Division 3A — CHOGM events

13A. Order declaring CHOGM event

- (1) The Minister may, by order, declare any meeting, event, function or activity to be a CHOGM event if the Minister is satisfied that declaring the meeting, event, function or activity to be a CHOGM event will substantially assist in —

- (a) promoting the security or safety of —
 - (i) people attending CHOGM (Perth); or
 - (ii) CHOGM officials or other officials associated with the organisation of CHOGM (Perth); or
 - (iii) the public;
 or
 - (b) preventing or controlling a public disorder.
- (2) An order made under subsection (1) has effect when it is published in the Gazette unless section 13C applies, in which case it has effect when the Minister signs the order.
 - (3) An order under this section may be made before or during the CHOGM period.

13B. Urgent order declaring CHOGM event

- (1) The Minister may make an order under section 13A without publishing the order in the Gazette if the Minister is satisfied —
 - (a) that it is necessary to declare a meeting, event, function or activity to be a CHOGM event as a matter of urgency; and
 - (b) that the delay that would be caused by having to publish the order in the Gazette would significantly compromise the security or safety of the meeting, event, function or activity, people attending it or the public.
- (2) If an order is made by the Minister in the circumstances set out in subsection (1) —
 - (a) the order has effect when the Minister signs the order; and
 - (b) as soon as practicable after the order is made, the Minister must ensure that the order is published in the Gazette, unless section 13C applies.
- (3) A failure to comply with subsection (2)(b) does not affect the validity of the order.

13C. Gazetting of order can be dispensed with

Despite sections 13A(2) and 13B(2)(b), the Minister does not have to publish an order made under section 13A in the Gazette if the Minister is satisfied that the publication of the order would be likely to significantly compromise the security or safety of the meeting, event, function or activity to which the order relates, people attending it or the public.
