Part 2 — Regulation of traffic

Division 1 — Parking

5. Regulation of parking

(1) The Trust may, by erecting a sign, or using a road marking, or both, do all or any of the following —

(a) designate 1 or more areas in a venue as an area in which the parking of vehicles is permitted;

(b) designate 1 or more areas in a venue as an area in which the parking of vehicles of a particular class is permitted;

(c) designate 1 or more areas in a venue as an area in which the parking of vehicles used by a particular person or class of persons is permitted;

(d) designate 1 or more areas in a venue as an area in which the parking of vehicles is prohibited;

(e) designate 1 or more areas in a venue as an area in which the standing of vehicles is prohibited.

(2) When designating an area under subregulation (1), the Trust may also do all or any of the following —

(a) determine conditions or restrictions under which parking in the area is permitted;

(b) determine the manner in which parking in the area is permitted;

(c) determine times at which parking or standing in the area is permitted or prohibited;

(d) determine the maximum period for which parking in the area is permitted.

(3) A sign or road marking used to designate an area under subregulation (1) must clearly indicate —

(a) the particular designation given to the area; and
Western Australian Sports Centre Trust (Traffic) Regulations 2017

Regulation of traffic

Part 2

Parking

Division 1

r. 6

(b) any conditions, restrictions or other matters determined in relation to the area under subregulation (2).

(4) A traffic management officer may permit the driver of a vehicle to park or stand the vehicle at a venue in a place that is not a parking area, subject to any conditions or restrictions determined by the officer.

6. Parking permits

(1) The Trust may issue a sticker or other document (a parking permit) to a person (a permit holder) authorising the permit holder to park a vehicle in a parking area.

(2) A parking permit may be issued —

(a) subject to any condition the Trust thinks fit; and

(b) on the payment of a fee (if any) determined by the Trust.

(3) Without limiting subregulation (2)(a), a parking permit may be subject to conditions relating to all or any of the following —

(a) the vehicle, vehicles, or kind of vehicles, to which it relates;

(b) the parking area in which the permit holder is permitted to park;

(c) the times during which, or period for which, the permit holder is permitted to park.

(4) A parking permit —

(a) takes effect on the day specified in it; and

(b) remains in effect for the period specified in it, unless it is cancelled in accordance with its conditions before the end of that period.

7. Parking offences

(1) A person must not park or stand a vehicle in a parking area —

(a) contrary to a sign or road marking; or
Western Australian Sports Centre Trust (Traffic) Regulations 2017
Part 2
Division 1
r. 7

(b) in a manner that obstructs, or is reasonably likely to obstruct, another vehicle; or
(c) on a pedestrian crossing or footpath; or
(d) in an area designated for the parking of vehicles of people with disabilities, unless —
   (i) a person with a disability is the driver of, or a passenger in, the vehicle; and
   (ii) a disability parking permit is displayed in a prominent position at the front of the vehicle.

Penalty for this subregulation: a fine of $1 000.

(2) A person who parks a vehicle in a parking area where parking bays are designated must position the vehicle completely within a single parking bay.

Penalty for this subregulation: a fine of $1 000.

(3) A permit holder who parks a vehicle in a parking area in accordance with a parking permit must display the person’s parking permit in a prominent position at the front of the vehicle while it is parked in the parking area.

Penalty for this subregulation: a fine of $1 000.

(4) A person must not park or stand a vehicle at a venue in a place that is not a parking area unless —
   (a) the person has obtained the permission of a traffic management officer under regulation 5(4) to do so; and
   (b) the person parks or stands the vehicle in accordance with any conditions or restrictions imposed by the traffic management officer.

Penalty for this subregulation: a fine of $1 000.
8. Directions by traffic management officer

(1) If a traffic management officer considers it reasonably necessary for the regulation of traffic at a venue, the officer may direct the driver of a vehicle at the venue —
   (a) to do something that is otherwise prohibited by this Division; or
   (b) not to do something that is permitted by this Division.

(2) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a direction under subregulation (1).

Penalty for this subregulation: a fine of $1 000.

(3) A person does not commit an offence under subregulation (2) if the traffic management officer, when giving the direction to the person, did not inform the person that failure to comply with the direction constitutes an offence.

(4) A person who does an act or makes an omission that is otherwise prohibited by this Division does not commit an offence if the person does or makes it in accordance with a direction under subregulation (1).

9. Removal of vehicles

(1) If a traffic management officer believes on reasonable grounds that a vehicle is parked at a venue in contravention of this Division or is abandoned, the officer may remove the vehicle, or cause it to be removed, from the venue to a storage place approved by the Trust for the purposes of this regulation.

(2) The Trust must cause a record to be kept of each vehicle removed under subregulation (1), including —
   (a) a description of the vehicle; and
   (b) details of the date and time of removal; and
   (c) details of the place from which the vehicle was removed; and
Western Australian Sports Centre Trust (Traffic) Regulations 2017

Part 2  Regulation of traffic
Division 2  Driving
r. 10

(d) details of the place to which the vehicle was moved.

(3) A traffic management officer may take, or cause to be taken, any action that is reasonably necessary for the purposes of removing a vehicle under subregulation (1), including unlocking, driving or towing the vehicle.

(4) If a vehicle has been removed under subregulation (1), the Trust may hold the vehicle until the costs and expenses incurred by the Trust in moving and holding the vehicle are paid.

Division 2 — Driving

10. Driving offences

(1) A person must not drive a vehicle at a venue in a manner that is inherently dangerous or, having regard to the circumstances, is dangerous to the public or to any person.

Penalty for this subregulation: a fine of $1 000.

(2) A person must not drive a vehicle at a venue without due care and attention or reasonable consideration for other people in the vicinity of the vehicle.

Penalty for this subregulation: a fine of $1 000.

Division 3 — Emergency vehicles

11. Emergency vehicles excluded

Despite any other provision of this Part, the driver of an emergency vehicle may, in the course of their duties and when it is expedient and safe to do so, stop, stand or park the emergency vehicle at any place and at any time at a venue.
Part 3 — Infringement notices

12. Modified penalties

The modified penalty specified opposite an offence in Schedule 1 is the modified penalty for that offence for the purposes of section 18C(4) of the Act.

13. Forms

(1) For the purposes of section 18C(3) of the Act, Schedule 2 Form 1 is the prescribed form for an infringement notice.

(2) For the purposes of section 18C(7) of the Act, Schedule 2 Form 2 is the prescribed form for the withdrawal of an infringement notice.

14. Restriction on removal of infringement notice

A person must not remove an infringement notice that is left in or on, or attached to, a vehicle under section 18D(1)(b) of the Act unless the person is —

(a) the driver, the owner or the person in charge of the vehicle; or

(b) a traffic management officer.

Penalty: a fine of $1 000.
Part 4 — General

15. Requirement to give name and address

(1) A traffic management officer may require a person to give the person’s name and address to the officer if the officer believes on reasonable grounds that the person has committed an offence under these regulations.

(2) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a requirement under subregulation (1). Penalty for this subregulation: a fine of $1 000.

(3) A person does not commit an offence under subregulation (2) if the traffic management officer, when requiring the person to give the person’s name and address, did not inform the person that failure to comply with the requirement constitutes an offence.

16. Obstruction of traffic management officer

A person must not obstruct a traffic management officer in the performance of the officer’s functions under these regulations. Penalty: a fine of $1 000.

17. Impersonation of traffic management officer

A person must not pretend to be a traffic management officer. Penalty: a fine of $1 000.
