5 Definitions

In this instrument:

disposable cigarette lighter means a flame producing device that:

(a) is designed to light cigarettes, cigars and pipes; and
(b) is designed to:
   (i) be discarded when its fuel supply is exhausted; or
   (ii) incorporate a separate container of fuel that is designed to be discarded when empty; or
   (iii) be refillable with fuel; and
(c) if the device is designed to be refillable with fuel—is not a refillable repairable lighter within the meaning of the European Standard.

Note: A permanent ban has been imposed on toy-like novelty cigarette lighters under subsection 114(1) of the Australian Consumer Law. Notice of the ban (Consumer Protection Notice No. 18 of 2011 - Permanent Ban of Toy-like Novelty Cigarette Lighters could in 2019 be viewed on the Federal Register of Legislation website

European Standard means the European Standard EN 13869:2016:
Lighters - Child Safety Requirements For Lighters - Safety Requirements and Test Methods, published by the European Committee for Standardization, as in force or existing at the time when this instrument commences.

Note: The European Standard could in 2019 be purchased from SAI Global’s website (https://www.saiglobal.com). The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission can make a copy of the standard available for viewing at one of its offices, subject to licensing conditions.

transitional period means the period of 12 months beginning on the day this instrument commences.
Part 2—Requirements

Division 1—Basic requirements

6 Requirements during transitional period

(1) During the transitional period, a disposable cigarette lighter must comply with the requirements in section 8, 9 or 10.

(2) This section is repealed at the end of the last day of the transitional period.

7 Requirements after transitional period

After the transitional period, a disposable cigarette lighter must comply with the requirements in section 8 or 9.

Division 2—Details of requirements

8 American-based requirements

(1) A disposable cigarette lighter complies with the requirements in this section if the disposable cigarette lighter complies with:

(a) ASTM F400-10 Standard Consumer Safety Specification for Lighters, published by the American Society for Testing and Materials, as in force or existing at the time when this instrument commences; and

(b) if the disposable cigarette lighter is designed to be refillable with fuel—clause 3.2 of the European Standard as affected by subsection (2).

Note: ASTM F400-10 Standard Consumer Safety Specification for Lighters could in 2019 be purchased from SAI Global’s website (https://www.saiglobal.com). The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission can make a copy of the standard available for viewing at one of its offices, subject to licensing conditions.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), clause 3.2 of the European Standard is varied by omitting all the words after “five years”.

9 European-based requirements

(1) A disposable cigarette lighter complies with the requirements in this section if the disposable cigarette lighter complies with the European Standard as varied by subsection (2).

(2) Clause 3.2 of the European Standard is varied by omitting all the words after “five years”.

(1) If a disposable cigarette lighter does not comply with section 8 or 9, the disposable cigarette lighter must comply with the requirements of the Trade Practices (Consumer Product Safety Standard) (Disposable Cigarette Lighters) Regulations 1997, as in force or existing immediately before the commencement of this instrument.

(2) This section is repealed at the end of the last day of the transitional period.
Schedule 1—Repeals

1 The whole of the instrument

Repeal the instrument.

Note: Under item 4 of Schedule 7 to the Trade Practices Amendment (Australian Consumer Law) Act (No. 2) 2010, the Trade Practices (Consumer Product Safety Standard) (Disposable Cigarette Lighters) Regulations 1997 continued in force from the start of 1 January 2011 as if they were a safety standard made under section 104 of the Australian Consumer Law.

I, Stuart Robert, Assistant Treasurer, make the following safety standard.
