INTRODUCTION

Section 43(1a) of the Surveillance Devices Act 1998 (the SD Act) requires the Corruption and Crime Commission (the Commission) to furnish to the Attorney General, as soon as practicable after 30 June, but in any event not later than 31 August, in each year, a report in respect of the year ending 30 June, containing information relating to:

- (a) applications for warrants and extensions of warrants, including the number of such applications and the orders made in respect of such applications;
- (b) applications for emergency authorisations, including the number of such applications and the authorisations issued in respect of such applications; and
- (c) such other matters relating to the use of surveillance devices and the administration of this Act as the Attorney General may direct.

Regulation 8 of the Surveillance Devices Regulations 1999 (the SD Regulations) prescribes further requirements in relation to the information to be provided in the annual report concerning the warrants and extensions reported under section 43 of the SD Act. This includes the number of such applications that were:

- (1)(a) withdrawn;
- (b) made by the applicant on behalf of another law enforcement officer; and
- (c) made by means other than filing a written application at the court.

Additionally, regulation 8(2) of the SD Regulations prescribes the inclusion of the number of applications for emergency authorisation that were withdrawn.

Section 43(4) of the SD Act requires that the Minister cause this report to be laid before each House of Parliament as soon as practicable.

Accordingly, the Commission provides this report to the Attorney General containing information concerning its applications and authorisations for the use of surveillance device warrants under the SD Act for the year ending 30 June 2009.
