Additions

7. Page 17 under Ensure all students attend school regularly add as the last paragraph:
   “As at June 2012, the number of children whose whereabouts are unknown was 1129. These children are generally from families who move and do not inform their current school about where they have gone. We work with private school sectors and other agencies to reduce this number.”

8. Page 24 under Provide a safe, welcoming and engaging learning environment in each school add as the last paragraph:
   “We collaborated with the Department for Child Protection to develop documented education plans for children in care to address their educational needs. As at 26 June 2012, 1804 (84%) of the 2143 children in care in our schools had documented plans.”
