20 After section 23A the following section is inserted in Division 1 —

23B. Police officer may retain a thing relating to an offence

- (1) If a police officer —
- 25 (a) under a written law, seizes from a young person a thing relating to an offence; and

s. 9

- (b) gives a caution to the young person for the offence, the police officer may retain the thing or release it to an appropriate person.

- 5 (2) A police officer who retains a thing under subsection (1) must, after 48 hours after giving the caution, make the thing available for collection by an appropriate person, unless the thing can be retained under any other law.

- 10 (3) In this section —

“appropriate person”, in relation to a thing seized from a young person, means a person who —

- (a) owns the thing, is authorized by the owner to possess it or, if the young person is the owner, is a responsible adult in relation to the young person; and
- 15 (b) is not prohibited by law from possessing the thing.
