I am writing to advise of the most recent tabling of a treaty and to invite comments for review.

As the Treaties Committee has periods of 15 and 20 sitting days in which to complete review and authorize for publication, it is possible to suspend the completion of review to be periodic in nature. It may be possible to suspend the completion of review to be periodic in nature.

The Treaties Committee is currently undertaking the following issues arising from proposed treaties:

- Regional Cooperation Agreement on Combating Piracy and Armed Robbery against Ships in Asia (Tokyo, 11 November 2004)

Treaty tabled on 21 August 2012

Treaty tabled on 21 August 2012

The subject matter of international treaties can be of interest to State and Territory Governments and Parliaments and we are keen to provide an opportunity for Government and Parliamentarians and the usual period of review is extended.
