code of conduct means a code of conduct under section 5.51A;

gift —
(a) has the meaning given in section 5.57; but
(b) does not include —
(i) a gift from a relative as defined in section 5.74(1); or
(ii) a gift that must be disclosed under the Local Government (Elections) Regulations 1997 regulation 30B; or
(iii) a gift from a statutory authority, government instrumentality or non-profit association for professional training; or
(iv) a gift from WALGA, the Australian Local Government Association Limited (ABN 31 008 613 876), the Local Government Professionals Australia WA (ABN 91 208 607 072) or the LG Professionals Australia (ABN 85 004 221 818);

interest —
(a) means an interest that could, or could reasonably be perceived to, adversely affect the impartiality of the person having the interest; and
(b) includes an interest arising from kinship, friendship or membership of an association;

local government employee means a person —
(a) employed by a local government under section 5.36(1); or
(b) engaged by a local government under a contract for services;

prohibited gift, in relation to a local government employee, means —
(a) a gift worth the threshold amount or more; or
(b) a gift that is 1 of 2 or more gifts given to the local government employee by the same person within a period of 1 year that are in total worth the threshold amount or more;

threshold amount, for a prohibited gift, means $300 or a lesser amount determined under regulation 19AF.

Division 2 — Content of codes of conduct

19AB. Prohibited gifts

(1) In this regulation —

local government employee does not include the CEO.

(2) A code of conduct must contain a requirement that a local government employee not accept a prohibited gift from an associated person.

19AC. Recording, storing, disclosure and use of information relating to gifts

(1) In this regulation —

local government employee does not include the CEO.

(2) A code of conduct must contain requirements relating to the recording, storing, disclosure and use of information relating to gifts that, under a code of conduct, may be accepted by local government employees from associated persons.

19AD. Conflicts of interest

(1) A code of conduct must contain a requirement that a local government employee who has an interest in any matter to be discussed at a council or committee meeting attended by the local government employee disclose the nature of the interest —

(a) in a written notice given to the CEO before the meeting; or

(b) at the meeting immediately before the matter is discussed.

(2) A code of conduct must contain a requirement that a local government employee who has given, or will give, advice in respect of any matter to be discussed at a council or committee meeting not attended by the local government employee disclose the nature of any interest the local government employee has in the matter —

(a) in a written notice given to the CEO before the meeting; or

(b) at the time the advice is given.
A code of conduct must exclude from a requirement under subregulation (1) or (2) an interest referred to in section 5.60.

A code of conduct must excuse a local government employee from a requirement under subregulation (1) or (2) if the local government employee fails to disclose the nature of an interest because they did not know and could not reasonably be expected to know —

(a) that they had an interest in the matter; or

(b) that the matter in which they had an interest would be discussed at the meeting and they disclosed the nature of the interest as soon as possible after the discussion began.

A code of conduct must require that if, to comply with a requirement under subregulation (1) or (2), a local government employee discloses an interest in a written notice given to the CEO before a meeting, then —

(a) before the meeting the CEO must cause the notice to be given to the person who is to preside at the meeting; and

(b) at the meeting the person presiding must bring the notice and its contents to the attention of the persons present immediately before any matter to which the disclosure relates is discussed.

Subregulation (7) applies if —

(a) to comply with a requirement under subregulation (1), the nature of an interest in a matter is disclosed at a meeting; or

(b) a disclosure is made as described in subregulation (4)(b) at a meeting; or

(c) to comply with a requirement under subregulation (5)(b), notice of the interest is brought to the attention of the persons present at a meeting.

The nature of the interest must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Other matters codes of conduct must deal with

In this regulation —

resources of the local government includes —

(a) local government property; and

(b) services provided, or paid for, by the local government.

A code of conduct must contain requirements relating to —
(a) the behaviour expected of a local government employee in relation to each of the following —
   (i) the performance of the local government employee’s duties;
   (ii) dealings with other local government employees and the broader community;
   (iii) the use and disclosure of information acquired by the local government employee in the performance of their duties;
   (iv) the use of the resources of the local government;
   (v) the use of the local government’s finances;

and

(b) how the records of the local government are to be kept; and

(c) the reporting by local government employees of suspected breaches of codes of conduct and suspected unethical, fraudulent, dishonest, illegal or corrupt behaviour; and

(d) the way in which suspected breaches of the code of conduct and suspected unethical, fraudulent, dishonest, illegal or corrupt behaviour of a local government employee are to be managed.
