12. Part 4A inserted

After Part 4 the following Part is inserted —

5 Part 4A — Contracts to provide services for people with disabilities

26A. Interpretation

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears —

10 “commencement day” means the day on which the Disability Services Amendment Act 1999 comes into operation;

“supply policies” has the same definition as it has in section 3(1) of the State Supply Commission Act 1991.

15 26B. Method of contracting to provide services for people with disabilities

(1) If the Commission wishes to contract with a service provider to provide, on behalf of the Commission, services to a person with a disability, or to an individual who resides with such a person and —

- 20 (a) who is related (by blood or marriage) to or is the guardian of the person with a disability; and
(b) who looks after or otherwise provides services to the person with a disability,

25 the Commission is to apply to the Minister for approval of the means of procuring the services.

(2) If approval is sought under subsection (1), the Minister may direct —

5

(a) that the services be procured by means of a tender conducted in accordance with supply policies relating to tenders;

(b) that the Commission by public notice invite expressions of interest from service providers for the provision of the services; or

(c) that the Commission enter into negotiations with a service provider for the provision of the services.

(3) The Commission may renew a contract, including a contract by way of renewal under this subsection —

15

(a) for the type of service referred to in subsection (1) entered into before the commencement day; or

(b) entered into under this section,

without complying with this section.

26C. Assignment of benefit of contract

20

(1) A person who after the commencement day has entered into a contract with the Commission for the provision of a service referred to in section 26B(1) may not assign the benefit of that contract without the consent of the Commission.

25

(2) When the benefit of a contract is assigned, the assignee is bound, by force of this subsection, to perform the obligations which the assignor was bound under the contract to perform.

30

(3) Any purported assignment in contravention of this section is void.

”.

13. Section 28 amended
