About this compilation

This compilation

This is a compilation of the National Redress Scheme for Institutional Child Sexual Abuse Declaration 2018 that shows the text of the law as amended and in force on 1 November 2018 (the compilation date).

The notes at the end of this compilation (the endnotes) include information about amending laws and the amendment history of provisions of the compiled law.

Uncommenced amendments

The effect of uncommenced amendments is not shown in the text of the compiled law. Any uncommenced amendments affecting the law are accessible on the Legislation Register (www.legislation.gov.au). The details of amendments made up to, but not commenced at, the compilation date are underlined in the endnotes. For more information on any uncommenced amendments, see the series page on the Legislation Register for the compiled law.

Application, saving and transitional provisions for provisions and amendments

If the operation of a provision or amendment of the compiled law is affected by an application, saving or transitional provision that is not included in this compilation, details are included in the endnotes.

Modifications

If the compiled law is modified by another law, the compiled law operates as modified but the modification does not amend the text of the law. Accordingly, this compilation does not show the text of the compiled law as modified. For more information on any modifications, see the series page on the Legislation Register for the compiled law.

Self-repealing provisions

If a provision of the compiled law has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law, details are included in the endnotes.

Part 1—Preliminary

1 Name

This instrument is the National Redress Scheme for Institutional Child Sexual Abuse Declaration 2018.

3 Authority

This instrument is made under the National Redress Scheme for Institutional Child Sexual Abuse Act 2018.

4 Definitions

In this instrument:

Act means the National Redress Scheme for Institutional Child Sexual Abuse Act 2018.

Scheme means the National Redress Scheme for Institutional Child Sexual Abuse as established by the National Redress Scheme for Institutional Child Sexual Abuse Act 2018.
Part 2—Participating institutions

5 Operation of this Part

This Part is made for the purposes of subsection 115(2) of the Act.

6 Participating State institutions (NSW)

Each of the following State institutions of New South Wales is a participating institution:

(a) A government sector agency within the meaning of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 (NSW);
(b) A service of the Crown in which persons excluded from the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 (NSW) by section 5 of that Act are employed;
(c) A statutory body representing the Crown in right of the State of New South Wales that is authorised by legislation to employ staff;
(d) A statutory body representing the Crown in right of the State of New South Wales that at any time received funding from the State for a public purpose;
(e) A local health district or statutory health corporation established under the Health Services Act 1997 (NSW);
(f) A public hospital controlled by the Crown in right of the State of New South Wales;
(g) Any institution (however described) that has been superseded by anything listed in paragraphs (a)-(f); and
(h) Any institution (however described) of a kind referred to in paragraphs (a)-(f) that has been abolished.

Note: For the avoidance of doubt, the institutions at (c) and (d) do not extend to a university, a residential college of a university or a local council.

7 Participating State institutions (Vic.)

Each of the following State institutions of Victoria is a participating institution:

(a) Public sector bodies, within the meaning of the Public Administration Act 2004 (Vic), whether established or in existence before, on or after the commencement of that Act;
(b) All bodies that were established or in existence and ceased to exist before the commencement of the Public Administration Act 2004 (Vic) and that would, if that Act had been in force, have been public sector bodies within the meaning of that Act, in relation to the period for which they so operated; and
(c) Councils, within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1989 (Vic).
Note: The classes of bodies include entities taking a range of legal forms (including corporations, statutory authorities, unincorporated bodies and incorporated associations) for example: public hospitals, school councils, TAFEs and State of Victoria Government Departments no longer in existence.

8 Participating Territory institutions (ACT)

Each of the following Territory institutions of the Australian Capital Territory is a participating institution:
(a) The Australian Capital Territory (the Territory) as established as a body politic by section 7 of the Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cth);
(b) A Territory owned corporation under the Territory Owned Corporations Act 1990 or a subsidiary of a Territory owned corporation;
(c) A Territory instrumentality within the meaning of the Public Sector Management Act 1994; and
(d) Any other body that is:
   i) subject to the control of the Territory or otherwise an agent of the Territory in exercising a function; or
   ii) made up of public sector members within the meaning of the Public Sector Management Act 1994.

8A Participating State institutions (Tas.)

Each of the following State institutions of Tasmania is a participating institution:
(a) A government department within the meaning of the State Service Act 2000 (Tas);
(b) A service of the Crown in right of the State of Tasmania in which persons excluded from the State Service Act 2000 (Tas) by section 5 of that Act are employed;
(c) A State authority within the meaning of the State Service Act 2000 (Tas) which is authorised to employ staff;
(d) Any hospital operated by the Crown in right of the State of Tasmania past and present;
(e) Any institution (however described) that has been superseded by anything listed in paragraphs (a) – (d); and
(f) Any institution (however described) of a kind referred to in paragraphs (a) – (d) that has been abolished.

Endnotes

Endnote 1—About the endnotes

The endnotes provide information about this compilation and the compiled law.

The following endnotes are included in every compilation:

Endnote 1—About the endnotes
Endnote 2—Abbreviation key
Endnote 3—Legislation history
Endnote 4—Amendment history

Abbreviation key—Endnote 2
The abbreviation key sets out abbreviations that may be used in the endnotes.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4
Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Misdescribed amendments
A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe the amendment to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can be given effect as intended, the amendment is incorporated into the compiled law and the abbreviation “(md)” added to the details of the amendment included in the amendment history.

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the abbreviation “(md not incorp)” is added to the details of the amendment included in the amendment history.
