I refer to the McGowan Government's decision to privatise six of the State Government owned Camp schools, and ask:

- (a) can the Minister confirm Fairbridge has processes in place and is sufficiently organised to ensure any camp bookings for 2019 will progress and be managed to the standards expected of the Government;

- (f) did the Government include any "buy local" responsibilities in the agreement struck with Fairbridge, and if so what are they;
- (g) is the Minister aware that many small schools that attend the camp schools have small student numbers and therefore would be disadvantaged if minimum numbers were set for camp attendance; and

- (h) is the Minister aware of minimum numbers being set for any school group attending a camp school from 2019?
