PART 2—ESTABLISHMENT OF BUSH FIRE BRIGADES

2.1 Establishment of a bush fire brigade
(1) The local government may establish a bush fire brigade for the purpose of carrying out normal brigade activities.
(2) A bush fire brigade is established on the date of the local government’s decision under subclause (1).
2.2 Name and area of bush fire brigade
On establishing a bush fire brigade under clause 2.1(1) the local government is to—
(a) give a name to the bush fire brigade; and
(b) specify the area in which the bush fire brigade is primarily responsible for carrying out the normal brigade activities.

2.3 Objects of bush fire brigades
The objects of the bush fire brigade are to carry out—
(a) the normal brigade activities; and
(b) the functions of the bush fire brigade which are specified in the Act, the Regulations and this local law.

2.4 Chain of command during normal brigade activities
(1) Subject to the Act, the chain of command to apply during normal brigade activities is—
(a) bush fire control officers in order of seniority;
(b) bush fire brigade officers in order of seniority; and
(c) all other volunteer fire fighters.

(2) The person in command has full control over other persons fighting the fire, and is to issue instructions as to the methods to be adopted by the fire fighters, and may exercise all the powers and duties provided for by the Act.

2.5 Existing bush fire brigades
A bush fire brigade established prior to the day on which this local law comes into operation—
(a) is to be taken to be a bush fire brigade established under and in accordance with this local law;
(b) the provisions of this local law apply to the bush fire brigade save for clause 2.1; and
(c) any rules governing the operation of the bush fire brigade are repealed and substituted with the provisions of this local law.

2.6 Dissolution of bush fire brigade
In accordance with section 41(3) of the Act, the local government may cancel the registration of a bush fire brigade if it is of the opinion that the bush fire brigade is not complying with the Act, this local law, or is not achieving the objectives for which it was established.

2.7 New arrangement after dissolution
If a local government cancels the registration of a bush fire brigade, alternative fire control arrangements are to be made in respect of the brigade area.

PART 3—ORGANISATION OF BUSH FIRE BRIGADES

3.1 Local government responsible for structure
The local government is to ensure that there is an appropriate structure through which the organisation of bush fire brigades is maintained.

3.2 Appointment of bush fire control officers
(1) The local government may appoint bush fire control officers in their absolute discretion, and apply conditions as considered appropriate.

(2) Where only one person is appointed as a bush fire control officer, that person is the CBFCO for the purposes of this local law.

(3) Where more than one person is appointed as a bush fire control officer, the local government shall determine seniority as CBFCO, Deputy CBFCO, and further seniority as is considered appropriate.

(4) When considering the appointment of a person as a bush fire control officer, the local government is to have regard to the qualifications, training and experience which may be advisable to fill the position.

3.3 Appointment of bush fire brigade officers
(1) The local government shall appoint the following bush fire brigade officers in their absolute discretion—
(a) a bush fire control officer from the bush fire brigade area to be Captain;
(b) where there is more than one bush fire control officer in a bush fire brigade area, a bush fire control officer from the bush fire brigade area as first lieutenant;
(c) where there is not more than one bush fire control officer in a bush fire brigade area, an appropriate person from the bush fire brigade area as first lieutenant; and
(d) if considered necessary, any additional officers as necessary for the effective management of normal brigade activities.

(2) The local government may remove any appointed person from any position.

(3) A bush fire brigade may make appointments to other positions as they see fit and as considered appropriate.
When considering the appointment of persons to the positions of Captain, Lieutenant or other position, the local government is to have regard to the qualifications, training and experience which may be advisable to fill each position.

3.4 Managerial role of CBFCO
Subject to any directions by the local government, the CBFCO—
(a) has primary managerial responsibility for the organisation and maintenance of bush fire brigades;
(b) is to support Captains and bush fire brigade officers in their roles; and
(c) where a vacancy in the position of Captain appointed under clause 3.3(1)(a), or in order of seniority, other appointed bush fire brigade officer willing to act in that position, the CBFCO is to act as Captain until an appointment is made by the local government to the position.

3.5 Duties of Captain and bush fire brigade officers
(1) The duties of the Captain include—
(a) to provide leadership to bush fire brigades;
(b) to monitor bush fire brigades' resourcing, equipment and training levels;
(c) to liaise with the local government concerning—
(i) fire prevention or fire suppression matters generally;
(ii) directions to be issued by the local government to bush fire control officers (including those who issue permits to burn);
(iii) bush fire brigades; or
(iv) bush fire brigade officers;
(d) to ensure that lists of bush fire brigade members are maintained in accordance with clause 4.3(1);
(e) to report annually to the local government the office bearers of the bush fire brigade in the form of Form 12 of the Regulations;
(f) to report to the local government not later than 30 April each year, for consideration and appropriate provision being made in the next local government budget, the status of a bush fire brigade's—
(i) training and readiness;
(ii) protective clothing;
(iii) equipment; and
(iv) vehicles and appliances;
(g) to consider the nomination of persons to the local government for appointment as bush fire control officers by the local government;
(h) to arrange for normal brigade activities as authorised by the Act or by the local government;
(i) where a vacancy occurs in a position appointed under clause 3.3(1)(b) or (c), to—
(i) advise the CEO of the vacancy as soon as practicable; and,
(ii) make alternate suitable arrangements for that position until an appointment is made by the local government; and
(j) to make recommendations to the local government for endorsement prior to implementation.
(2) The duties of other bush fire brigade officers are to support the CBFCO and Captain in their roles.

3.6 Training of bush fire control officers
(1) The local government is to supply each bush fire control officer and Captain with a copy of the Act, the Regulations, any Bush Fire Operating Procedures adopted, this local law and any other written laws which may be relevant to the performance of the bush fire brigade officers' functions, and any amendments made from time to time.
(2) Bush fire control officers are required to complete a Bush Fire Control Officers course conducted by an organisation approved by the CEO, within 12 months of appointment, unless a course has been completed within the 4 years prior to appointment as a bush fire control officer.
(3) Bush fire control officers are required to complete a bush fire control officers course at least once every 5 years.

PART 4—MEMBERSHIP

4.1 Types of membership of bush fire brigades
(1) The membership of a bush fire brigade consists of volunteer fire fighters.
(2) Registration as a volunteer fire fighter does not commit the person to participating in all normal brigade activities.

4.2 Membership applications
The decision on admission of a bush fire brigade member, with or without conditions or restrictions, may be made by—
(a) either the Captain or CBFCO; jointly with
(b) either the CEO or President.
4.3 Membership—review, refusal, suspension or termination

(1) No later than 30 April in each year, the Captain is to review the membership and report to the CEO and CBFCO the name and contact details of each bush fire brigade member.

(2) If circumstances warrant, membership of the bush fire brigade may be refused or suspended at any time for a period considered appropriate in the opinion of—
   (a) either the Captain or CBFCO; jointly with
   (b) the CEO or President.

(3) Membership of the bush fire brigade terminates if the member—
   (a) dies;
   (b) gives written notice of resignation to the Captain or CEO;
   (c) is permanently incapacitated by mental or physical ill-health; or
   (d) is no longer a resident or a landowner or occupier in the district, or for other sufficient reason.

(4) A decision to terminate membership under subclause (3)(c) or (d) is to be made by—
   (a) either the Captain or CBFCO; jointly with
   (b) the CEO or President.

(5) Where a decision under subclause (2), (3)(c) or (3)(d) is unable to be agreed, the matter is to be referred to the local government.

(6) The decision of the local government shall be final.

(7) Members are eligible to reapply where membership has ceased for any reason.

4.4 Member has right to review

(1) A bush fire brigade member may appeal to the local government, any—
   (a) refusal of membership;
   (b) suspension of membership; or
   (c) termination of membership.

(2) The decision of the local government shall be final.

4.5 Existing liabilities to continue

The resignation, suspension or termination of a member under clause 4.3 does not affect any liability of the bush fire brigade member arising prior to the date of resignation, suspension or termination of membership.

4.6 Disagreements

(1) Any disagreement between bush fire brigade members regarding normal brigade activities may be referred to the Captain.

(2) Where a disagreement in subclause (1) is considered by the Captain to be of importance to the interests of the bush fire brigade, then the Captain may refer the disagreement to the CBFCO or to the local government.

(3) Where a disagreement is referred to the CBFCO, the CBFCO may—
   (a) determine the disagreement; or
   (b) refer the matter to the local government.

(4) The local government is the final authority on matters affecting the bush fire brigade, and may resolve any disagreement referred to it.

PART 5—GENERAL

5.1 Administration

All administrative matters of a bush fire brigade are to be managed by the local government, other than bush fire brigade specific internal arrangements.

5.2 Finances

All financial matters of a bush fire brigade are to be managed by the local government, other than bush fire brigade specific internal arrangements.

5.3 Equipment

All equipment purchased by the local government is the property of, and shall be insured by, the local government.

5.4 Consideration in the local government budget

In addition to funding made available through emergency services grants, the local government may provide further funding depending upon the assessment of budget priorities for the year in question.
