In reference to the use of the Nullagine Police Station as the appointed Evacuation Centre during Cyclone Lua, I ask, have the following issues been drawn to the attention of the Minister for Police, or relevant State Government Agency:

- (a) the major leaks in the Police Station roof, in particular the cell areas, facility rooms and station area;
- (b) the lack of forms made available for registration of those who attended on the day, and will the Minister advise whose responsibility is it to have these registration forms available in such situations;
- (c) the lack of facility for the treatment of the sick at the Police Station, as all rooms were taken up by the evacuees;

- (g) overcrowding of the Police Station passages, making access to toilets difficult;
- (h) the lack of ventilation in the cells and facility area, causing distress to some evacuees;
- (i) the overuse of the toilet facilities in all three cell areas which resulted in blockages and people were left having to use the facilities in the view of others with no privacy;
- (j) the cyclonic driven rain which was forced under the doors and into the passageway wetting bedding and people sleeping in that area;
- (k) the toilet that overflowed into the passage in the facility area soiling peoples' bedding;
- (l) that evacuees had to remain at the centre after the passage of the cyclone due to flooding and continue to sleep on wet concrete, including young children and babies;
- (m) that the facility did not meet the needs of the disabled and one person had to be housed elsewhere;
- (n) that the school could not be used as a back-up shelter as it has no inside toilet facilities or food preparation areas;
