   licence means a licence to keep an approved kennel establishment on premises;

   premises, in addition to the meaning given to it in section 3 of the Act, means the premises described in the application for a licence; and transferee means a person who applies for the transfer of a licence to her or him under clause 4.14.

4.2 Application for licence for approved kennel establishment

Where an application for a licence is made in respect of premises on which an approved kennel establishment is either a—
   (a) permitted use; or

   (f) whether or not the imposition of and compliance with appropriate conditions of a licence will mitigate any adverse effects of the approved kennel establishment identified in the preceding paragraphs.

The local government cannot approve an application for a licence where—
   (a) an approved kennel establishment cannot be permitted on the premises under a local planning scheme; or

(3) The local government may approve, or refuse to approve, an application for the transfer of a valid licence, subject to such conditions as it considers appropriate.
(4) Where the local government approves an application for the transfer of a valid licence, then on the date of approval, unless otherwise specified in the notice issued under clause 4.15(b), the transferee becomes the licensee of the licence for the purposes of this local law.
