Questions listed for this sitting: -

6394. Mr S.K. L'Estrange to the Minister for Emergency Services; Corrective Services:

- (1) How much money did the Department of Fire and Emergency Services earn through the disposal of heavy firefighting units in 2017-18, 2018-19 and 2019-20?
- (2) How much money was spent on the purchase of new heavy firefighting units in 2017-18, 2018-19 and 2019-20?
- (3) How much money did the Department of Fire and Emergency Services earn through the disposal of light tankers in 2017-18, 2018-19 and 2019-20?
- (4) How much money was spent on the purchase of new light tankers in 2017-18, 2018-19 and 2019-20?

- (5) Is the money received through the sale of heavy firefighting units and light tankers redirected for the purchase of new heavy firefighting units and light tankers:
- (a) If not, why not and what is the money used for?

6395. Mr S.K. L'Estrange to the Minister for Emergency Services; Corrective Services:

- (1) As at 1 September 2020, how many light tankers, owned by the Department of Fire and Emergency Services, are operational throughout Western Australia?
- (2) How many light tankers are expected to reach their 'effective use-by date' by the end of 2020-21:
- (a) Of these, how many are expected to be in reasonable condition to be auctioned to the public?
- (3) How many new light tankers are expected to be bought in 2020-21 and 2021-22?
- (4) On average, how many years does a light tanker remain in use before being disposed of?
- (5) On average, over the life expectancy of a light tanker, how much will be spent on its maintenance?

6396. Mr D.T. Redman to the Minister for Emergency Services; Corrective Services:

I refer to the mandatory online Code of Conduct of which Department of Fire and Emergency Services (DFES) volunteers are required to complete, and ask:

- (a) Can the Minister list for each registered volunteer emergency service organisation:
- (i) The total number of registered volunteers in each organisation;
- (ii) The total number of volunteers in each organisation who completed the mandatory code of conduct course within the stated 4 week limit as outlined in the Commissioner's Circular 98/2020 on 18 June 2020;
- (iii) The total number of volunteers in each organisation who did not complete the mandatory code of conduct course within the stated 4 week limit;
- (iv) The total number of volunteers in each organisation who completed the mandatory code of conduct online course to date;
- (v) The total number of volunteers in each organisation who have not completed the course to date; and
- (vi) The total number of volunteers in each organisation who have deregistered since 22 June 2020;
- (b) Can the Minister outline the actions that will be taken for those volunteers who have not completed the mandatory code of conduct; and
- (c) Can the Minister confirm that simply logging into the online course as a registered volunteer is sufficient to be recorded as having completed the mandatory code of conduct course, even though the body of the course has not been read and/or completed:
- (i) If not, at what point in the process of completing the online code of conduct course does the system formally register the applicant as having completed the online code of conduct course; and
- (ii) If yes, is the Minister aware of how many registered volunteers have simply logged into the mandatory course, and not completed the course as required?
