30 (a) to give the assessor, within the time specified in the notice, the relevant information described generally or specifically in the notice;

- (b) to appear before the assessor at a time and place specified in the notice to give relevant evidence to the assessor;
- 5 (c) to produce to the assessor, within the time specified in the notice, any relevant record that is described generally or specifically in the notice and that is in the person's possession or control.
- 10 (3) The powers in subsection (1) and (2) may be exercised whether or not a hearing of the compensation application is to be conducted.
- (4) An assessor to whom a record is produced may inspect and make a copy of the record and for those purposes may keep the record for a reasonable time.
- 15 (5) A person who is given a notice under subsection (2) and who, without a reasonable excuse, does not comply with it commits an offence.
Penalty: $5 000.

20. Victim may be directed to attend doctor etc.

- 20 (1) For the purposes of deciding a compensation application by or on behalf of a person who claims to have suffered an injury as a consequence of the commission of an offence (the “victim”), an assessor, either on the application of an interested person or on the assessor's own initiative, may —
- 25 (a) direct the victim to attend and be examined by a health professional nominated by the assessor; and
- (b) defer deciding the application until the victim has complied with the direction.
- (2) If an assessor directs such a victim to attend and be examined by a health professional —
- 30 (a) the assessor may give the health professional a copy of any report by another health professional about the victim;

- (b) the assessor must request the health professional to provide the assessor with a report of the examination;
  - (c) the Chief Assessor must pay the reasonable cost of the examination and the report; and
  - 5 (d) any compensation award must be reduced by the amount so paid.
- (3) If a victim does not obey such a direction, the assessor may take account of the fact by reducing any compensation award made in favour of the victim.

10 21. Applicant may be required to enforce other remedies

- (1) If an assessor dealing with a compensation application by or on behalf of a victim who suffered injury as a consequence of the commission of an offence is of the opinion that the victim —
- 15 (a) has reasonable grounds for taking proceedings independently of this Act to obtain compensation or damages for all or some of the claimed injury and any claimed loss; or
  - (b) may be entitled under a contract of insurance to payment for all or some of that injury or loss,
- 20 the assessor may require the victim to take proceedings to obtain the compensation, damages or payment and may defer the application pending the determination of those proceedings.
- (2) If an assessor dealing with a compensation application by the
- 25 personal representative of a victim who died as a consequence of the commission of an offence is of the opinion that the personal representative —
- (a) has reasonable grounds for taking proceedings independently of this Act to obtain compensation or damages for all or some of any claimed loss; or

- (b) may be entitled under a contract of insurance to payment for all or some of that loss, the assessor may require the representative to take proceedings to obtain the compensation, damages or payment and may defer the application pending the determination of those proceedings.

22. CEO may apply for stay of compensation application

- (1) The CEO may at any time request that a compensation application be stayed because a prosecution for an alleged offence to which the compensation application relates has been or is about to be commenced.
- (2) On such a request an assessor may stay the compensation application for such period as the assessor decides.

23. Interim payments

- (1) If an assessor dealing with a compensation application is satisfied —

- (a) that a person has incurred or is likely to incur expenses that are or are likely to be a loss in respect of which compensation will be or is likely to be awarded under this Act on the application; and
- (b) that the making of an interim payment of compensation pending the final determination of the application is warranted, the assessor may make an interim payment of such reasonable amount, and on such terms, as the assessor decides.

- (2) For any one compensation application more than one interim payment may be made but the total of the payments, not including any payment for the funeral of a victim who has died, must not exceed 3% of the maximum amount of compensation that could be awarded if the application were for compensation in relation to a single offence.

(3) The total of any interim payments must be deducted from any compensation award that is subsequently made in favour of the victim or close relative.

5 (4) If one or more interim payments are made to a person and a compensation award in favour of that person is subsequently refused, the total of the interim payments becomes a debt due to the State by the person.

24. Hearing to be held if assessor thinks fit

10 (1) An assessor may conduct a hearing of a compensation application if he or she thinks fit.

(2) An assessor, without conducting a hearing of a compensation application may make, or refuse to make, a compensation award in respect of the application.

25. Hearings

15 (1) If an assessor decides to conduct a hearing of a compensation application, the assessor must cause written notice of the time and place of the hearing to be given to the applicant and to any other interested person that the assessor intends to hear.

20 (2) A person who is notified of a hearing is entitled —
(a) to appear at the hearing and be heard by the assessor;
(b) to appear in person or to be represented by a lawyer, or by a person approved by the assessor; and
(c) to present evidence and to call, examine and re-examine witnesses and to cross-examine any witness not called 25 by that person.
